Footsteps to Survival Michael F. Holodnak, 1983-01-01 Fear of Life Alexander Lowen, 2012-12-12 Fear of Life is an in depth study of the human condition within modern culture Alexander Lowen challenges conventional thinking and contends that neurotic behavior stems from a fear of life and represents the individual's unconscious effort to overcome that fear But one cannot do so One can only suppress or deny it at the cost of spontaneity and being at ease Lowen explains that being a person requires that one stop their frantic doing and take time out to breathe and to feel If one has the courage to accept and feel the pain and hurt despair and sadness and inner emptiness or anxiety in one's life one can heal trauma and gain pleasure fulfillment and joy the object of Bioenergetic Analysis Footsteps Forgotten Brook

Dancing with Difference Linda Ashley, 2012-12-09 As the global vicissitudes of migration unfold so does ethnic difference in the classroom and this book offers a timely examination of teaching about culturally different dances At a time when the world of dance is on the one hand seemingly becoming more like fusion cookery there is another faction promoting isolation and preservation of tradition How if at all may these two worlds co exist in dance education Understanding teaching about culturally different dances from postmodern postcolonial pluralist and critical perspectives creates an urgent demand to develop relevant pedagogy in dance education What is required to support dance educators into the next phase of dance education so as to avoid teaching from within a Eurocentric creative dance model alone An ethnographic investigation with teachers in New Zealand lays a foundation for the examination of issues challenges and opportunities associated with teaching about culturally different dances Concerns and issues surrounding notions of tradition innovation appropriation

interculturalism social justice and critical pedagogy emerge Engaging with both practice and theory is a priority in this book and a nexus model in which the theoretical fields of critical cultural theory semiotics ethnography and anthropology can be activated as teachers teach is proposed as informing approaches to teaching about culturally different dances Even though some practical suggestions for teaching are presented the main concern is to motivate further thinking and research into teaching about dancing with cultural difference Cover photo Photo credit lester de Vere photography ltd Dancing with Difference 2009 Directed and co choreographed for AUT University Bachelor of Dance by Linda Ashley with Jonelle Kawana Yoon jee Lee Keneti Muaiava Aya Nakamura Siauala Nili Valance Smith Sakura Stirling and dancers Won first prize in the 2009 Viva Eclectika Aotearoa s Intercultural Dance and Music Biennial Challenge run by NZ Asia Association Inc NZ and the NZ Diversity Action Programme

Nabokov's Otherworld Vladimir E. Alexandrov, 2014-07-14 A major reexamination of the novelist Vladimir Nabokov as literary gamesman this book systematically shows that behind his ironic manipulation of narrative and his puzzle like treatment of detail there lies an aesthetic rooted in his intuition of a transcendent realm and in his consequent redefinition of nature and artifice as synonyms Beginning with Nabokov s discursive writings Vladimir Alexandrov finds his world view centered on the experience of epiphany characterized by a sudden fusion of varied sensory data and memories a feeling of timelessness and an intuition of immortality which grants the true artist intimations of an otherworld Readings of The Defense Invitation to a Beheading The Gift The Real Life of Sebastian Knight Lolita and Pale Fire reveal the epiphanic experience to be a touchstone for the characters metaphysical insightfulness moral makeup and aesthetic sensibility and to be a structural model for how the narratives themselves are fashioned and for the nature of the reader s involvement with the text In his conclusion Alexandrov outlines several of Nabokov s possible intellectual and artistic debts to the brilliant and variegated culture that flourished in Russia on the eve of the Revolution Nabokov emerges as less alienated from Russian culture than most of his emigre readers believed and as less modernist than many of his Western readers still imagine Alexandrov s work is distinctive in that it applies an otherworld hypothesis as a consistent context to Nabokov s novels The approach is obviously a fruitful one Alexandrov is innovative in rooting Nabokov s ethics and aesthetics in the otherworldly and contributes greatly to Nabokov studies by examining certain key terms such as commonsense nature and artifice In general Alexandrov s study leads to a much clearer understanding of Nabokov s metaphysics D Barton Johnson University of California Santa Barbara Originally published in 1991 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
