Stitching the 24-Hour City Seo Young Park,2021-06-15 Stitching the 24 Hour City reveals the intense speed of garment production and everyday life in Dongdaemun a lively market in Seoul South Korea Once the site of uprisings against oppressive working conditions in the 1970s and 1980s Dongdaemun has now become iconic for its creative economy nightlife fast fashion factories and shopping plazas Seo Young Park follows the work of people who witnessed and experienced the rapidly changing marketplace from the inside Through this approach Park examines the meanings and politics of work in one of the world's most vibrant and dynamic global urban marketplaces Park brings readers into close contact with the garment designers workers and traders who sustain the extraordinary speed of fast fashion production and circulation as well as the labor activists who challenge it Attending to their narratives and practices of work Park argues that speed rather than being a singular drive of acceleration is an entanglement of uneven paces of life labor the market and the city itself Stitching the 24 Hour City exposes the under studied experiences with Dongdaemun fast fashion peeling back layers of temporal politics of labor and urban space to record the human source of the speed that characterizes the never ending movement of the 24 hour city

Who's Swearing Now? The Social Aspects of Conversational Swearing Kristy Beers Fägersten, 2012-03-15 Who's Swearing Now represents an investigation of how people actually swear illustrated by a collection of over 500 spontaneous swearing utterances along with their social and linguistic contexts The book offers a solution to the controversial issue of defining swear words and swearing by limiting the investigation to the core set of words most common to previous swearing studies This specific focus results in accurate depictions of contextualized swearing utterances Precise frequency counts are thus enabled which along with offensiveness ratings of contextualized and non contextualized swearing enable a clarification of The Swearing Paradox referring to the phenomenon of frequently used swear words also being those which traditionally are judged to be the most offensive The book revisits the relationship between gender and swear word usage but considers the distribution based on the core subset of swear words revealing similarities where others have claimed differences Significantly Who's Swearing Now considers the aspect of race with regards to swear word usage and reveals behavioral differences between for example White and African American males and females with regards to word preferences as well as social impetuses for and effects of swearing Questionnaire and interview data supplement the swearing utterances revealing participants individual credos about their own use or non use of swear words and interestingly about others allowed or ideally prohibited use of swear words These sets of data present thought provoking and often entertaining statements regarding the unwritten set of rules governing swearing behavior Who's Swearing Now concludes with close analyses of four recent and highly publicized incidences of public swear word usage considered in light of the spontaneous swearing utterances speaker and addressee variables such as gender race and age and perceptions of offensiveness and propriety
