The Western David Lusted, 2014-10-13. The Western introduces the novice to the pleasures and the meanings of the Western film, shares the excitement of the genre with the fan, addresses the suspicions of the cynic and develops the knowledge of the student. The Western is about the changing times of the Western and about how it has been understood in film criticism. Until the 1980s more Westerns were made than any other type of film. For fifty of those years the genre was central to Hollywood's popularity and profitability. The Western explores the reasons for its success and its latter day decline among film makers and audiences alike. Part I charts the history of the Western film and its role in film studies. Part II traces the origins of the Western in nineteenth century America and in its literary, theatrical and visual imagining. This sets the scene to explore the many evolving forms in successive chapters on early silent Westerns, the series Western, the epic, the romance, the dystopian, the elegiac and finally the revisionist Western. The Western concludes with an extensive bibliography, filmography and select further reading. Over 200 Westerns are discussed among them close accounts of classics such as Duel in the Sun, The Wild Bunch and Unforgiven, formative titles like John Ford's epic The Iron Horse and early cowboy star William S. Hart's The Silent One, together with less familiar titles that deserve wider recognition including Comanche Station, Pursued and Ulzana's Raid.

Ennio Morricone Alessandro De Rosa, 2019-02-01. Master composer Ennio Morricone's scores go hand in hand with the idea of the Western film. Often considered the world's greatest living film composer and most widely known for his innovative scores to The Good, the Bad and the Ugly and the other Sergio Leone's movies The Mission, Cinema Paradiso and more recently The Hateful Eight, Morricone has spent the past 60 years reinventing the sound of cinema. In Ennio Morricone: In His Own Words, composers Ennio Morricone and Alessandro De Rosa present a year's long discussion of life, music and the marvelous and unpredictable ways that the two come into contact with and influence each other. The result is what Morricone himself defines beyond a shadow of a doubt, the best book ever written about me: the most authentic, the most detailed and well curated. The truest. Opening for the first time the door of his creative laboratory, Morricone offers an exhaustive and rich account of his life from his early years of study to genre-defining collaborations with the most important Italian and international directors including Leone, Bertolucci, Pasolini, Argento, Tornatore, Malick, Carpenter, Stone, Nichols, De Palma, Beatty, Levinson, Almodóvar, Polanski and Tarantino. In the process, Morricone unveils the curious relationship that links music and images in cinema as well as the creative urgency at the foundation of his experimentations with absolute music. Throughout these conversations with De Rosa

Morricone dispenses invaluable insights not only on composing but also on the broader process of adaptation and what it means to be human As he reminds us Coming into contact with memories doesn't only entail the melancholy of something that slips away with time but also looking forward understanding who I am now And who knows what else may still happen
