Finding Is the First Act John Dominic Crossan, 2008-03-01 An imaginative and illuminating study Finding Is the First Act places historical thinking in creative tension with literary appreciation The structures of Jesus's parable of the hidden treasure Matt 13 44 are examined by mapping its plot options finding acting buying in view of other Jewish treasure stories and the vast array of treasure plots in world folklore Startling differences emerge in the plot options chosen by Jesus that point to a new understanding of the directive to give up all one has for the Kingdom of God Why Jesus treasure parable For three reasons that I am aware of First the story has always fascinated me Second in recent work on parables there has often been a tendency to concentrate especially on the longer parables of Jesus I wanted deliberately to move in the opposite direction and to give full emphasis to a very short parable Third this particular parable in contrast for example to that of The Mustard Seed does not furnish much grist for the diachronic mill of biblical studies I was deliberately choosing an item which in isolation from its Matthean context could hardly sustain a monograph study along the standard lines of tradition criticism from the Preface
