The Manambu Language of East Sepik, Papua New Guinea Alexandra Aikhenvald, 2010-06-17 This book is the first comprehensive description of the Manambu language of Papua New Guinea and is based entirely on the author's immersion fieldwork Manambu belongs to the Ndu language family and is spoken by about 2 500 people in five villages Avatip Yawabak Malu Apa n and Yambon Yuanab in East Sepik Province Ambunti district Manambu can be considered an endangered language The Manambu language has many unusual properties Every noun is considered masculine or feminine Feminine gender which is unmarked is associated with small size and round shape and masculine gender with elongated shape large size and importance The Manambu culture is centered on ownership of personal names and is similar to that of the Iatmul described by Gregory Bateson After an introductory account of the language and its speakers Professor Aikhenvald devotes chapters to phonology grammatical relations word classes gender semantics number case possession derivation and compounding pronouns morphohology verbs mood and modality negation clause structure pragmatics discourse semantics the lexicon current directions of change and genetic relationship to other languages The description is presented in a clear style in a framework that will be comprehensible to all linguists and linguistically oriented anthropologists

The Temptation of Non-Being Artemy Magun, 2024-05-02 Why do we enjoy artworks that depict disasters and suffering Is this a hangover from the Modernist impulse to break the rules of harmony Is there actually a proper way to perform negativity in art without resorting to nihilism The Temptation of Non Being uses these fundamental questions to paint a picture of contemporary art as beset by an outbreak of the negative and to construct a new theory of art as a medium of complex negativity The negative in art is explained not as a simple negation or destruction but as a multifaceted polymorphous structure with a vast range of strategies and techniques from parody and pastiche to defamiliarization and non resemblance Charting the depth of these negative practices Artemy Magun shows how they become progressively more complex and explicit illustrating them with interdisciplinary examples from Lars von Trier Jacek Malczewski Andrei Platonov and Fyodor Dostoyevsky At the heart of this layered nested structure lies an understanding of Modern aesthetics that helps to answer even more questions how can the testing probing nature of art lead to this preoccupation with the negative Why does this negativity emerge in the first place What can it tell us about art itself and how it functions in society This is an erudite and provocative analysis that enriches the ongoing evaluation of both high and low art

Mixed Styles in Spoken Arabic in Egypt Gunvor Mejdell, 2017-07-03 This volume deals with the linguistic behaviour of Egyptian academics in a specific setting the panel presentation assumed to represent a discourse genre to which speakers will respond with some kind of similar stylistic norm reflected in linguistic choices among variants of a feature The features selected for investigation are complementizers demonstratives negation relatives and pronoun suffixation all of which have binary variants in the two basic codes available to the speaker the standard variety and the vernacular The use of the variants is discussed for each speaker and across speakers demonstrating certain patterns of distribution order but also a high degree of variable usage chaos The investigation is set in a wider comparative sociolinguistic framework
