For Every Child A Better World:

For Every Child a Better World Louise Gikow, 2001 Inspired by the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child this book introduces readers to the fact that many children in the world do not have access to medicine clean water clean air enough food or a safe place to live

For Every Child, a Better World Louise Gikow, Ellen Weiss, 1993 Explains the basic rights of children and that all children do not live a life in which their needs are met A Better World for Children?

Michael King, 2002-09-11 This book questions the relationship between personal morality and political will challenging the assumption that changing society is merely a matter of changing attitudes and highlights the pitfalls associated with formulating social reform

For a Better World James Naylor, Rhonda L. Hinthner, Jim Mochoruk, 2022-09-16 Canada's largest and most famous example of class conflict the Winnipeg General Strike redefined local national and international conversations around class politics region ethnicity and gender The Strike's centenary occasioned a re-examination of this critical moment in working class history when 300 social justice activists organizers scholars trade unionists artists and labour rights advocates gathered in Winnipeg in 2019 Probing the meaning of the General Strike in new and innovative ways For a Better World includes a selection of contributions from the conference as well as others explorations of the character of class confrontation in the aftermath of the First World War Editors Naylor Hinthner and Mochoruk depict key events of 1919 detailing the dynamic and complex historiography of the Strike and the larger Workers Revolt that reverberated around the world and shaped the century following the war The chapters delve into intersections of race class and gender Settler colonialism's impact on the conflict is also examined Placing the struggle in Winnipeg within a broader national and international context several contributors explore parallel strikes in Edmonton Crowsnest Pass Montreal Kansas City and Seattle For a Better World interrogates types of commemoration and remembrance current legacies of the Strike and its ongoing influence Together the essays in this collection demonstrate that the Winnipeg General Strike continues to mobilize revealing our radical past and helping us to think imaginatively about collective action in the future

My fight for a better world Hülya Rinscheid,2023-11-21 Fatma grows up in poor circumstances in Turkey and experiences what it is like to be the child of a guest worker in Germany Not only her own Turkish culture but also that of her host country becomes foreign to her She doesn t feel at home anywhere not least because she and her mother keep commuting between Germany and Turkey Fatma cannot find peace Women s disenfranchisement chadors and forced marriages on the one hand freedom of movement dress codes and personal freedoms on the other And is Christianity so different from Islam Do Christians really live more freely In an adventurous way Fatma escapes forced marriages several times which is definitely tinged with humor Will she manage to unite the two cultures for herself

Sustainability Education for a Better World Ram Boojh,Natarajan Ishwaran,2021-12-21 Education is fundamental to societal change Sustainability education provides a holistic vision to deal with societal challenges by equipping learners with skills needed to improve their life and the future of the planet The UN Agenda 2030 with its associated Sustainable Development Goals SDGs particularly Goal 4 on quality education challenges the creativity and imagination of teachers academics and other education sector professionals and practitioners This volume offers valuable insights into and suggestions for delivering SDG 4 and learning from efforts to deliver other SDGs The book will serve as a valuable resource for a variety of readers interested in the sustainability of the planet The State of the World's Children 2002 Carol Bellamy, UNICEF., 2001 The theme of leadership in this publication is related to the role of governments and international institutions in protecting the well being of children It is in three sections the first birth and broken promises contrasts the reality of the life of a child born eleven years ago with the promises made at the World Summit for Children held in New York in 1990 The section to change the world with children looks at the way UNICEF has called attention to the plight of children The last section actions that can change the world concludes that investing in children is the best investment a country can make and that no country has made a leap to sustainable development without investing significantly in its children Read for a Better World TM Educator Guide Grades 2-3 Tonya Leslie, PhD, 2021-08-01 This essential guide to building and using an inclusive classroom library combines theory and lesson plans for educators of students in grades 2 3 Discover how to audit classroom collections incorporate virtual resources approach tough topics and build stronger kinder classrooms In depth theory and essential lesson plans help grade 2 3 educators develop a literacy program focused on diversity and inclusion Prompts for self reflection allow educators to personally engage with lessons and adapt them to their needs Parenting for a Better World Susanna Snyder ,Ellen Ott Marshall, 2022-05-24 Living faithfully isn't about attending church Being Christian is about living in right just relationships with other people and the rest of creation How can Christian parents avoid being overcome with the pressure to be a perfect parent and make a difference in the world Parenting for a Better World shows there are all sorts of ways we can make a real difference from within our own homes Even busy parents can work with their families for global justice Without pressing you to do it all this book offers spiritual resources for reflecting on the relationship between your faith your calling for justice and your commitment to parenting Find encouragement from fellow parents who weave together stories of caregiving activism and scripture that affirm your sense of calling Plus it offers practical strategies to help committed and over committed people integrate caregiving and justice work into their daily lives

Read for a Better World TM STEM Educator Guide Grades 2-3 Dr. Artika R. Tyner, 2022-09-15 This essential guide to building and using an inclusive STEM classroom library combines theory and lesson plans for educators of students in grades 2 3 Discover how to audit classroom collections to support exploration and discovery Learn how to build STEM awareness and interest through reading literacy activities virtual resources and more Give your students the opportunity to dream about how they can create imagine and build a better world Arguing for a Better World Arianne Shahvisi, 2023-07-18 Is it sexist to say that men are trash Can white people be victims of racism Do we bear any individual responsibility for climate change We've all wrestled with questions like these whether we're shouting at a relative across the dinner table quarreling with old classmates on social media or chatting late into the night with friends Many people give kneejerk answers that roughly align with their broader belief system but flounder when asked for their reasoning leading to a conversational stalemate especially when faced with a political generational or cultural divide The truth is that our answers to these questions almost always rely on unexamined assumptions In Arguing for a Better World philosopher Arianne Shahvisi shows us how to work through thorny moral questions by examining their parts in broad daylight equipping us to not only identify our own positions but to defend them as well This book demonstrates the relevance of philosophy to our everyday lives and offers some clear-eyed tools to those who want to learn how to better fight for justice and liberation for all
