Folks & Oaks of Olivet Mildred Lignian,1975      The Biography of Alice B. Toklas Linda Simon,1991-01-01 It is fitting that Alice B Toklas wife and literary impresario of Gertrude Stein should be the subject of a biography and this is a good one sensitive and lively it is clear from this portrait that through her possessive affection she not only had a dominant influence on Stein's life but for good or ill on her highly idiosyncratic prose With her acid tongue shrewd judgment vitality and intense loyalty she was a fairly remarkable person in her self Publishers Weekly Linda Simon writes beautifully of Alice's early years in California of her Polish Jewish family of her growing alienation from her surroundings and gravitation toward artists of her awareness of the isolating burden homosexuality would force on her entertaining thoroughly researched and well written with a clear gaze fixed on undistorted truth Saturday Review A study that shows Toklas as she must have been not Miss Stein's obedient shadow but a multifaceted and complex creature with her own tastes and standards her story is an emotionally stirring experience Washington Post Book World Linda Simon in her preface to this Bison Book edition calls Alice B Toklas a woman who through a mixture of determination and good luck invented a new narrative for her life at a time when options for women were few Simon is the author of Thornton Wilder His World 1979 Good Writing 1988 and other books She is now working on a biography of William James      Michigan in Books ,1975      Michigan Academician ,1991      Parade Without Banners Mildred Lignian,1978      Herrick Genealogical Register Richard Leon Herrick,2010 Henerie Hericke was born by about 1598 in England He emigrated in 1629 and settled in Salem Massachusetts where he married Editha Laskin daughter of Hugh Laskin and Alice in about 1634 They had nine known children Ancestors descendants and relatives lived mainly in England Massachusetts Connecticut Maine Vermont New York Ohio Indiana and Illinois      Community Health Workers in Action Melvin Delgado,2020 Health is a universal topic although complex to understand because to adequately cover it requires the introduction of an historical context and socio cultural factors Health and health inequities touch the lives of millions of people of color across all regions and a desperate search for innovative ways of reaching them in an affirming and cost effective manner This search translates into cultural and linguistic programs that empower and foster social change bringing immense rewards and challenges Community health workers offer tremendous promise in getting much needed health care to those in most need allowing for innovative practice in reaching those in greatest need Health care health workers urban communities      Paperbound Books in Print ,1983      The Indigenous Black People of Monroe, Louisiana and the Surrounding Cities, Towns, and Villages James O. McHenry ED.D,2010-10-26 This book is for those Louisiana slaves and all the American slaves whose labor was forced without regard to their humanity even further with unrestrained disrespect for their existence This book is a tribute to the indigenous originated in or native to the region Black people of Northeast Louisiana those folk who were reared in the rural areas villages and small towns who worked on the farms and plantations sharecropped cleared all the land tended all the livestock planted and harvested all the crops cooked for babysat and cleaned the homes of White folk and endured the hardships of it all This is a tribute to those laborers and professionals who strived for better lives for themselves and their families the people who remained in Monroe those who migrated to Monroe to make it a fine place to call home and those who returned to the warmth of Monroe to live and also to those who left the area and moved on to other parts of the United States and world I want to thank them all for trusting me with their stories
