Publishers Weekly A celebration of the relationships that bring us strength purpose and joy Ties That Bind honors the people who nourish and strengthen us StoryCorps founder Dave Isay draws from ten years of the revolutionary oral history project s rich archives collecting conversations that celebrate the power of the human bond and capture the moment at which individuals become family Between blood relations friends coworkers and neighbors in the most trying circumstances and in the unlikelyst of places enduring connections are formed and lives are forever changed The stories shared in Ties That Bind reveal our need to reach out to support and to share life s burdens and joys We meet two brothers separately cast out by their parents who reconnect and rebuild a new family around each other We encounter unexpected joy A gay woman reveals to her beloved granddaughter that she grew up believing that family was a happiness she would never be able to experience We witness lifechanging friendship An Iraq war veteran recalls his wartime bond with two local children and how his relationship with his wife helped him overcome the trauma of losing them Against unspeakable odds at their most desperate moments the individuals we meet in Ties That Bind find their way to one another discovering hope and healing

Commemorating ten years of StoryCorps the conversations collected in Ties That Bind are a testament to the transformational power of listening Dave Isay s latest book Callings published in 2016 from Penguin Press Caring Fathers in the Global Context Petteri Eerola,Katherine Twamley,Henna Pirskanen,Pedro Romero-Balsas,2025-07-24 Despite growing recognition of fathers involvement in family life dominant narratives still marginalise men s caring roles Caring Fathers in the Global Context addresses a pressing gap in our shared understanding how care is practised and experienced by men across diverse cultural social and policy settings Drawing on wide ranging international research this timely edited collection offers a rich comparative exploration of how men become caring fathers and the pathways leading to this It connects fatherhood studies with care scholarship to provide new theoretical and empirical insights into how care is shared negotiated and made meaningful in everyday life A vital and interdisciplinary resource for anyone studying families and social change this book invites readers to rethink care masculinity and intergenerational relationships in a rapidly changing world Still a Man's World Christine L. Williams,2023-04-28 Men who do women s work have consistently been the butt of jokes derided for their lack of drive and masculinity In this eye opening study Christine Williams provides a wholly new look at men who work in predominantly female jobs Having conducted extensive interviews in four cities Williams uncovers how men in four occupations nursing elementary school teaching librarianship and social work think about themselves and experience their work Contrary to popular imagery men in traditionally female occupations do not define themselves differently from men in more traditional occupations Williams finds that most embrace conventional masculine values Her findings about how these men fare in their jobs are also counterintuitive Rather than being surpassed by the larger number of women around them these men experience the glass escalator effect rising in disproportionate numbers to administrative jobs at the top of their professions Williams finds that a complex interplay between gendered expectations embedded in organizations and the socially determined ideas workers bring to their jobs contribute to men's advantages in these occupations. Using a feminist psychoanalytic perspective, Williams calls for more men not only to cross over to women's occupations but also to develop alternative masculinities that find common ground with traditionally female norms of cooperation and caring. Until the workplace is sexually integrated and masculine and feminine norms equally valued, it will unfortunately remain still a man's world.
