Disappearing Foods Harlan Walker,1995 Tibetans in Nepal Ann Frechette,2004 Based on eighteen months of field research conducted in exile carpet factories settlement camps monasteries and schools in the Kathmandu Valley of Nepal as well as in Dharamsala India and Lhasa Tibet this book offers an important contribution to the debate on the impact of international assistance on migrant communities The author explores the ways in which Tibetan exiles in Nepal negotiate their norms and values as they interact with the many international organizations that assist them and comes to the conclusion that as beneficial as aid agency assistance often is it also complicates the Tibetans efforts to define themselves as a community Food of Sinful Demons Geoffrey Barstow,2017-10-24 Tibetan Buddhism teaches compassion toward all beings a category that explicitly includes animals Slaughtering animals is morally problematic at best and at worst completely incompatible with a religious lifestyle Yet historically most Tibetans both monastic and lay have made meat a regular part of their diet In this study of the place of vegetarianism within Tibetan religiosity Geoffrey Barstow explores the tension between Buddhist ethics and Tibetan cultural norms to offer a novel perspective on the spiritual and social dimensions of meat eating Food of Sinful Demons shows the centrality of vegetarianism to the cultural history of Tibet through specific ways in which nonreligious norms and ideals shaped religious beliefs and practices Barstow offers a detailed analysis of the debates over meat eating and vegetarianism from the first references to such a diet in the tenth century through the Chinese invasion in the 1950s He discusses elements of Tibetan Buddhist thought including monastic vows the

Buddhist call to compassion and tantric antinomianism that see meat eating as morally problematic He then looks beyond religious attitudes to examine the cultural economic and environmental factors that oppose the Buddhist critique of meat including Tibetan concepts of medicine and health food scarcity the display of wealth and idealized male gender roles Barstow argues that the issue of meat eating was influenced by a complex interplay of factors with religious perspectives largely supporting vegetarianism while practical concerns and secular ideals pulled in the other direction He concludes by addressing the surge in vegetarianism in contemporary Tibet in light of evolving notions of Tibetan identity and resistance against the central Chinese state The first book to discuss this complex issue Food of Sinful Demons is essential reading for scholars interested in Tibetan religion history and culture as well as global food history Recent Research on Ladakh 4 & 5 Henry Osmaston, Philip Denwood, 1995 The International Association for Ladakh Studies IALS was formed to provide contacts between all who are interested in the study of Ladakh to organise colloquia and to publish the proceedings and to issue a newsletter Ladakh Studies The Gastronomica Reader Darra Goldstein, 2010-02-21 Described in the 2008 Saveur 100 as At the top of our bedside reading pile since its inception in 2001 the award winning Gastronomica The Journal of Food and Culture is a quarterly feast of truly exceptional writing on food Designed both to entertain and to provoke The Gastronomica Reader now offers a sumptuous sampling from the journal s pages including essays poetry interviews memoirs and an outstanding selection of the artwork that has made Gastronomica so distinctive In words and images it takes us around the globe through time and into a dazzling array of cultures investigating topics from early hominid cooking to Third Reich caterers to the Shiite clergy under Ayatollah Khomeini who deemed Iranian caviar fit for consumption under Islamic law Informed throughout by a keen sense of the pleasures of eating tasting and sharing food The Gastronomica Reader will inspire readers to think seriously widely and deeply about what goes onto their plates Gastronomica is a winner of the Utne Reader s Independent Press Award for Social Cultural Coverage The Penguin Companion to Food Alan Davidson, 2002 No Marketing Blurb Recipes and Reciprocity Hannah Tait Neufeld, Elizabeth Finnis, 2022-08-19 Recipes and Reciprocity considers the ways that food and research intersect for both researchers participants and communities demonstrating how everyday acts around food preparation consumption and sharing can enable unexpected approaches to reciprocal research and fuel relationships across cultures generations spaces and places Drawing from research contexts within Canada Cuba India Malawi Nepal Paraguay and Japan contributors use the sharing of food knowledge and food processes such as drying steaming mixing grinding and churning to examine topics like identity community based research ethics food sovereignty and nutrition Each chapter highlights practical and experiential elements of fieldwork incorporating storytelling recipes and methodological practices to offer insight into how food facilitates relationship building and knowledge sharing across geographical and cultural borders Contributors to this volume bring a range of disciplinary backgrounds including anthropology public health social work history and rural studies to the exploration of global and Indigenous foodways
