Government-Nonprofit Relations in Times of Recession Rachel Laforest, 2016-04-24 Government Nonprofit Relations in Times of Recession brings together contributions by international scholars to examine how the relationships between governments and nonprofit organizations have shifted as a result of the global recession Each chapter provides a detailed analysis of the impact of the recession on government operations and on the nonprofit sector It is essential reading for academics and practitioners interested in the current policy agendas with regard to the nonprofit sector This book is the sixth volume to emerge from the Public Policy and Third Sector Initiative in the School of Policy Studies at Queen s University and is based on the Tenth Annual National Forum of the Initiative which brought together public servants experts and practitioners to discuss the evolution of government nonprofit relations Contributors include Nicholas Acheson University of Ulster John Butcher Australian National University John Casey City University of New York Gemma Donnelly Cox Trinity College John A Healy Atlantic Philanthropies Rachel Laforest Queen s University Barbara Levine Carleton University Carmen Parra University Abat Oliba Ceu Colin Rochester University of London Bj rn Schmitz University of Heidelberg Steven Rathgeb Smith American University The University of Washington Marilyn Taylor University of London Evren Tok Hamad Bin Kkalifa University and Meta Zimmeck Roehampton University Lifelong Learning for Poverty Eradication Wapula N. Raditloaneng, Morgen Chawawa, 2015-02-23 This book illustrates the meaning and scope of lifelong learning and different types of poverty reduction programs prevalent generally in the African context and particularly in selected communities in Botswana Lifelong learning is important for all stakeholders in poverty reduction to develop a better understanding of the scope and extent of poverty so that they can make informed decisions on best ways of tackling poverty The book succinctly showcases community development and engagement initiatives and experiences from selected African universities and how the interaction of the universities and their respective communities resulted in a major transformation in the lives of poor families through exposure to some engagement strategies that effectively gave them a better future in their fight against poverty This book develops in the reader a better understanding of the dynamics and dilemma of poverty and its negative effects on individuals and communities But it answers the plight of the poor by equipping them with effective and practical tools to transform their lives and take full control of their destiny Provides a conceptual understanding of lifelong learning Describes practical aspects and indicators of poverty and how it requires tackling through a multi sectoral approach Focuses on poverty reduction in all fronts including development of an entrepreneurship mind set The Routledge Companion to Nonprofit Management Helmut Anheier,Stefan Toepler,2020-04-08 Over the past three decades or so the nonprofit voluntary or third sector has undergone a major transformation from a small cottage industry to a major economic force in virtually every part of the developed world as well as elsewhere around the globe Nonprofit organizations are now major providers of public services working in close cooperation with governments at all levels and increasingly find themselves in competition with commercial firms across various social marketplaces This transformation has come with ever increasing demands for enhancing the organizational capacities and professionalizing the management of nonprofit institutions The Routledge Companion to Nonprofit Management is the first internationally focused effort to capture the full breadth of current nonprofit management research and knowledge that has arisen in response to these developments With newly commissioned contributions from an international set of scholars at the forefront of nonprofit management research this volume provides a thorough overview of the most current management thinking in this field It contextualizes nonprofit management globally provides an extensive introduction to key management functions core revenue sources and the emerging social enterprise space and raises a number of emerging topics and issues that will shape nonprofit management in future decades As graduate programs continue to evolve to serve the training needs in the field The Routledge Companion to Nonprofit Management is an essential reference and resource for graduate students researchers and practitioners interested in a deeper understanding of the operation of the nonprofit sector The Nurturing Leader Bill Locke,Joel

Chistie,2012-05-23 Praise for The Nurturing Leader The Nurturing Leader is an excellent guide for both the seasoned and developing leaders as it provides practical tools for skill development and strategies I find it very useful Peter Both Minister of Information and Communications Government of Upper Nile State South Sudan Gives leadership teams the important questions to ask on an ongoing basis to support systemic growth and facilitate change when required An easy read that is very comprehensive in terms of the strategies and tools it provides Dr Lucy Miller Chief Superintendent Calgary Catholic School District New Frontiers of Philanthropy Lester M. Salamon,2014-06-13 The resources of both governments and traditional philanthropy are either barely growing or in decline yet the problems of poverty ill health and environmental degradation balloon daily It is therefore increasingly clear that we urgently need new models for financing and promoting social and environmental objectives Fortunately a significant revolution appears to be underway on the frontiers of philanthropy and social investing tapping not only philanthropy but also private investment capital and providing at least a partial response to this dilemma This book examines the new actors and new tools that form the heart of this revolution and shows how they are reshaping the way we go about supporting solutions to social and environmental problems throughout the world With contributions from leading experts in the field New Frontiers of Philanthropy provides a comprehensive analysis of the many new institutions that have surfaced on this new frontier of philanthropy and social investment the new tools and instruments these institutions are bringing to bear the challenges that these actors and tools still encounter and the steps that are needed to maximize their impact The result is a powerful and accessible guide to developments that are already bringing significant new resources into efforts to solve the world's problems of poverty ill health and environmental degradation unleashing new energies and new sources of ingenuity for social and environmental problem solving and generating new hope in an otherwise dismal scenario of lagging resources and resolve Investors philanthropists social entrepreneurs nonprofit leaders business executives government officials and students the world over will find much to build on in these pages Effective Philanthropy Mary Ellen S. Capek, Molly Mead, 2006 Shows how foundations nonprofits and organizations in other sectors can be more effective by institutionalizing deeper understanding of diversity and gender
