Future Of Northern Ireland:

The Future of Northern Ireland Great Britain. Northern Ireland Department, 1972 The Future of Northern Ireland John McGarry, Brendan O'Leary, 1990 The belief that there is no solution to the conflict in Northern Ireland has come to dominate academic and journalistic commentary The first objective of these essays is to show that this belief is mistaken and that it is only the multiplicity of possible solutions that has confused the issue Law's Future(s) David Hayton, 2000-09-15 To mark the 2000 Annual Conference of the Society of Public Teachers of Law the Society has organised a distinguished team of contributors to write a set of reflective and critical essays on the future of law in the United Kingdom considering how it will or should develop over a wide range of areas The essays are concerned not only with all the main branches of the law but also with socio legal studies legal education and legal practice In most of these areas the essays are written by two contributors so that the dialogue between them adds perception to their forecasts taking account of past experience of developing the law via judicial activism or statutory reform processes and also of the European dimension This reflection upon the possible future milestones of UK law will provide stimulating and illuminating reading for all lawyers whether academics or practitioners Contributors Andrew Ashworth Stephen Bailey Rebecca Bailey Harris Nicholas Bamforth Kit Barker John Birds Anthony Bradney Margaret Brazier Richard Card Elizabeth Cooke Fiona Cownie Keith Ewing Conor Gearty Nicola Glover Desmond Greer Brigid Hadfield Johnathan Harris David Hayton Jo Hunt John Jackson Tim Jewell John Lowry Laura Macgregor Judith Masson David McClean Gillian Morris David Oughton John Parkinson Alan Paterson Colin Reid Sir Richard Scott Jo Shaw Lionel Smith Brenda Sufrin Phil Thomas Joseph Thomson Adam Tomkins Martin Wasik Sally Wheeler Richard Whish Sarah Worthington What Future for Northern Ireland? Alliance Commission on Northern Ireland, 1985

Tourism in Northern Ireland and its economic impact and benefits Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Northern Ireland Affairs Committee,2007-03-15 The Committee's report examines the nature of tourism in Northern Ireland its impact on and importance for the overall economy and the effectiveness of measures taken by Government and other relevant agencies to develop promote and support the marketing of Northern Ireland as a tourist destination The Committee's recommendations are addressed to the Northern Ireland Office which took back responsibility for tourism in Northern Ireland when the power sharing executive was suspended in October 2002 but if a power sharing executive is re established then responsibility for tourism will revert to the restored Executive and accordingly responsibility for scrutiny of this policy area would revert to the Committees of a restored Assembly The Committee's report makes 27 recommendations to help Northern Ireland maximise its tourist potential and concludes that if government recognises the enormous economic impact of tourism and if private enterprise in co operation with statutory bodies can develop this recognition into a coherent strategy there is no reason why the success of tourism in the Republic of Ireland should not be replicated in Northern Ireland to the advantage of the whole island of Ireland and with Northern Ireland itself enjoying an equivalent status to Scotland and Wales as a UK tourist destination
