Extravagant Narratives Closure And Dynamics In The Epistolary Form:

Extravagant Narratives Elizabeth Jane MacArthur, 2014-07-14 Challenging the view of epistolary narrative as a faulty precursor to the nineteenth century realist novel Elizabeth MacArthur argues that the openness and flexibility that characterize correspondences both real and fictional reflect the preoccupations of the late seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Her readings of the Lettres portugaises Mme du Deffand's correspondence with Horace Walpole and Rousseau's *La Nouvelle Hlo*se propose an alternative to closure oriented theories of narrative as they uncover an interplay between two forces a tendency towards closure and meaning metaphor and a tendency towards openness and desire metonymy While such an interplay structures all narrative the epistolary form differs from the third or first person in the extent to which metonymy predominates The author shows how critics and editors of correspondences have attempted to control their metonymy channeling epistolary energy into univocal meaning By juxtaposing real and fictional epistolary works MacArthur reveals the similarities between the two particularly their extravagance ambiguity openness and forward moving energy Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Epistolary Histories Amanda Gilroy, W. M. Verhoeven, 2000 This innovative collection of essays participates in the ongoing debate about the epistolary form challenging readers to rethink the traditional association between the letter and the private sphere It also pushes the boundaries of that debate by having the contributors respond to each other within the volume thus creating a critical community between covers that replicates the dialogic nature of epistolarity itself with all its dissonances and differences as well as its connections Focusing mainly on Anglo American texts from the seventeenth century to the present day these nine essays and their postscripts engage the relationship between epistolary texts and discourses of gender class politics and commodification Ranging from epistolary histories of Mary Queen of Scots to Turkish travelogues from the making of the modern middle class and the correspondence of Melville and Hawthorne to new epistolary innovators such as Kathy Acker and Orlan the contributions are divided into three parts part 1 addresses the feminocentric focus of the letter part 2 the boundaries between the fictional and the real and part 3 the ways in which the epistolary genre may help us think more clearly about questions of critical address and discourse that have preoccupied theorists in recent years In sum Epistolary Histories is a defining contribution to epistolary studies Contributors Nancy Armstrong Brown University Anne L Bower Ohio State University Marion Clare Brant King's College London Amanda Gilroy University of Groningen Richard Hardack Haverford and Bryn Mawr Colleges Linda S Kauffman University of Maryland College Park Donna Landry Wayne State

The Life of the Author: Jane Austen Catherine Delafield, 2022-10-11 A fresh approach to building the life of Jane Austen through her letters demonstrating that a well known life can be reframed by being grounded in evidence of that life The Life of the Author Jane Austen takes readers on a literary biographical journey through Austen's life in letters Using a unique non linear approach author Catherine Delafield explores three frames for Austen's literary life family correspondents and fiction to suggest new pathways for the interpretation of life writing about one of the most popular and influential English novelists of all time Delafield addresses multiple aspects of Austen's epistolary practice and the ways in which her letters juvenile writings and unpublished novels have been overlaid on both biography and fiction Throughout the text special attention is paid to the changing view of women's correspondence as personal record and to Cassandra Austen's role as editor of her sister's surviving letters The book opens with selected readings from Austen's letters and a review of the family treatment of the life Subsequent chapters discuss the female circle of correspondents in both extant and missing letters the letter content and structure of Austen's novels the use of letters as representations of places and spaces based on Austen's own lived experience of epistolary communication and more Discusses how the letters correspondents and novels supplement Jane Austen's fiction and substantiate her life Highlights Austen's use of the letter as a conversation on paper rather than as an autobiographical tool Explores the letters within Austen's fictional writing as well as recipes accounts and needlework with links to the letters Features a select chronology using letters as landmarks tables representing surviving letters by correspondent and family trees tracing names and relationships The Life of the Author Jane Austen is an excellent text for undergraduate and graduate courses on the novel women's writing British writing and life writing as well as for general readers with interest in gaining new perspectives on Austen's chronological life and literary output Julie, Or, The New Heloise Jean-Jacques Rousseau, 1997 A novel in which Rousseau reconceptualized the relationship of the individual to the collective and articulated a new moral paradigm

The End Richard John Neupert, 1995 Given the importance that spectators grant to the final moments of a motion picture it is surprising to find so little written on how films end and how audiences interpret those closing moments This study investigates endings in film and the lively role they play in how and why viewers make sense of movies Relying upon contemporary literary criticism and film theory the author analyses narrative strategies in films ranging from the classical Hollywood motion picture to the more modern European art cinema To assist readers in understanding the various functions of endings the films are divided into four critical categories the Closed Text film typical of classical works the Open Story films the Open Discourse film and the Open Text film which struggles to defy story resolution Detailed textual analysis of sample films reveal how all of the devices of filmic narration from mise en scene to soundtracks direct a viewer s perception comprehension and interpretation of closure in films Among the sample films that are featured as test cases for studying endings are The Quiet Man Ford 1950 The 400 Blows Truffaut 1959 Weekend Godard 1967 Tout va bien Godard 1972 and Earth Dovzhenko 1930 To round out his informative study of endings in films Neupert also examines a host of diverse titles including Do the Right Thing Lee 1989 Open City Rossellini 1945 and The Graduate Nichols 1967 Roman

Constructions Don Fowler,2000-01-13 Roman Constructions is a collection of studies in Latin literature and literary theory The twelve pieces touch on many of the concerns of contemporary criticism and offer a provocative view of the role of classical scholarship in the contemporary world Voegelinian Readings of Modern Literature Charles R.

Embry,2011-05-16 The work of renowned thinker Eric Voegelin is largely rooted in his literary sensibility Voegelin s contributions to the field of philosophy grew from the depths of his knowledge of history s most important texts from ancient to modern times Many of the concepts he emphasized such as participatory experience and symbolization in philosophy have long been significant to literary criticism as well as philosophical study Voegelin himself even ventured into the field of criticism publishing a critical examination of Henry James s The Turn of the Screw in 1971 Since it is so strongly influenced by the written record of man s search for meaning Voegelinian thought makes an ideal framework for the study of twentieth century literature For Voegelinian Readings of Modern Literature scholar Charles R Embry has collected essays that consider particular pieces of literature in light of the philosopher s work These essays supply a theoretical grounding for the reading of novels poems and plays and reveal how the Voegelinian perspective exposes the existential and philosophical dimensions of the literary works themselves As a unit this collection of essays shows how modern pieces of literature can symbolize their creators participation in the human search for the truth of existence just as myths philosophical works and religious texts always have Voegelin s primary concern as a philosopher was to expose the roots of the disturbances of the modern era religious conflict imperialism war so that the sources of order leading to meaning are revealed The openness of Voegelinian thought and the many ways he considered the levels of reality generate intriguing themes for literary criticism In these essays noted Voegelin scholars focus on American and European literary artists from the 1700s through the late twentieth century including Emily Dickinson Henrik Ibsen Thomas Carlyle D H Lawrence Marcel Proust and Hermann Broch While the intersection of the work of Eric Voegelin and literature has been a part of Voegelin scholarship for decades this book explores that relationship in an extended form Through a broad collection of thoughtful essays Voegelinian Readings of Modern Literature reveals how much Voegelin did to break down the barriers between literature and philosophy and makes an engaging contribution to Voegelin scholarship Catalan Women Writers and Artists Kathryn Everly,2003 Paul Ilie s theories of internal exile as well as Michel Foucault and Julia Kristeva on the problems of subjectivity guide the readings of the visual and verbal texts BOOK JACKET Readers and Writers in Ovid's Heroides Efrassini Spentzou, 2003-03-13 This is the first book length study to reconstruct the experiences of the abandoned heroines of the Heroides which have been largely ignored by past criticism Dr Spentzou seeks ways to isolate characterize and release the female voice and experience within Ovid's male authored text Building on a wide range of ancient as well as modern images and reflections on gender and writing the book attempts to map the relationship between gendered sensitivities and experience and generic expression and choices Dr Spentzou uses the insight gained by the boom of intertextual studies in recent Latin scholarship to go a step further and address explicitly the ideologies of intertextual studies This is a book about readers and reading just as much as about women and gender and it is also an in depth study of the intricate and heated negotiations behind the interpretative act Imperial Culture and the Sudan Lia Paradis, 2020-05-14 General Gordon's death in the Sudan marks the height of imperial cultural fever Even in the late nineteen seventies the themes of Khartoum were still the basis for children's stories comic books and depictions of masculinity Imperial Culture in the Sudan seeks to examine the cultural impact of Sudan on the popular image of the British empire why were these colonial administrators characterized as adventurers Why was Sudan and the story of General Gordon so popular The author argues it coincided with the mass production of popular journalism the height of Jingoism as a cultural product and therefore a study of Sudan's experience tells us a lot about the British Empire how it was made consumed and remembered All the Abbé's Women Bernard J. Bourque, 2015-06-17 One of the most striking aspects of Abbé d'Aubignac's fictional output is that the principal focus of his work is women D'Aubignac's attempt to articulate his philosophy about the female sex is very much an intricate balancing act While he is clearly interested in women placing them on a pedestal in many of his writings the Abbé imposes limitations on their perceived innate qualities and often embraces the notion of the female as a societal scapegoat All the Abbé's Women explores how these ideas were influenced by the socio-political conditions of d'Aubignac's time resulting in a complex interrelationship between the notions of power and misogyny in the author's fictional and critical works The study also aims to contribute to the scholarship on d'Aubignac painting a portrait of the Abbé that has not been the focus of previous books The work will appeal to students of French literature gender studies and the cultural history of Early Modern France European Women's Letter-writing from the 11th to the 20th Centuries Clare Monagle, Carolyn James, David Garrioch, Barbara Caine, 2025-10-01 This book reveals the importance of personal letters in the history of European women between the year 1000 and the advent of the telephone It explores the changing ways that women used correspondence for self-expression and political mobilization over this period enabling them to navigate the myriad gendered restrictions that limited women's engagement in the world Whether written from the medieval cloister or the renaissance court or the artisan's workshop or the drawing room letters crossed geographical and social distance and were mobile in ways that women themselves could not always be Women wrote to govern to argue to plead and to demand They also wrote to express love and intimacy and in so doing to explain and to understand themselves This book argues that the personal letter was a crucial place for European women s self fashioning and that exploring the history of their letters offers a profound insight into their subjectivity and agency over time Letters and Cultural Transformations in the United States, 1760-1860 Sharon M.

Harris,2016-05-06 This volume illustrates the significance of epistolarity as a literary phenomenon intricately interwoven with eighteenth and nineteenth century cultural developments Rejecting the common categorization of letters as primarily private documents this collection of essays demonstrates the genre s persistent public engagements with changing cultural dynamics of the revolutionary early republican and antebellum eras Sections of the collection treat letters implication in transatlanticism authorship and reform movements as well as the politics and practices of editing letters The wide range of authors considered include Mercy Otis Warren Charles Brockden Brown members of the Emerson and Peabody families Margaret Fuller Elizabeth Stoddard Catherine Brown John Brown and Harriet Jacobs The volume is particularly relevant for researchers in U S literature and history as well as women s writing and periodical studies This dynamic collection offers scholars an exemplary template of new approaches for exploring an understudied yet critically important literary genre
