The Ecology of British Romantic Conservatism, 1790-1837 Katey Castellano, 2013-10-11 Analyzing Romantic conservative critiques of modernity found in literature philosophy natural history and agricultural periodicals this book finds a common theme in the intergenerational imagination This impels an environmental ethic in which obligations to past and future generations shape decisions about inherited culture and land

The Power of Play in Higher Education Alison James, Chrissi Nerantzi, 2019-01-31 This book examines the increasing popularity of creativity and play in tertiary learning and how it can be harnessed to enhance the student experience at university While play is often misunderstood as something trivial and associated with early years education the editors and contributors argue that play contributes to social and human development and relations at a fundamental level This volume invalidates the commonly held assumption that play is only for children drawing together numerous case studies from higher education that demonstrate how researchers students and managers can benefit from play as a means of liberating thought overturning obstacles and discovering fresh approaches to persistent challenges This diverse and wide ranging edited collection unites play theory and practice to address the gulf in research on this fascinating topic It will be of interest and value to educators students and scholars of play and creativity as well as practitioners and academic leaders looking to incorporate play into the curriculum Designing Low Carbon Societies in Landscapes Nobukazu Nakagoshi, Jhonamie A. Mabuhay, 2014-05-09 This book focuses on three major means of achieving a low carbon society conservation of the ecosystem complex changes of arrangement of landscapes and creation of biodiversity There are specific countermeasures to be taken for carbon absorption in the three types of landscapes urban cultural and natural because their carbon balances differ Urban landscapes are promising sites because they have the potential for greening and the creation of biodiversity Cultural landscapes in the tropics had not been actively researched until recently but this book now presents a collection of several cases focused on those areas Natural landscapes had existed in abundance in developing countries later nature protection areas were designated to coexist with development Now however developmental pressure has penetrated into those nature protection areas and landscape ecological projects are urgently required to preserve them As a result of global warming abnormal weather phenomena including super typhoons have occurred frequently in recent years The major underlying cause is the higher concentration of greenhouse gases released by human activities As well major natural absorbers of CO₂ such as forests wetlands and coral reefs are shrinking and the human impact is causing the ecological balance to deteriorate Controlling CO₂ emissions and expanding the CO₂ absorbers are keys to reducing total CO₂ Low carbon societies can be established by maintaining the original CO₂ balance through integration of multiple tools with contributions from diverse fields such as physics and chemistry physiology and humanities and education On the basis of an international consensus the environment must be protected no matter what sacrifices are required As this book demonstrates achieving a low carbon society is a top priority and landscape conservation is the first step in ecological research toward that goal

Children and the Environment Irwin Altman, 2012-12-06 In the first two volumes of the series we elected to cover a broad spectrum of topics in the environment and behavior field ranging from theoretical to applied and including disciplinary interdisciplinary and professionally related topics Chapters in these earlier volumes dealt with leisure and recreation the elderly personal space aesthetics energy behavioral approaches to environmental problems methodological issues social indicators industrial settings and the like Chapters were written by psychologists sociologists geographers and other social scientists and by authors from professional design fields such as urban planning operations research landscape architecture and so on Our goal in these first two volumes was to present a sampling of areas in the emerging environment and behavior field and to give readers some insight into the diversity of research and theoretical perspectives that characterize the field Beginning with the present volume our efforts will be directed at a series of thematic volumes The present collection of chapters is focused on children and the environment and as much as possible we invited contributions that reflect a variety of theoretical and empirical perspectives on this topic The next volume in the series now in preparation will address the area of culture and the environment Suggestions for possible future topics are welcome Irwin Altman

Joachim F The Ecology of a Neighborhood Playground Robin C. Moore, 1973 Urban Biodiversity and Ecological Design for Sustainable Cities Keitaro Ito, 2021-03-23 This book highlights various designs for urban green spaces and their functions It provides an interesting meeting point between Asian European and North America specialists researchers planners landscape architects studying urban biodiversity urban biodiversity and green space relations between people and

Carlisle,2009-04-02 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title for 2009 This ground breaking resource is strongly recommended for all libraries and health and welfare institutional depots essential for university collections especially those catering to social studies programs Library Journal STARRED Review Children and adults spend a great deal of time in activities we think of as play including games sports and hobbies Without thinking about it very deeply almost everyone would agree that such activities are fun relaxing and entertaining However play has many purposes that run much deeper than simple entertainment For children play has various functions such as competition following rules accepting defeat choosing leaders exercising leadership practicing adult roles and taking risks in order to reap rewards For adults many games and sports serve as harmless releases of feelings of aggression competition and intergroup hostility The Encyclopedia of Play in Today's Society explores the concept of play in history and modern society in the United States and internationally Its scope encompasses leisure and recreational activities of children and adults throughout the ages from dice games in the Roman Empire to video games today With more than 450 entries these two volumes do not include coverage of professional sports and sport teams but instead cover the hundreds of games played not to earn a living but as informal activity All aspects of play from learning to competition mastery of nature socialization and cooperation are included Simply enough this Encyclopedia explores play played for the fun of it Key Features Available in both print and electronic formats Provides access to the fascinating literature that has explored questions of psychology learning theory game theory and history in depth Considers the affects of play on child and adult development particularly on health creativity and imagination Contains entries that describe both adult and childhood play and games in dozens of cultures around the world and throughout history Explores the sophisticated analyses of social thinkers such as Huizinga Vygotsky and Sutton Smith as well as the wide variety of games toys sports and entertainments found around the world Presents cultures as diverse as the ancient Middle East modern Russia and China and in nations as far flung as India Argentina and France Key Themes Adult Games Board and Card Games Children's Games History of Play Outdoor Games and Amateur Sports Play and Education Play Around the World Psychology of Play Sociology of Play Toys and Business Video and Online Games For a subject we mostly consider light hearted play as a research topic has generated an extensive and sophisticated literature exploring a range of penetrating questions This two volume set serves as a general nontechnical resource for academics researchers and students alike It is an essential addition to any academic library Children's Play Peter K. Smith,1986 First Published in 1986 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company North Brunswick ,2011 North Brunswick a large town spread over 12 square miles has a rich history extending back to the early 1600s when its only occupants were members of the Lenni Lenape tribe Some of the earliest establishments included the Black Horse Tavern building which in 1670 was a stagecoach stop and the Lion Tavern By 1750 a gristmill operated near where a dam is currently located on Farrington Lake and was later joined by a snuff mill and tannery From 1775 through 1900 the area was almost entirely agricultural The first church the Georges Road Baptist Church was erected in 1847 and the first school committee was elected in 1829 By the dawn of the 20th century North Brunswick began to come into its own projecting the image of the thriving community it is today Children, Nature, and the Urban Environment ,1977 Playgrounds Peter Heseltine,John Holborn,1987 Public Places and Spaces Irwin Altman,Erwin H. Zube,2012-12-06 This tenth volume in the series addresses an important topic of research design and policy in the environment and behavior field Public places and spaces include a sweeping array of settings including urban streets plazas and squares malls parks and other locales and natural settings such as aquatic environments national parks and forests and wilderness areas The importance of public settings is highlighted by difficult questions of access control and management unique needs and problems of different users including women the handicapped and various ethnic groups and the dramatic reshaping of our public environments that has occurred and will continue to occur in the foreseeable future The wide ranging scope of the topic of public places and spaces demands the attention of many disciplines and researchers designers managers and policymakers As in previous volumes in the series the authors in the present volume come from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds research and design orientations and affiliations They have backgrounds in or are affiliated with such fields as architecture geography landscape architecture natural resources psychology sociology and urban design Many more disciplines obviously contribute to our understanding and design of public places and spaces so that the contributors to this volume reflect only a sample of the possibilities and present state of knowledge about public settings Multiple Perspectives on Play in Early Childhood Education Olivia N. Saracho,Bernard Spodek,1998-01-15 Play has been part of early childhood programs since the initial kindergarten developed by Friedrich Froebel more than one hundred and fifty years ago While research shows that most teachers value children's play they often do not know how to guide that play to make it more educational Too often in reflecting the value of child initiated activities teachers set the stage for children's play observe it but hesitate to intervene in that play They may fear that to intervene is to create a developmentally inappropriate set of educational practices However the lack of intervention may limit the educational outcomes of play Meanwhile a large body of research exists on different forms of children's play in educational settings that could inform teachers of young children and help them to improve their practice and support more educational play Saracho and Spodek bring together much of that research in an accessible volume for early childhood teachers and teacher educators
