Anglo-German Theatrical Exchange, 2015-02-04 Through the great diversity of topics and methodologies the essays in this volume make a seminal contribution to an under researched field at the intersection of literary and cultural criticism, comparative literature and theatre as well as translation studies. The essays cover a wide range of texts from the eighteenth to the twenty first century. From a broad variety of perspectives the exchange between drama and theatre of the Anglophone and the Germanophone worlds and their mutual influence are explored. While there is a focus on the successful or unsuccessful bridging of the cultural gaps due consideration is given to the nexus between intercultural translation and mise en scene as well as the intricacies of intermedial reshaping. Always placing the analyses within the political and socio-historical contexts the essays make an innovative contribution to the aesthetics of Anglo-German theatrical exchange as well as to European cultural history. This Restless House Zinnie Harris, 2016-05-12

Electrifying This four hour epic of ambition and power is a sinewy reworking of Aeschylus that explodes into a cacophonous climax. GUARDIAN Aeschylus' Oresteia opens with Agamemnon sacrificing his daughter to the gods, an act which sets in motion a bloody cycle of revenge and counter-revenge. When he in turn is killed at the hands of his wife Clytemnestra, their son Orestes takes up the mantle of avenging his father, continuing the bloodshed until peace is ultimately found in the rule of law. Zinnie Harris reimagines this ancient drama using a contemporary sensibility to rework the stories, placing the women in the centre. Orestes' leading role is replaced by his sister Electra who as a young child witnesses her father s murder and is compelled to take justice into her own hands until she too must flee the Furies Winner Best New Play Critics Awards for Theatre in Scotland This Restless House premiered at the Citizens Theatre Glasgow in April 2016 in a co production with the National Theatre of Scotland Theatre Record,2006
