Economics And The Competitive Process:

Market Relations and the Competitive Process J. Stanley Metcalfe, Alan Warde, 2002 There has been increasing interest and debate in recent years on the nature of economic processes in general and the related ideas of the market in particular the competitive process This study lies at the interface between two largely independent disciplines economics and sociology and reflects an attempt to bring the two fields of discourse more closely together It explores this interface in a number of ways looking at the competitive process and market relations from a number of different perspectives A wide range of contributors are included most of whom are leading writers and thinkers in the field Economics and the Competitive Process James H. Case, 1979 Market relations and the competitive process Stan Metcalfe, Alan Warde, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license There has been increasing interest and debate in recent years on the instituted nature of economic processes in general and the related ideas of the market in particular the competitive process This debate lies at the interface between two largely independent disciplines economics and sociology and reflects an attempt to bring the two fields of discourse more closely together This book explores this interface in a number of ways looking at the competitive process and market relations from a number of different perspectives It includes a wide range of contributors most of whom are leading writers and thinkers in the field The book considers the social role of economic institutions in society and examines the various meanings embedded in the word markets as well as developing arguments on the nature of competition as an instituted economic process rather than as competition being something that disturbs norms or institutions It goes on to consider the deeper and more involved connection between markets and cognition explaining how institutions can ease cognitive difficulties and the effect of culture on markets and competition is also fully studied This book will be of vital use to students and academics working in the fields of economics sociology and business studies It sketches the agenda for future research about markets and the competitive process The Ethics and Economics of Agrifood Competition Harvey S. James, Jr., 2013-03-19 This edited volume presents ethical and economic analyses of agrifood competition By systematically examining fairness and openness in agricultural markets it seeks to answer the question of whether there is adequate competition in the agrifood industry and whether the system is fair to all participants It outlines ethical and economic principles important for understanding agrifood competition presents arguments for and against consolidation globalization and the integration of agrifood industries and looks at the implications of globalization on the nature of competition in specific agricultural contexts Competition Policy and the Economic Approach Josef Drexl, Wolfgang Kerber, Rupprecht Podszun, 2011-01-01 This outstanding collection of original essays brings together some of the leading experts in competition economics policy and law They examine what lies at the core of the economic approach to competition law and deal with its normative and institutional limitations In recent years the more economic approach has led to a modernisation of competition law throughout the world This book comprehensively examines for the first time the foundations and limitations of the approach and will be of great interest to scholars of competition policy no matter what discipline Competition Policy and the Economic Approach will appeal to academics in competition economics and law policy makers and practitioners in the field of antitrust competition law as well as postgraduate students in competition law and economics Those interested in the interplay of law and economics in the field of competition will also find this book invaluable

Evolutionary Economics and Creative Destruction J. Stanley Metcalfe, 2006 The central theme of this book is competition treated as an evolutionary process in which the focus is upon economic change and not economic equilibrium This theme is explored by linking together differences in economic behaviour with the role of markets as co ordinating institutions In this picture innovation plays a central role as a primary source of differential behaviour of firms and the purpose of the book is to identify the consequences of these differences for competition and competitive advantage
