Further Selections from the Tragic History of the Sea, 1559-1565 C.R. Boxer, 2017-05-15 Being about to write down the disastrous voyage of this great ship it occurred to me how rash men are in their undertakings chief among which or one of the greatest is confiding their lives to four planks lashed together and to the discretion of the furious winds So wrote Henrique Dias an eye witness of the wreck of the Sao Paulo off Sumatra and the subsequent fate of the survivors His account is one of three narratives here translated into English for the first time of certain shipwrecks which befell the Portuguese in the mid 16th century The other two describe the wrecking of two East Indiamen off the East African coast and the misadventures of a voyage from Brazil to Lisbon In his introduction Professor Boxer describes the lives of the three chroniclers and gives bibliographical details of their works The narratives are translated from the original accounts which Bernardo Gomes de Brito included in his História Trágica Marítima Lisbon 1735 36 The present volume forms a companion to Professor Boxer's earlier work The Tragic History of the Sea 1589 1622 Hakluyt Society 1959 This is a new print on demand hardback edition of the volume first published in 1968

Further Selections from The Tragic History of the Sea, 1559-1565 Bernardo Gomes de Brito, 1968 Eyewitness Henrique Dias gives a first hand account of the wreck of the Portuguese ship Sao Paulo off Sumatra and the fates of its survivors The other two narratives describe the wrecking of two East Indiamen off the East African coast and the misadventures of a voyage from Brazil to Lisbon Guide to the Hispanic American Historical Review, 1956-1975 Wilber A. Chaffee, Beecher C. Ellison, 1980 Travel Narratives from the Age of Discovery Peter C. Mancall, 2006 This is a primary source collection of narratives about the travel and discovery in North and South America Africa Asia and Europe in the 16th century Encyclopedia of Exploration to 1800 Raymond John Howgego, 2003 A comprehensive reference guide to the history and literature of exploration travel and colonization from the earliest times to the year 1800 The vast scope of the Encyclopedia of Exploration makes it a work unlike any other in its combination of historical biographical and bibliographical data It includes a catalogue of all known expeditions voyages and travels as well as biographical information on the travellers themselves which places them in their historical context The Encyclopedia of Exploration to 1800 is a massive undertaking resulting in a work that extends to 1 2 million words in almost 1200 pages The 2327 major articles have generated index entries totalling more than 7500 names of persons or ships mentioned in the text Within the text itself there are about 4000 cross references between articles Altogether nearly 20 000 bibliographical citations accompany the articles A considerable quantity of information in this book is presented here for the first time in English Studia, 1973 Guide to the Hispanic American Historical Review Ruth Lapham Butler, Charles Gibson, Stanley Robert Ross, 1956 The Hispanic American Historical Review, 1969 Studia - Centro de Estudos Históricos Ultramarinos, 1973 Revista Instituto Arqueológico, Histórico e Geográfico Pernambucano, 1967 The World-Literary System and the Atlantic Sorcha Gunne, Neil Lazarus, 2020-12-30 The World Literary System and the Atlantic grapples with key questions about how American studies and the Atlantic region in general engages with new considerations of literary comparativism international literary space and the world literary system The edited collection furthers these discussions by placing them into a relationship with the theory of combined and uneven development a theory that has a long pedigree in Marxist sociology and political economy and that continues to stimulate debate across the social sciences but whose implications for culture have received less attention Drawing on the comparative modes concepts and methods being developed in the new world literary studies the essays cover a diverse range of topics such as the periodization of world literature racism and the world system singular modernity critical irrationalism commodity frontiers semi peripherality and world ecology The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Atlantic Studies     Studia; Revista Semestral, 1973     Tragic History Sea C.
