Food Pets Die For:

Food Pets Die for Ann N. Martin, 2008 The commercial pet food industry has a secret to hide and Ann Martin wants to make sure you know it Her research reveals some startling facts that the pet food industry conducts animal testing in order to improve their product and includes euthanized cats and dogs in the mix to heighten protein content In this revised and updated edition Martin continues to explore the shocking processes by which commercial pet foods are produced She offers alternative recipes for feeding pets nutritional advice and an exploration of Pet Peeves in which she explores several scams aimed at pet owners This groundbreaking book gives us a glimpse into exactly what we are doing when we buy pet food

Food Pets Die for Ann N. Martin, 1997 Holistic Aromatherapy for Animals Kristen Leigh Bell, 2012-06-01 It is only in recent years that aromatherapy or essential oil therapy has gained substantial acceptance this is primarily due to French veterinarians who have begun using essential oils and hydrosols in their practices Laypeople of course have been enjoying great success treating animals with the very same substances for many years for it is not just the medical professionals who can safely and effectively administer these aromatic oils Anyone enabled with quality essential oils or hydrosols and adequate knowledge can use a plant's most concentrated and energetic byproducts to improve the health of their animals and treat and prevent various illnesses and common ailments Aromatherapy is actually a science that has a much larger archive of supported scientific data than most other holistic care methods However most of these studies were originally published in French or German Aromatherapy was the first natural holistic therapy the author began using and she relies on it as my primary form of healthcare to treat and balance all sorts of minor ailments and discomforts in the lives of her family and their pets She has rarely needed to use any other sort of remedy to achieve the desired result These powerful substances are the most fascinating sensual and complex of all natural therapies a combination that proves to be so enthralling it eventually develops into a grand passion for many One Health Michael W. Fox, 2025-03-03 This collection of reflective critical philosophical and practical chapters represents the author's 60 years as a veterinarian ethologist and bioethicist The rising incidence of zoonotic diseases from farmed animals and wildlife in the expanding human population and so called reverse zoonoses where humans are infecting other species are existential concerns These concerns are linked with anthropogenic climate change and our impact on ecosystems which threaten biodiversity and the health and future of Homo sapiens and many other species These interconnected issues are examined in this book broadening the scope and agenda of what is currently more narrowly practiced as preventive medicine The author calls for greater emphasis on holistic preventive health care maintenance in response to the escalating costs of human and companion animal health problems the welfare of factory farmed animals and endangered status of many wild species Our species now faces a complex existential crisis that must be addressed in an interdisciplinary way because there are multiple contributing factors factors that call for the insights of science and bioethics Fearlessly tackling contentious issues and wicked problems Dr Michael W Fox offers an
