The Complete Works of Winston Churchill

Winston Churchill, 2020-09-28 I was born under the Blue Ridge and under that side which is blue in the evening light in a wild land of game and forest and rushing waters There on the borders of a creek that runs into the Yadkin River in a cabin that was chinked with red mud I came into the world a subject of King George the Third in that part of his realm known as the province of North Carolina The cabin reeked of corn pone and bacon and the odor of pelts It had two shakedown on one of which I slept under a bearskin A rough stone chimney was reared outside and the fireplace was as long as my father was tall There was a crane in it and a bake kettle and over it great buckhorns held my father's rifle when it was not in use On other horns hung jerked bear's meat and venison hams and gourds for drinking cups and bags of seed and my father's best hunting shirt also in a neglected corner several articles of woman's attire from pegs These once belonged to my mother Among them was a gown of silk of a fine faded pattern over which I was wont to speculate The women at the Cross Roads twelve miles away were dressed in coarse butternut wool and huge sunbonnets But when I questioned my father on these matters he would give me no answers My father was how shall I say what he was To this day I can only surmise many things of him He was a Scotchman born and I know now that he had a slight Scotch accent At the time of which I write my early childhood he was a frontiersman and hunter I can see him now with his hunting shirt and leggings and moccasins his powder horn engraved with wondrous scenes his bullet pouch and tomahawk and hunting knife He was a tall lean man with a strange sad face And he talked little save when he drank too many horns as they were called in that country These lapses of my father s were a perpetual source of wonder to me and I must say of delight They occurred only when a passing traveller who hit his fancy chanced that way or what was almost as rare a neighbor Many a winter night I have lain awake under the skins listening to a flow of language that held me spellbound though I understood scarce a word of it Project Gutenberg
