It's Not about Math, It's about Life Kari Simmons Kling,1997

Bruce Springsteen's Born in the USA Geoffrey Himes,2005-08-19 When Bruce Springsteen went back on the road in 1984 he opened every show by shouting out one two one two three four followed by the droning synth chords of Born in the U S A Max Weinberg hit his drums with a two fisted physicality that cut through the swelling chords With a rolled up red kerchief around his head and heavy black boots under his faded jeans Springsteen looked like the character of the song and from the very first line Born down in a dead man s town he sang with the throat scraping desperation of a man with his back against the wall When he reached the crucial lines though the guitars and bass dropped out and Weinberg switched to just the hi hat Springsteen s voice grew a bit more private and reluctant as he sang Nowhere to run Nowhere to go It was as if he weren t sure if this were an admission of defeat or the drawing of a line in the sand But when the band came crashing back at full strength building a crescendo that fell apart in the cacophony of Springsteen s and Weinberg s wild soloing paused and then came together again in the determined marching riff it was clear that the singer was ready to make a stand
