Reforming: A Theology of Church Reform and Renewal John P. Bradbury, 2013-07-18 One of the slogans of the reformation was ecclesia reformata semper reformanda the reformed church always reforming Churches throughout the western world are currently engaged in reform and renewal programmes through internal structural reforms as well as movements such as emerging church This book presents a challenging theology of church reform and renewal that offers a contemporary understanding of this historic slogan Taking an interdisciplinary approach Bradbury discerns processes and practices which are perpetually reforming and renewing the identity of the church It examines doctrinal and confessional conceptions of the church re examines texts concerned with covenantal renewal and explores Jewish Christian dialogue as an example of renewal A constructive theology is offered utilizing the categories of collective memory and mimetic practice This upholds fundamental Christian identity whilst driving the process of reform and renewal under God in the context of a three way relationship between God the church and the world Theology and the Anthropology of Christian Life Joel

Robbins, 2020-07-29 Anthropological theory can radically transform our understanding of human experience and offer theologians an introduction to the interdisciplinary nature between anthropology and Christianity Both sociocultural anthropology and theology have made fundamental contributions to our understanding of human experience and the place of humanity in the world But can these two disciplines despite the radical differences that separate them work together to transform their thinking on these topics Robbins argues that they can To make this point he draws on key theological discussions of atonement eschatology interruption passivity and judgement to rethink important anthropological debates about such topics as ethical life radical change the ways people live in time agency gift giving and the nature of humanity The result is both a major reconsideration of important aspects of anthropological theory through theological categories and a series of careful readings of influential theologians such as Moltmann Pannenberg J ngel and Dalferth informed by rich ethnographic accounts of the lives of Christians from around the world In conclusion Robbins draws on contemporary discussions of secularism to interrogate the secular foundations of anthropology and suggests that the differences between anthropology and theology surrounding this topic can provide a foundation for transformative dialogue between them rather than being an obstacle to it Written as a work of interdisciplinary anthropological theorizing this book also offers theologians an introduction to some of the most important ground covered by burgeoning field of the anthropology of Christianity while guiding anthropologists into core areas of theological discussion Although theoretically ambitious the book is clearly argued throughout and written to be accessible to all readers in the social sciences theology and religious studies interested in the place of religion in social life and human experience T&T Clark Handbook of Public Theology, 2022-06-02 T T Clark

Handbook of Public Theology introduces the various philosophical and theological positions and approaches in the emerging discourse of public theology Distinguishing public theology from political theology as well as from liberation theology this book clarifies central terms like public sphere the secular and post secularity in order to highlight the specific characteristics of public theology Its particular focus lies on the ways in which much of public theology has established itself as a contextual theology in politically secular societies aiming to continue the apologetical tradition in this specific context Depending on what is regarded as the most pressing challenge for the reasonable defence of the Christian hope in liberal democracies public theologians have focused on social ethics ecclesiology or Soteriology with the aim to strengthen the virtues needed for democratic citizenship Here attention is being paid to Protestant Catholic and Orthodox perspectives The volume further illustrates the characteristics of the discourse by introducing the ways in which public theologians have responded to concrete challenges arising in the spheres of politics economics ecology sports culture and religion To highlight the international scope of the public theological discourse the volume concludes with a summarizing overview of public theological debates in Africa Asia Australia Europe North America and Latin America Praying to a French God Kenneth Jason Wardley, 2016-04-08 As a phenomenologist Lacoste is concerned with investigating the human aptitude for experience as a theologian Lacoste is interested in humanity s potential for a relationship with the divine what he terms the liturgical relationship Beginning from the proposition that prayer is a theme that occurs throughout Lacoste s writing and using this proposition as a heuristic through which to view interpret and critique his thought this book examines Lacoste s place amid both the recent theological turn in French thought and the post war emergence of la nouvelle th ologie Drawing upon unpublished and out of print material previously only available in French Romanian or German the book will be of interest to scholars of philosophy phenomenology and theology Oliver O'Donovan's Moral Theology Samuel Tranter, 2020-10-01 This book offers the first sustained full length treatment of the wide ranging work of major Anglican theologian Oliver O Donovan Analyzing such key texts as Resurrection and Moral Order The Desire of the Nations and Ethics as Theology Samuel Tranter shows that the relationship between eschatology and ethics is an area of significant tension in O Donovan s evolving vision of moral theology Tranter traces this tension as it relates to O Donovan s writing and contemporary discussion around natural law divine command and human flourishing as well as to particular topics such as poverty marriage and singleness and biotechnology He also connects it with the broader doctrinal features of O Donovan s project such as his accounts of creation sin and redemption and his understanding of the relationships between the cross and the resurrection on one hand and Christology and pneumatology on the other Throughout Tranter indicates the implications of these themes for our understanding of the Christian life This volume establishes and evaluates O Donovan s influence on contemporary Christian ethicists and political theologians such as Luke Bretherton Gilbert Meilaender Jean Porter and Brent Waters and engages with critical readings of O Donovan such as those by Stanley Hauerwas and Gerald McKenny In conversation with these and other voices from a range of perspectives Tranter shows how O Donovan s proposals may be appropriated and amended as a resource for theology and ethics going forward

Pannenberg on Evil, Love and God Mark Hocknull,2016-05-13

Pannenberg on Evil Love and God examines a much neglected aspect of the theological thought of one of the most original contemporary German theologians Wolfhart Pannenberg his theological and philosophical understanding of evil and its relationship to the love of God The book seeks to correct a widely held misconception that in his theology Pannenberg has neglected the darker side of the world concentrating instead on an optimistic picture of the future This book argues that questions of evil hold a central place throughout Pannenberg s writing and seeks to draw out the implications of his wrestling with these issues The Introduction sets the scene by considering the nature of the question of evil and argues that a theological response must be made as part of a global view of the world and not in isolation from other themes The succeeding chapters develop this theme through a reading of Pannenberg s theology

The Implicit Theology of the Lord's Prayer Jan Muis,2021-01-15 The postmodern and secular culture of the West requires a new reflection on God The Implicit Theology of the Lord s Prayer A Biblical and Theological Investigation reflects on God on the basis of an original and central expression of the Christian faith the Lord s Prayer First Jan Muis interprets the divine names central to this prayer in their biblical contexts Next Muis understands the divine attributes implied by these names from the biblical narrative of God s self revealing actions and explains them in a contemporary framework God s Name indicates his particular personal presence and encounter with human beings The holiness of God s Name and the justice of his Kingship are more than just aspects of the love of the Father the Son and the Spirit The Creator is not a human blown large in his companionship with humans he remains the Exalted who lives both within and beyond created temporal reality In the context of a secular age Muis discusses in what sense this God exists

Why We Need the Church to Become More Like Jesus Joseph H. Hellerman,2017-11-09

Many of us long to experience the fullness of God and his purpose for our lives Not a whole lot of us ever do The reason is that we have departed in some significant ways from the biblical view of Christian life and growth The New Testament highlights the communal missional and eschatological aspects of our walk with God We grow in our faith as individual Christians to the degree that we are a deeply rooted relationally in a local church community that is b passionately playing its part in God s grand story of Creation Fall Redemption and Restoration and c intently anticipating the summing of all things in Christ when Jesus returns In recent decades American evangelicals have traded away community outreach and the Bible s teaching about eternity future for the pursuit of individual religious experience in the here and now Why We Need the Church to Become More Like Jesus traces this departure from biblical Christianity through recent decades of popular evangelical trends and reminds us that faith centered on community mission and the story line of Scripture remains the key to the spiritual formation of the individual Christian

Green Witness Laura Ruth Yordy, 2010-04-29 A call for the reappraisal of why Christians can and should work towards the wholeness of the biophysical environment Green Witness explores the church's role as exemplar in striving towards the fulfillment of God's promise of peace health and diversity to his Kingdom An insightful work in theological ethics

All God's Animals Christopher Steck, 2019-10-01 The book is the first of its kind to draw together in conversation the views of the early Church contemporary biblical and theological scholarship and post conciliar teachings Steck develops a comprehensive Catholic theology of animals based on an in depth exploration of Catholicism's fundamental doctrines trinitarian theology Christology pneumatology eschatology and soteriology All God's Animals makes two central claims First we can hope that God will include animals of the present age in the kingdom inaugurated by Christ Second because of this inclusion our responses to animals should be guided by the values of the kingdom As Christians await the final liberation of all creation they are to be witnesses to God's kingdom by embodying its ideals in their relations with animal life Because the kingdom's fullness is yet to come and because our world remains marked by the wounds of sin however Christian treatment of animals will at times require acts that are at odds with the kingdom's ideals for example those causing suffering and death Steck examines each of these ideas and explores all of their complexities

More Than Communion Scott MacDougall, 2015-05-21 The dominant contemporary model for ecclesiology theological views of the church itself is the ecclesiology of communion MacDougall argues that communion ecclesiologies are often marked by a problematic theological imagination of the future eschatology He argues further that as a result our ways of practising and being the church are not as robust as they might otherwise be Reimagining the church in the light of God's promised future then becomes a critical conceptual and practical task MacDougall presents a detailed exploration of what communion ecclesiologies are and some of the problems they raise He offers two case studies of such theologies by examining how distinguished theologians John Zizioulas and John Milbank understand the church and the future how these combine in their work and the conceptual and practical implications of their perspectives He then offers an alternative theological view and demonstrates the effects that such a shift would have In doing so MacDougall offers a proposal for recovering the move to communion and to ecclesiology to help us imagine a church that is not beyond the world as in Zizioulas or over against the world as in Milbank but in and for the world in love and service This concept is worked out in conversation with systematic theologians such as Jürgen Moltmann Wolfhart Pannenberg and Johannes Baptist Metz and by engaging with a theology of Christian practices currently being developed by practical theologians such as Dorothy C Bass Craig Dykstra and those associated with their ongoing project The potential for the church to become an agent of discipleship love and service can best be realised when the church anticipates God's promised perfection in the full communion between God and humanity among human beings within human persons and between humanity and the rest of creation     The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth Amos Yong, 2009-04-01 This collection of essays was first presented at the 37th annual meeting of the Society for Pentecostal Studies held jointly with the Wesleyan Theological Society at Duke University in March 2008 under the conference theme Signs Sighs and Significance Pentecostal and Wesleyan Explorations of Science and Creation Along with a companion volume of Wesleyan essays published also by Pickwick Publications the twelve chapters here represent both Pentecostal reflections responses to the science religion discussion and Pentecostal contributions to the ongoing exchange by biblical studies specialists historians and theologians among those trained in other disciplines Together the essayists model an actual dialogue in which Pentecostal scholarly reflection is impacted by science religion discourses on the one hand while Pentecostals reach deep into their own tradition to explore how their pre understandings and commitments might enable them to speak with their own voice into pre existing conversations on the other hand This volume thus represents one of the first hopefully the first of many in which Pentecostals register their perspectives on a major issue of our time In a world dominated by science and at a time when theologies of creation that encourage and require care for creation and the environment are proliferating The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth provides a set of Pentecostal perspectives on these important matters     The Good Work of Non-Christians,

Empowerment, and the New Creation Stuart C. Weir, 2016-04-25 Have you ever considered the ultimate purposes and consequences of good work performed by non Christians Have you ever theologically considered the work of non Christians at all Is it possible that God would ever give credence to let alone honor the work of non Christians in an ultimate sense Are you frustrated by theologies of work that are entirely protological in orientation How do we make sense of biblical excerpts that talk of work being judged towards a particular outcome The Good Work of Non Christians Empowerment and the New Creation attempts to answer these questions in a manner that also challenges evangelical assumptions about the ultimate outcomes of working life Drawing strength from eschatologically minded theologies by Miroslav Volf and Darrell Cosden Weir seeks to replace protology with eschatology in a theology of work about non Christians The British evangelical tradition is specifically taken up here so as to make critical assessments of certain airtight theologies regarding human action with reference to the new creation This book attempts to create a heuristic against unhelpful hermeneutical tendencies that inform evangelical theologies This is a work that is not only theological it is biblically historically and ethically rigorous

Healing God's People Thomas A. Kane, 2013 In this age of growing divisions within the Church and society we need reconciliation and healing now more than ever Healing God's People brings together the thought of these theologians and pastors Francine Cardman M Shawn Copeland Frank Desiderio CSP Kate Dooley OP Peter Fink SJ Raymond G Helmick SJ Thomas A Kane CSP Melissa M Kelley Michael McGarry CSP Hoffsman Ospino Rodney L Petersen Thomas W Porter Thomas P Ryan CSP Robert J Schreiter CPPS Thomas Stegman SJ The fruit of two conferences held at the Boston College School of Theology and Ministry in 2009 and 2011 this collection of essays aims to introduce the reader to the complexity of the issues and suggest practical pastoral responses Book jacket

In Defense of Doctrine Rhyne R. Putman, 2015 In Defense of Doctrine is an apologetic for the ongoing constructive theological task in Protestant and Evangelical traditions It suggests that doctrinal development can be explained as a hermeneutical phenomenon and that insights from hermeneutical philosophy and the philosophy of language can aid theologians in constructing explanatory theses for particular theological problems associated with the facts of doctrinal development Joining the recent call to theological interpretation of Scripture Putman provides a constructive model that forwards a descriptive and normative pattern for reading Scripture and theological tradition together

The New Heaven and New Earth Raymond R. Hausoul, 2020-04-09 There is a growing focus on the Christian confession of God's completed kingdom the new heaven and the new earth This theme has time and again seduced people into elaborate fantasies that stimulated the senses How can we talk about it meaningfully Raymond R. Hausoul relates systematic theology to biblical theology by comparing three theologians the Catholic theologian Karl Rahner the Protestant Jürgen Moltmann and the Reformed Gregory Beale This leads to reflections on differences between matter space and time of the new heaven and new earth and those of our present reality The hope for renewal and resurrection is thus linked to the prophecies of the new Jerusalem the tree of life and the resurrection body

Troeltsch's Eschatological Absolute Evan F. Kuehn, 2020-04-01 Ernst Troeltsch is widely recognized as having played an important role in the development of modern Protestant theology but his contribution is usually understood as largely critical of traditional modes of theological inquiry He is best known for his historicist critique of dogmatic theology and seen either as the closing chapter of nineteenth century liberalism or as a proto postmodernist Central to this pivotal period in modern theology stands the problem how can we articulate a doctrine of ultimate reality such that a meaningful and coherent account of the world is available without our understanding of God thereby becoming conditioned by the world itself Evan Kuehn demonstrates that historiographical assumptions about twentieth century religious thought have obscured the coherence and relevance of Troeltsch's understanding of God history and eschatology An eschatological understanding of the Absolute Kuehn contends stands at the heart of Troeltsch's theology and the problem of historicism with which it is faced Troeltsch's eschatological Absolute must be understood in the context of questions that were being raised at the turn of the twentieth century both by research on New Testament apocalypticism and by modern critical methodologies in the historical sciences His theory of the Absolute is central to his views on religion and religious ethics and provides practitioners of constructive studies in religion with important resources for engaging with sociological and historical studies where Troeltsch's status as a classical figure is widely recognized

Trinity and Humanity Uche Anizor, 2016-04-01 This remarkable and intriguing work is the only single author and introductory treatment of Colin Gunton's significant theology currently available tracing the key theological themes major contributions and continuing criticisms of his work The book highlights throughout the Trinity and the concept of humanity and mediation as critical to understanding Gunton's theology A chief aim of the book is to recommend Gunton to an evangelical audience while providing a general introduction and overview to all who are unfamiliar with his work
