Half in Shadow Shanna Greene Benjamin, 2021-04-01 Nellie Y McKay 1930 2006 was a pivotal

figure in contemporary American letters The author of several books McKay is best known for coediting the canon making Norton Anthology of African American Literature with Henry Louis Gates Jr which helped secure a place for the scholarly study of Black writing that had been ignored by white academia However there is more to McKay s life and legacy than her literary scholarship After her passing new details about McKay s life emerged surprising everyone who knew her Why did McKay choose to hide so many details of her past Shanna Greene Benjamin examines McKay s path through the professoriate to learn about the strategies sacrifices and successes of contemporary Black women in the American academy Benjamin shows that McKay s secrecy was a necessary tactic that a Black working class woman had to employ to succeed in the white dominated space of the American English department Using extensive archives and personal correspondence Benjamin brings together McKay s private life and public work to expand how we think about Black literary history and the place of Black women in American culture Field Hollers And Freedom Songs: The Anthology C. Sade Turnipseed,2022 Taking place annually in the most southern place on earth aka the Cotton Kingdom the Sweat Equity Investment in the Cotton Kingdom Symposium offers a platform to honor celebrate and recognize the legacy of the African Americans who labored in the cotton fields of the Mississippi Delta The symposium intends to trigger discussions and provide a space where the histories and contributions of those Americans can be heard and learned from Born in the antebellum south the soul of America came to be through the tearful occupation of planting chopping picking and ginning cotton where it was then brined within a system of enslavement sharecropping and international trade that in so many ways provided America its greatness Carefully compiled from works presented at the symposia this anthology looks to expose the tortured cotton pickin spirit embedded in America s soul A spirit that is rendered in song chants spoken word and field hollers and revealed in this volume through the selected articles lyric poetry proverbs speeches slave narratives and workshop proposals The rich and varied content of this book reflects the uniqueness of not only the Mississippi Delta but also the histories of those who lived and worked there Good Books Matter Shelley Stagg Peterson,Larry Swartz,2008 Based on extensive research on the features that make children s books appealing and appropriate this valuable teacher resource offers guidance on selecting books strategies for specific grade levels suggestions for extension and tips for assessment This teacher friendly book is organized around the major genres traditional literature picture books nonfiction poetry and multicultural texts that will inspire young readers Throughout the book teachers will find suggestions for using literature to implement shared reading reading aloud and response strategies with emergent developing and independent readers Spirit in the Dark Josef Sorett,2016 While many of the most significant black intellectual movements of the second half of the twentieth century have been perceived as secular Josef Sorett demonstrates in this book that religion was actually a fertile fluid and formidable force within these movements Spirit in the Dark examines how African American literary visions were animated and organized by religion and spirituality from the New Negro Renaissance of the 1920s to the Black Arts movement of the 1960s Crisis

,1929 Re-Membering and Surviving Shirley A. James Hanshaw,2020-10-01 The first book length critical study of the black experience in the Vietnam War and its aftermath this text interrogates the meaning of heroism based on models from African and African American expressive culture It focuses on four novels Captain Blackman 1972 by John A Williams Tragic Magic 1978 by Wesley Brown Coming Home 1971 by George Davis and De Mojo Blues 1985 by A R Flowers Discussions of the novels are framed within the historical context of all wars prior to Vietnam in which Black Americans fought The success or failure of the hero on his identity quest is predicated upon the extent to which he can reconnect with African or African American cultural memory He is engaged therefore in re membering a term laden with the specificity of race that implies a cultural history comprised of African retentions and an interdependent relationship with the community for survival The reader will find that a common history of racism and exploitation that African Americans and Vietnamese share sometimes results in the hero s empathy with and compassion for the so called enemy a unique contribution of the black novelist to American war literature Ain't But a Place Gerald Lyn Early,1998 This collection of fiction and poetry memoirs and autobiography history and journalism illuminates the African American experience in St Louis in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Relationship Is the Transformative Space Darryl Wooldridge,2016-02-09 This book affirms relationship as the shared human elemental pursuit and proposes relationship as the transformative space Wonderfully the author asserts it is God s intention to fulfill this intrinsic human desire in the present in all of us and universally This desire is an often inarticulate innate desire and pursuit to enjoy and reflect the divine image in which every human being was created In this book this pursuit is referred to as proleptic spiritual transformation Pr ST That is this book demonstrates that what is too often relegated to eternity is available now Relationship is the Transformative Space considers God s heart in relationship and its implication toward human spirituality and how this intent has been interrupted and restored God is actively interested in the recovery of a fully expressed image in humanity
