Should these terms be reserved for the specifically historical nature of problems encountered in the process of acquiring new nationality and citizenship or can they be extended to the writing of literature itself or used to describe economic migration arising out of privilege As a response to these debates Shifting Continents Colliding Cultures explores the aftermath of British colonialism on the Indian subcontinent and Sri Lanka including the resulting diaspora The essays also examine zones of intersection between theories of postcolonial writing and models of diaspora and the nation Particular lines of investigation include how South Asian identity is negotiated in Western spaces and its reverse how Western identity is negotiated in South Asian space reading identity by privileging history the role of diasporic women in the Western nation how diaspora affects the literary canon and how diaspora is used in the production of alternative identities in films such as Gurinder Chadha's Bhaji on the Beach
