For Love And Money:

For Love or Money Nancy Folbre, 2012-09-06 As women moved into the formal labor force in large numbers over the last forty years care work traditionally provided primarily by women has increasingly shifted from the family arena to the market Child care elder care care for the disabled and home care now account for a growing segment of low wage work in the United States and demand for such work will only increase as the baby boom generation ages But the expanding market provision of care has created new economic anxieties and raised pointed questions Why do women continue to do most care work both paid and unpaid Why does care work remain low paid when the quality of care is so highly valued How effective and equitable are public policies toward dependents in the United States In For Love and Money an interdisciplinary team of experts explores the theoretical dilemmas of care provision and provides an unprecedented empirical overview of the looming problems for the care sector in the United States Drawing on diverse disciplines and areas of expertise For Love and Money develops an innovative framework to analyze existing care policies and suggest potential directions for care policy and future research Contributors Paula England Nancy Folbre and Carrie Leana explore the range of motivations for caregiving such as familial responsibility or limited job prospects and why both love and money can be efficient motivators They also examine why women tend to specialize in the provision of care citing factors like job discrimination social pressure or the personal motivation to provide care reported by many women Suzanne Bianchi Nancy Folbre and Douglas Wolf estimate how much unpaid care is being provided in the United States and show that low income families rely more on unpaid family members for their child and for elder care than do affluent families With low wages and little savings these families often find it difficult to provide care and earn enough money to stay afloat Candace Howes Carrie Leana and Kristin Smith investigate the dynamics within the paid care sector and find problematic wages and working conditions including high turnover inadequate training and a pay penalty for workers who enter care jobs These conditions have consequences poor job quality in child care and adult care also leads to poor care quality In their chapters Janet Gornick Candace Howes and Laura Braslow provide a systematic inventory of public policies that directly shape the provision of care for children or for adults who need personal assistance such as family leave child care tax credits and Medicaid funded long term care They conclude that income and variations in states policies are the greatest factors determining how well and for whom the current system works Despite the demand for care work very little public policy attention has been devoted to it Only three states for example have enacted paid family leave programs Paid or unpaid care costs those who provide it At the heart of For Love and Money is the understanding that the quality of care work in the United States matters not only for those who receive care but also for society at large which benefits from the nurturance and maintenance of human capabilities As care work gravitates from the family to the formal economy this volume clarifies the pressing need for America to fundamentally rethink its care policies and increase public investment in this increasingly crucial sector Writing for Love and Money

PHILOSOPHY OF LOVE Adrian Gabriel Dumitru, His love Her fantasy understanding what love is about As a man but also as a woman we try to define the undefined from a love story Dreaming about love and being in love the path from the fantasy to the love story itself is just a matter of luck or maybe where you find yourself on the timeline of your own life Maybe is the perfect time for you to explore what love is about or maybe other things are important at the moment and the love story can only be a future project Exploring what love is about in our minds as a fantasy or in the real life as a real love story is depending only and only if we are ready or not But what is the difference between fantasy and reality when even the Bible is saying that everything we see is just an illusion Well i believe that the fantasy is only the beginning of defining what we want and the love story is the experiment itself Is it too much to name a love story an experiment Well exploring as a fantasy or as reality is letting your soul understand what love is about And sometimes is even a life lesson The moment when you jump into the fairy tale the real fantasy and you understand the meaning of love the fact that love is about giving and not about receiving that is the moment when you also understand what life is about Accepting your partner just as he she is just as accepting all the people from our lives is the moment of awakening And also you should know that this path is leading you to point when your thinking will be totally redefined Life itself is about love Seeing what love is about is understanding the meaning of life If the love chapter started for you even if it s just a fantasy or reality you should be happy The awakening will

The Different Facets of Love Thérèse Nyetam, 2013-06-14 Why speak about love in all its facets Love is a diamond we cannot fathom its depths By a combination of all its facets we hope to reach a vision of true love I realize that all people are looking for love so they can say life is beautiful Love appears in different forms different versions different ages and different cultures It is present everywhere but transparent like wind and water Could it be an element of nature that feeds us daily Everybody knows that when we fall in love we just need fresh water to survive Love is the word we use the most to express a feeling of satisfaction We use it more to express our personal sensations than those inspired in somebody else This is not our fault we are taught growing up to hide our feelings and say things halfway so as not to shock That's what it means to live in community Society attempts to control people who have chosen to live inside it to control love by imposing rules that restrict behavior Sex is one of its priorities In the olden days homosexuality was a normal sexual behavior it was tolerated At the time of King incest was accepted Each period imposes sexual taboos and as a consequence nowadays we live with so many taboos we don't understand them in depth To my mind taboos are designed to manage the general interest and safeguard society I also think that they have to arise themselves from a loving sentiment The Book of Signs Dr.
