Following Christ In A Consumer Society Still The Spirituality Of Cultural Resistance:

Following Christ in a Consumer Society John Francis Kavanaugh (s.j.),1991 Following Christ in a Consumer Society Kavanaugh, John F.,2014-04-10 In an era of fraud corruption and the relentless celebration of image over substance the message of this perennial best seller is more timely than ever Following Christ in a Consumer Society offers a penetrating critique of the culture of consumerism contrasted with the personalism of the Gospel Addressing a soul destroying culture in which having more has become the only measure of value Kavanaugh reminds us of the values that truly make us human Through the counter cultural message of the Gospel his book presents a diagnosis of our social ills while at the same time providing a guide back to wholeness sanity and spiritual health Following Christ in a Consumer Society John F. Kavanaugh,1989 Following Christ in a Consumer Society John Francis Kavanaugh,1981 Nobody's Perfect Cynthia L Cameron,Lakisha R Lockhart-Rusch,Emily A Peck,2025 Cynthia L Cameron Lakisha R Lockhart Rusch and Emily A Peck argue that some adolescents have the privilege to make mistakes in ways that others often do not In Nobody's Perfect the editors offer a curated volume that affirms adolescents as fundamentally good and presents pathways that help youth distinguish mistakes from sin Understanding Folk Religion: 25th Anniversary Edition Paul G. Hiebert,R. Daniel Shaw,Tite Tienou,2024-04-24 This book has served the missiological community for twenty five years as a resource for understanding human spirituality in any context Thousands of students have incorporated the principles of this book into ministry around the globe This twenty fifth anniversary edition seeks to enable those who now bring their passion for mission to contemporary contexts affected by globalization climate change and political perspectives unimagined when this book originally appeared Every community wherever it is on earth has its share of beliefs and values that manifest themselves in practices that reflect spiritual engagement Those engaged in mission need to appreciate how underlying beliefs and values are reflected in handling spiritual power worship and blessing and interaction with others Gospel communicators must account for these elements as they seek to make God's intentions known to people who are searching for God The models presented early in the book are essential for establishing what people consider spiritually critical Applying these models in any religious environment will enable message bearers to engage with beliefs and practices that promote a gospel presentation that makes sense To that end we commend this book for effective missional engagement Redeeming Sin? Ernst M. Conradie,2017-10-11 Can Christian sin talk be retrieved within the public sphere In this contribution to ecotheology Ernst M Conradie argues that amid ecological destruction discourse on sin can contribute to a multidisciplinary depth diagnosis of what has gone wrong in the world He confronts some major obstacles related to the plausibility of sin talk in conversation with evolutionary biology the cognitive sciences and animal ethology He defends an Augustinian insistence that social evil rather than natural evil is our primary predicament If the root cause of social evil is sin then a Christian confession of sin may yet yield good news for the whole earth Reconnecting.calm Tom Mahon,2011-06-28 Reaching for the New

Democratic Education and the Teacher-As-Prophet Jeffery

Dunn,2018-06-28 This volume aims to reveal how Dewey s notion of the religious understood as faith in the human relational condition offers a way to think differently about the aims and purposes of education After exploring the effects of neoliberal conceptions of schooling against broader democratic forms of education this book suggests that Dewey s vision of the teacher as prophet is a useful model for positioning teachers as agents of social change By catalysing the religious work of schools understood not as teaching religion but as a process of social unification the Deweyan teacher as prophet can stimulate experimentation towards a democratic ideal of schooling
