Food For The Future Agriculture For A Global Age:

Food for the Future Joséé Boveé, François Dufour, 2005-09-02 It s not easy to eat well To choose food wisely you need to know where it comes from and how it s produced As consumers most of us don t know what we re getting and eating in our supermarkets and restaurants When rumours and food scares circulate in the media we panic Since most of us know very little about the real state of agriculture today and the ways in which the global agricultural industry produces the foods that end up on our plates we have no basis on which to make informed judgements In this important new book Jos Bov and François Dufour two men from modest farming backgrounds who have become international icons of the resistance to global capitalism unveil the workings of the agricultural industry today and lay down the principles for the creation of a new agriculture for the twenty first century Following on from their international bestseller The World is not For Sale Bov and Dufour have joined forces again to build a constructive programme for the food of the future They seek to make available to every citizen the facts they need in order to understand the crisis of agriculture today and to see how we can move beyond it Presenting a positive agenda for a new kind of agriculture they lay the foundations for a renewal of trust between farmers and citizen consumers in a way that would bring food and the production of food back into the heart of modern society

Global Activism in Food Politics A. Mann, 2014-05-01 Who should provide food and through what relationships Whose livelihoods should be protected For over 20 years the peasant farmers of La Via Campesina have been engaged in the fight against injustice hunger and poverty under the banner of food sovereignty the right of peoples to healthy and culturally appropriate food produced through ecologically sound and sustainable methods and their right to define their own food and agriculture systems They campaign for healthy sustainable alternatives to an industrial food system controlled by agribusiness companies and the architects of unfair trade agreements This book draws on grounded case studies of agrarian movements in the Americas and Europe as exemplars of a power shift as local opposition scales up to global action in an effort to wrest control of our food away from transnational corporations and back to communities

The SAGE Handbook of Social Geographies Susan Smith, 2010 With clarity and confidence this vibrant volume summons up the social in geography in ways that will excite students and scholars alike Here the social is populated not only by society but by culture nature economy and politics Kay Anderson University of Western Sydney This is a remarkable collection full of intellectual gems It not only summarises the field of social geography and restates its importance but also produces a manifesto for how the field should look in the future Nigel Thrift Vice Chancellor University of Warwick The book aims to be accessible to students and specialists alike Its success lies in emphasizing the crossovers between geography and social studies The good editorial work is evident and the participating contributors are well established scholars in their respective fields Miron M Denan Geography Research Forum An excellent handbook that will attract a diversity of readers It will inspire undergraduate postgraduate students and stimulate lecturers researchers interested in the complexity and diversity of the social realm As the first of its kind in the sub discipline it is a book that is enjoyable to read and will definitely add value to a personal or library collection Michele Lobo New Zealand Geographer The social relations of difference from race and class to gender and inequality are at the heart of the concept of social geography This handbook reconsiders and redirects research in the discipline while examining the changing ideas of individuals and their relationship with structures of power Organised into five sections the SAGE Handbook of Social Geographies maps out the connections anchored in social geography Difference and Diversity builds on enduring ideas of the structuring of social relations and examines the ruptures and rifts and continuities and connections around social divisions Geographies and Social Economies rethinks the sociality subjectivity and placement of money markets price and value Geographies of Wellbeing builds from a foundation of work on the spaces of fear anxiety and disease towards newer concerns with geographies of health resilience and contentment Geographies of Social Justice connects ideas through an examination of the possibilities and practicalities of normative theory and frames the central notion of Social geography that things always could and should be different Doing Social Geography is not exploring the how to of research but rather the entanglement of it with practicalities moralities and politics This will be an essential resource for academics researchers practitioners and postgraduates across human geography
