also shows that the Asian Catholic Church is a lively and vibrant communion of local Churches whose fresh and inspiring theological thought should be studied and welcomed outside of Asia as well

Contemporary Issues of Migration and Theology E. Padilla, P. Phan, 2013-03-06 With a diverse list of contributors this volume seeks to discuss in depth some of the key issues that migration poses to World Christianity in the fields of constructive theology ethics spirituality mission ministry inculturation interreligious dialogue and theological education

God's Mission in Asia Ken Christoph Miyamoto, 2007-06-15 Ecumenism in postwar Asia institutionalized in the Christian Conference of Asia displayed a remarkable this worldliness from its inception in the 1940s This tendency was in contrast to the tension between the church centric and world centric approaches to Christian mission that marked conciliar mission thinking in the West This work examines the development of such this worldly holiness in Asian ecumenism focusing on M M Thomas of India and C S Song from Taiwan Special attention is drawn to the idea of God's this worldly presence that considers God as redemptively at work in world history apart from the church The study first compares the development of this worldly holiness in the West and Asia and then examines the thinking of Thomas and Song The chapters on these two theologians discuss their backgrounds the basic concerns motivating their intellectual searches and responses to the questions arising from such concerns These chapters also try to understand how these theologians view the relationship between God and the world In so doing the study highlights the significance of the idea of God's this worldly presence shared by Thomas and Song in spite of differences in their backgrounds approaches and theological formulations Having compared Thomas and Song the study concludes that the idea of God's this worldly presence became central to Asian ecumenism because it offered a common unifying vision to Asian Christians who come from a region characterized by tremendous diversity The idea helped them to see the diverse peoples cultures and religions in Asia under one God who transcends the diversity and still takes it seriously

Global Catholicism Bryan T Froehle, Massimo Faggioli, 2024-10-02 Global Catholicism Between Disruption and Encounter opens the Studies in Global Catholicism series with an examination of a worldwide religious institution that up to now has been more globally extensive than truly globalized It explores the world historical and theological meaning of de Europeanization with church data by world region Readers get an in depth look at the institutional and theological capacity and limits of the cosmopolitan reality of today's Catholic Church Its integrated perspective grounded in cultural and political history together with an ecclesiology of post Vatican II Catholicism offers a new way to approach today's emerging post colonial inter cultural Global Catholicism as centuries old trajectories are disrupted and pressing new realities demand original responses

Asian Catholic Women Thao Nguyen, 2019-11-20 Studying the various movements among women in the Catholic Church in Asia the author argues that the preexisting male dominated church rooted in the colonial era is now being challenged to recentralize itself and exercises an inclusive and participatory ecclesiology in which women should become fuller members of the church and participate in the decision making processes of the church For only when the church in Asia discovers and recognizes the richness of women's potential leadership charisma and vision will it be able to witness to the Gospel values and fulfill its vision of mission in Asia The author shows that Asian Catholic women have played and continue to play a crucial role in designing and carrying out multiple areas of the church's ministries that men failed to do Furthermore the author shows that through the interactions and dialogue with Asian bishops in recent decades Asian Catholic women have gradually influenced the Asian bishops' consciousness of women's issues and concerns For the Joy Set Before Us Brendan Lovett, 2008

Modern developments in both science and history challenge us to a far greater degree of empiricism than has been traditionally considered necessary in the study of theology Any attempt to move in this direction can be significantly helped by Bernard Lonergan's breakthrough discovery of the notion of functional specialties in 1965 The strategy of this book is to make use of this discovery and provide a theological reflection on mission appropriate to the present age The author begins with an insight available from biblical research but absent from current theologies of mission This is the general recognition that the texts concerning a universal mission are in fact an instance of retrojection Building on this through an interpretation of Lonergan's functional specialties of interpretation and history he unfolds the startling implications for grasping the central creative significance of the word of God As the argument transfers from one specialty to the next it moves towards ever richer empiricism culminating in the specialty of communications Here the creativity which will be needed to address faithfully the message of Jesus to our contemporary world in all its complexity becomes apparent Living in the Global Society Roberto

Papini, Antonio Pavan, Stefano Zamagn, 2019-01-04 First published in 1997 Living in the Global Society reflects on the fundamental concept of global economy as the driving force for development and examines how ethical values can direct this towards the welfare of humankind in a future where peace will reign The contributions stem from an international conference held in Rome on Economic Growth for What Kind of Future The book examines four main themes development and underdevelopment globalization in the fields of economics finance trade migration and culture the shape of the world to come through management of resources and goods and finally the challenge of globalization moving from fragmentation towards social growth based on cooperation and integration It is suggested that only a civil society that is also developed at an international level can provide the basis for a true global democracy and true peace This book asks how far are we along the path towards its creation On the Banks of Ganges Felix Wilfred, 2002 Christian Mission Among the Peoples of Asia Jonathan Y. Tan, 2014-08-21 Michael Amaladoss and the Quest for Indian Theology Enrico Beltramini, 2024-09-17 A Jesuit priest born in the Indian state of Tamil Nadu Michael Amaladoss is one of the most prominent Asian thinkers in the field of interreligious dialogue Bringing his unique perspective toward the nature of God and Christ Christian dialogue with Indian Vedanta and the reconciliation between spirituality and social justice Amaladoss has contributed to the creation of a distinctly Indian pole of Catholic theology without the mediating force of Western culture and philosophy With this book Enrico Beltramini offers an assessment of Amaladoss's thought and an investigation into his main theological concerns

Public Theology in an Age of World Christianity P. Chung, 2010-04-26 This book aims to rearticulate and reinterpret a Christian concept of God's mission and evangelization in light of the universal irregular and transversal horizon of God's narrative as it pertains to the realities of public sphere
