For A Very Special Person:

A Sensory Curriculum for Very Special People Flo Longhorn, 2011-09-12 This uniquely valuable book arose from the author's work with profoundly disabled children in a special needs school. The sensory impairment of the children meant that they were unable to learn from traditional teaching methods as they were unaware of the world around them. Our very first awareness of our surroundings and ourselves come through our senses of smell, touch, taste, sight, hearing, and movement, and without them we are isolated. To benefit from the normal school curriculum, children with sensory impairment must learn to develop each of their senses individually and in combination, a process the non-handicapped child goes through spontaneously and unconsciously. This book outlines a curriculum for each of the senses in turn, using stimuli that can be varied to suit the age of the child or young person. Demonstrating how these can be combined to create a multisensory experience and how this newly developed awareness can be integrated into the rest of the school curriculum. This book was developed from the author's work with profoundly disabled children; their sensory impairment meant that traditional teaching was unsuccessful as they were unaware of the world around them. Flo Longhorn sets out a curriculum for developing each sense both individually and in combination, using stimuli that can be varied according to the age of the child. This book shows how these techniques can be amalgamated to create multisensory experiences and how this new awareness can be integrated into the rest of the school curriculum. Designed for teachers and parents of children with profound multiple disabilities combined with sensory and physical impairment, this has become a classic work.

God's Very Special People Julia Mack, 2007 Someone that is very special to your children has just died. What can you put in their hands to help them understand? Julia Mack created God's Very Special People as a hands-on activity to walk children through the concepts of death and going to heaven. It gives answers to questions like why people have to die, why they died now, and what is going on in heaven. Reaching out to grieving children is the mission of God's Very Special People. In the midst of questions and sadness over the death of a loved one, this activity book brings joy, peace, and understanding to children about God's love for all and heaven as God's special place for Christians to be together again. Rev. Ron Miller, Redeemer Lutheran Church, Peoria, IL.

Babette C. Wright, 2010-05 A true story of one transitioning from despair, loneliness, and uncertainty in her life towards happiness, complete peace, and prosperity. A never-ending journey through the exceptional difficult times of one's life to being in complete balance and peace throughout every remaining year of her life. Babette has been through the toughest of struggles and hardships and managed to guide her own way throughout to see the divine light on the other side of her destined path.

A Very Special Journey of Grief, Grace, and Gratitude Julie Clark Ames, 2020-10-16 In No They Are Not Okay but It's Okay: A Very Special Journey of Grief, Grace, and Gratitude, Julie shares with readers the full experience of raising special needs children from birth through puberty with an emotional honesty that is both real and raw. Julie helps others understand the hardships and the joys. Her goal is for parents to know they are not alone in their personal journeys or in the roller coaster of blame doubt and frustration they feel when they are struggling to understand why their child isn't perfect Emotional acceptance does come but that doesn't mean the struggles that fill daily life get easier Parenting under the best of circumstances is hard parenting children with special needs requires an entirely different set of skills and patience is the most important and the easiest to forget when bad days come This book is more than a memoir it is a story that provides guidance hope and education to parents and professionals who have or work with special needs children Since her daughters diagnoses Julie has become very proactive within the schools to help create the best possible environment for all special needs children in the community Because of her involvement with the schools extensive experiences both good and bad with the medical community and an unfortunate encounter with social services Julie can give readers the guidance they need to navigate their own way through the educational medical and legal waters that special needs families find themselves drowning in Julie's knowledge and experience is a lifeline to other moms and dads facing the same challenges Every parent has to know how to be their own child's strongest advocate They need to know what questions to ask when to demand answers and when to walk away from advice they don't trust This book will provide these tools Julie's story is about more than a mother and two challenged daughters It is about more than autism This story is about love faith and family It is about learning to accept something that cannot be changed and to embrace the gifts we are given despite perceived imperfections We cry We adapt We reflect We rejoice Most importantly we continue to live love and grow together every day It is indeed a special journey

Olsen,2010-06-03 It has been a life that has had its challenges but I have overcome a lot of those challenges along the way I had seen my parents struggle along the way and I had challenged myself to do better than they did as well My dad taught me a lot about construction when I was growing up I had gotten married and had two wonderful boys from that union The union did fall apart later on I did get to see a lot of different countries while I was in the United States Navy While I was in the navy I worked on F A 18 Hornets and misc electrical and power generation systems I worked as an Aviation Electrician mate while I was in the military I had gotten out after twenty years as a petty officer second class I had a dream to create my own business and to achieve that dream in owning my own business Part of that dream was to go back to college and get a 2 year degree in general business with a minor in accounting A Notable Woman Don Anderson,2024-11-06 In 2 Kings 4 8 and continuing in 8 1 there is a story about a very special woman a notable woman who fascinated me to the point that I felt driven to tell her story Her story was for me extremely different and more intriguing than any of the other famous stories in the Bible Having been on temporary duty in the Middle East for a while and having become somewhat familiar with the culture there made her actions and attitude stand out even more Among the issues I found intriguing about her were that she was not Hebrew a noble a war hero and the ancestor of any other significant person in the Bible she was a hero in her own right She never showed any signs that she could be intimidated and only in one instance showed that she had any weakness at all when she cried out No my lord Man of god do not lie to your maidservant NKJV revealing a deep hurt that she alone carried She was simply a very special person in her own right who along with the actions of a prophet of god was brought into the pages of history The more I read her story the more I was able to see between the lines and see the panorama of her life and trials She was special and had an indomitable personality she was strong and wise at the same time She was bold and accounting for the times and the culture audacious Her story was well worth telling and I am honored to do so

Life Is a Journey Christina Stewart,2013-07-12 When Christina was a little girls all she ever wanted was to be a nurse she thought all her chances were ruined when she became pregnant at seventeen Suprisingly she managed to achieve her dream as a mature student Many amazing things happened along the way her journey in life that she believes has made her who and what she has now become today Someone was looking after her and shaping her life here she shares her story just as it was straight from the heart Dear God You have done many wonderous things and you have done amazing things for me truly you are worthy of praise Thank you for helping me in all of my battles with your help I can do it I will follow you believing that you know the best path for my life AMEN
