THE VAGARIES OF SWING (Footprints on the Margate Sands of Time) Mac Carty, 2013-05-01 The BBC TV series True Love was the catalyst for this tale portraying various romantic encounters all set by the Margate seaside True love has many forms A passion for cricket can also be a manifestation of love Yet it is impossible to discuss cricket with its broad themes without reflecting on life itself I have set my story broadly in 1965 when a girl lost her life At the time her death meant little to us but such are the vagaries of writing that the more I researched the subject the greater I became drawn in Any discussion on the circumstances surrounding her murder led inevitably to the inclusion of another theme which I have encountered in life violence towards women I still return to Margate regularly and regard it with deep affection It was in danger of becoming a wasteland There are those now some famous some often unsung trying to fashion a resurgence Another form of true love May their guardian angels help them succeed

Negotiating Difference John Clark, Julianne Noth, Birgit Hopfener, Brianne Cohen, Silke von Berswordt, Wang Ching-ling, Doris Ha-lin Sung, Adele Tan, Zheng Bo, Beatrice Leanza, Thomas Berghuis, Peggy Wang, Pauline Yao, Paul Gladston, Joe Martin Hill, Lee Ambrozy, Wenny Teo, Franziska Koch, Andreas Schmid, Davide Quadrio, 2012-07-12

Contemporary Chinese art is still a young field now being opened up to critical academic research Negotiating Difference is a pioneering collection of articles which engage with contemporary Chinese art in a global context The contributions collectively address the urgent methodological question of how to describe contextualize and theorize artworks and artistic processes in and beyond the People's Republic of China since the end of the Cultural Revolution. The studies break new ground as they chalk out the transcultural entanglements of which art and its practices partake and which they in turn reconfigure. The book features 20 essays written by a select group of international junior and senior scholars engaged in ambitious and methodologically innovative research on contemporary Chinese art. Their multi-faceted in part interdisciplinary approaches are complemented by four contributions by distinguished practitioners in the field who as art curators and critics are located in China and explore key developments within Chinese art and the changing art scene of the last three decades.

Chinese Subjectivities and the Beijing Olympics, Gladys Pak Lei Chong, 2017-03-06. Chinese Subjectivities and the Beijing Olympics develops the Foucauldian concept of productive power through examining the ways in which the Chinese government tried to mobilize the population to embrace its Olympic project through deploying various sets of strategies and tactics. It argues that the multifaceted strategies, tactics, and discourses deployed by the Chinese authorities sustain an order of things and values in such a way that drive individuals to commit themselves actively to the goals of the party-state. The book examines how these processes of subjectification are achieved by zooming in on five specific groups of the population: athletes, young Olympic volunteers, taxi drivers, Chinese citizens targeted by place-making projects, and the Hong Kong population. In doing so, it probes critically into the role of individuals and how they take on the governmental ideas to become responsible, autonomous subjects.

From Chinese Brand Culture to Global Brands, W. Zhiyan, J. Borgerson, J. Schroeder, 2013-10-08. From Chinese Brand Culture to Global Brands examines branding from the Chinese perspective and predicts that China's greatest brands are poised for global dominance.
