Fusilier Recollections And Reflections 1939 1945:

Fusilier John McManners, 2002 The Veterans' Tale Frances Houghton, 2019-01-10 This is a unique account of the ways in which British veterans of the Second World War remembered understood and recounted their experiences of battle throughout the post war period Focusing on themes of landscape weaponry the enemy and comradeship Frances Houghton examines the imagery and language used by war memoirists to reconstruct and review both their experiences of battle and their sense of wartime self Houghton also identifies how veterans memoirs became significant sites of contest as former servicemen sought to challenge what they saw as unsatisfactory official scholarly and cultural representations of the Second World War in Britain Her findings show that these memoirs are equally important both for the new light they shed on the memory and meanings of wartime military experience among British veterans and for what they tell us about the cultural identity of military life writing in post war British society Combat and Morale in the North African Campaign Jonathan Fennell, 2011-02-17 Military professionals and theorists have long understood the relevance of morale in war Montgomery the victor at El Alamein said following the battle that the more fighting I see the more I am convinced that the big thing in war is morale Jonathan Fennell in examining the North African campaign through the lens of morale challenges conventional explanations for Allied success in one of the most important and controversial campaigns in British and Commonwealth history He introduces new sources notably censorship summaries of soldiers mail and an innovative methodology that assesses troop morale not only on the evidence of personal observations and official reports but also on contemporaneously recorded rates of psychological breakdown sickness desertion and surrender He shows for the first time that a major morale crisis and stunning recovery decisively affected Eighth Army's performance during the critical battles on the Gazala and El Alamein lines in 1942 The Second World War Through Soldiers' Eyes James Goulty, 2016-07-31 What was it really like to serve in the British Army during the Second World War Discover a soldier's view of life in the British Army from recruitment and training to the brutal realities of combat Using first hand sources James Goulty reconstructs the experiences of the men and women who made up the citizen's army Find out about the weapons and equipment they used the uniforms they wore how they adjusted to army discipline and faced the challenges of active service overseas What happened when things went wrong What were your chances of survival if you were injured in combat or taken prisoner While they didn't go into combat thousands of women also served in the British Army with the ATS or as nurses What were their wartime lives like And when the war had finally ended how did newly demobilised soldiers and servicewomen cope with returning home The British Army that emerged victorious in 1945 was vastly different from the poorly funded force of 865 000 men who heard Neville Chamberlain declare war in 1939 With an influx of civilian volunteers and conscripts the army became a citizen's force and its character and size were transformed By D Day Britain had a well equipped disciplined army of over three million men and women and during the war they served in a diverse range of places across the world This book uncovers

some of their stories and gives a fascinating insight into the realities of army life in wartime

A Handbook of Chaplaincy Studies Christopher Swift, Mark Cobb, Andrew Todd, 2016-03-09 A Handbook of Chaplaincy Studies explores fundamental issues and critical questions in chaplaincy spanning key areas of health care the prison service education and military chaplaincy Leading authors and practitioners in the field present critical insight into the challenges and opportunities facing those providing professional spiritual care From young men and women in the military and in custody to the bedside of those experiencing life's greatest traumas this critical examination of the role played by the chaplain offers a fresh and informed understanding about faith and diversity in an increasingly secular society An invaluable compendium of case studies academic reflection and critical enquiry this handbook offers a fresh understanding of traditional contemporary and innovative forms of spiritual practice as they are witnessed in the public sphere Providing a wide ranging appraisal of chaplaincy in an era of religious complexity and emergent spiritualities this pioneering book is a major contribution to a relatively underdeveloped field and sets out how the phenomenon of chaplaincy can be better understood and its practice more robust and informed

Tempting the Fates Dare Wilson, 2006-11-27 General Dare Wilson saw action in France 1940 Dunkirk Italy and North West Europe where he won his MC with the Northumberland Fusiliers and later the Recce Regiment He then served in Palestine and Korea which he rates as the most vicious war he fought in He was picked to command 22 SAS and was responsible for basing them at Hereford His account of the world record breaking free fall jump free falling from 34 000 feet makes thrilling reading one member died He went on to fight the Mau Mau in Kenya and was in the last party to leave Aden when we withdrew in 1968 Dare then learnt to fly helicopters and commanded the fledgling Army Air Corps We believe that this is one of the most enthralling of the many superb memoirs we have published Certainly it is the widest in its scope and makes for thrilling reading

Conservative Thinkers from All Souls College Oxford Richard Davenport-Hines, 2022 Investigates historic strands of conservative thought and responds to the radical changes which many think have transformed the Conservative party into a populist movement upholding English nationalism All Souls College Oxford was one of the meeting points of English public intellectuals in the twentieth century Its Fellows prided themselves on agreeing in everything except their opinions They included Cabinet Ministers from all the three major parties and academics of diverse political allegiances who met for frank conversations and lively disagreements Davenport Hines investigates historic strands of conservative thought aversion to rapid and disruptive change mistrust of majority opinions prizing of community loyalties and pride over the assertion of aggressive individualism the recession of the Church of England and the impact of militarism Conservative Thinkers from All Souls College Oxford draws on the ideas of two conservative thinkers Trimmer Halifax and Michael Oakeshott to examine the conservative assumptions ideas writings and influence of seven Fellows of All Souls from the last century Their brands of conservatism regarded popular democracy as an unavoidable necessity which must be managed rather than loved Their scepticism about the rule of the people was rooted in a

Good Moments , 2002 Oxford Dictionary of National Biography 2005-2008 Lawrence Goldman, 2013-03-07 Who made modern Britain This book drawn from the award winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life Following on from the Oxford DNB s first supplement volume noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004 this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008 Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics the arts business technology and law to military service sport education science and medicine Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain's recent history From the 1950s the young Harold Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman for example From the Sixties the footballer George Best photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett It's hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly Freddie Laker pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit-coms A decade later you probably browsed in Anita Roddick's Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson In the 1990s you may have hoped that Things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O'Brien in journalism Ned Sherrin in broadcasting or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer Cicely Saunders creator of the hospice movement and Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham John DeLorean's gull-wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person's life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them leading figures in their field Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter Michael Crick on George Best Richard Davenport Hines on Anita Roddick Brenda Hale on Rose Heilbron Roy Hattersley on James Callaghan Simon Heffer on John Profumo Douglas Hurd on Edward Heath Alex Jennings on Paul Scofield Hermione Lee on Pat Kavanagh Geoffrey Wheatcroft on Conor Cruise O'Brien and Peregrine Worsthorne on Bill Deedes Many in this volume are naturally household names But a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines What in the 1980s became Thatcherism owed much to behind-the-scenes advice from Ralph Harris and Alfred Sherman children who learned to read with Ladybird Books must thank their creator Douglas Keen while without its first producer Verity Lambert there would have been no Doctor Who Others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts Take for instance Arthur Bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a Liverpool munitions factory following an explosion only to do the same months later in another factory Awarded the George Cross and the George Medal Bywater remains the only non-combatant to have received Britain's two highest awards for civilian bravery The Bulletin, 2002 Inferno Max Hastings, 2020-02-27 H t standaardwerk over de Tweede Wereldoorlog The Making Of The British Army Allan Mallinson, 2009-11-10 Edgehill 1642 Surveying the disastrous scene in the aftermath of the first battle of the English Civil War Oliver Cromwell realized that war could no longer be waged in the old feudal way there had to be system and discipline and therefore eventually a standing professional army From the New Model Army of Cromwell s distant vision former soldier Allan Mallinson shows us the people and events that have shaped the British army we know today How Marlborough s momentous victory at Blenheim is linked to Wellington s at Waterloo how the desperate fight at Rorke s Drift in 1879 underpinned the heroism of the airborne forces at Arnhem in 1944 and why Montgomery s momentous victory at El Alamein mattered long after the Second World War was over From the British Army s origins at the battle of Edgehill to the recent conflict in Afghanistan The Making of the British Army is history at its most relevant and most dramatic Country Life Illustrated ,2002 The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints ,1968

The Combat Soldier Anthony King,2013-02-21 How do small groups of combat soldiers maintain their cohesion under fire This question has long intrigued social scientists military historians and philosophers Based on extensive research and drawing on graphic analysis of close quarter combat from the Somme to Sangin the book puts forward a novel and challenging answer to this question Against the common presumption of the virtues of the citizen soldier this book claims that in fact the infantry platoon of the mass twentieth century army typically performed poorly and demonstrated low levels of cohesion in combat With inadequate time and resources to train their troops for the industrial battlefield citizen armies typically relied on appeals to masculinity nationalism and ethnicity to unite their troops and to encourage them to fight By contrast cohesion among today s professional soldiers is generated and sustained quite differently While concepts of masculinity and patriotism are not wholly irrelevant the combat performance of professional soldiers is based primarily on drills which are inculcated through intense training regimes Consequently the infantry platoon has become a highly skilled team capable of collective virtuosity in combat The increasing importance of training competence and drills to the professional infantry soldier has not only changed the character of cohesion in the twenty first century platoon but it has also allowed for a wider social membership of this group Soldiers are no longer included or excluded into the platoon on the basis of their skin colour ethnicity social background sexuality or even sex women are increasingly being included in the infantry but their professional competence alone can they do the job In this way the book traces a profound transformation in the western way of warfare to shed light on wider processes of transformation in civilian society This book is a project of the Oxford Programme on the Changing Character of War Britain and Victory in the Great War Peter Liddle,2018-06-30 How can we begin to make sense of the Great War now that over 100 years have passed since it ended with the defeat of Germany Austria Hungary the Ottoman empire and Bulgaria and the collapse of Tsarist Russia The conflict had such a profound influence on world history that is it difficult to reconcile the different perspectives and draw clear conclusions That is why this thought provoking collection of original essays on the outcome of the war and its aftermath is of such value It completes the trilogy of ground breaking volumes conceived and edited by Peter Liddle which presents the latest scholarly thinking about the Great War from an international perspective The first two volumes Britain Goes to War and Britain and the Widening War made this stimulating new writing accessible to a broad readership and this final volume has the same aim A group of over twenty expert contributors reconsider the military reasons for the outcome of the fighting and look at the consequences for the principal nations involved They explore the way the war and the peace settlement shaped the twentieth century and had an enduring impact within Europe and beyond Book Review Index ,2003 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation
