Eye Me Myself A Study Of Six Womens Autobiographies:

Eye Me Myself Leena Chandorkar, 2002 There is a lacuna in the field of autobiography studies especially women s autobiographies This book seeks to fill the gap What makes it different from other works on women s autobiographies is the fact that it is an analysis of autobiographies across the East West boundary Three of the autobiographies examined are of American women and three of Indian women This kind of cross cultural examination involving American and Marathi autobiographies and using the feminist literary approach has not been attempted before Nor have the individual autobiographies been examined in such detail before Hence this book hopes to break new ground in the area of autobiography studies The book is primarily aimed at people interested in autobiography studies women s studies American literature Marathi literature and comparative studies Christianity in India Rebecca Samuel Shah, Joel

Carpenter, 2018-11-08 Christianity has been present in India since at least the third century but the faith remains a small minority Even so Christianity is growing rapidly in parts of the subcontinent and has made an impact far beyond its numbers Yet Indian Christianity remains highly controversial and it has suffered growing discrimination and violence This book shows how Christian converts and communities continue to make contributions to Indian society even amid social pressure and violent persecution In a time of controversy in India about the legitimacy of conversion and the value of religious diversity Christianity in India addresses the complex issues of faith identity caste and culture It documents the outsized role of Christians in promoting human rights providing education and healthcare fighting injustice and exploitation and stimulating economic uplift for the poor Readers will come away surprised and sobered to learn how these active initiatives often invite persecution today The essays draw on intimate and personal encounters with Christians in India past and present and address the challenges of religious freedom in contemporary India BENDS AND TURNS Leena Chandorkar, 2016-09-26

New Books on Women and Feminism, 2003 Quit India Movement, a Study Shachi Chakravarty, 2002 The Quit India Movement of 1942 is a milestone in India s struggle for freedom This densely researched volume deals with the developments in the multi facet upsurge during the World War II The close interactions between historical forces that stood behind Gandhi the Conservatives Jawaharlal Nehru the Congress Socialist Party encompassing various revolutionary units have been for the first time fruitfully examined from the clinical perspective of an unbiased historian Clearly formulated analytically argued and elegantly presented the work offers a refreshing insight into the epic struggle and its social dynamics The author s notes and references include a wide selection from private papers and records from the Cambridge University Library and in the India Office Record Room and Library The interesting aspect of the exercise is a natural blend of source material in the narrative without being pedantic or obtuse Memoirs of two young married women. A start in life. Vendetta. Study of a woman. The message Honoré de Balzac, 1900 India V. S. An Autobiography of Anthony Trollope, 2025-04-07 An Autobiography of Anthony Trollope offers readers an intimate glimpse into the life and mind of one of Victorian England's most prolific and beloved novelists. In this candid memoir, Trollope recounts his journey from a struggling youth to a celebrated author, providing invaluable insights into his creative process and the literary world of the 19th century. Trollope's narrative begins with his challenging childhood, marked by financial difficulties and struggles at school. He then details his early career in the postal service, a profession that would influence his writing and provide him with a wealth of observational material. The author's account of his time in Ireland is particularly fascinating, as it was there that he began his literary career in earnest. The heart of the autobiography lies in Trollope's detailed description of his writing methods. He famously reveals his disciplined approach: writing a set number of words each day before attending to his postal duties. This glimpse into his creative routine offers aspiring writers valuable lessons in productivity and perseverance. Trollope doesn't shy away from discussing the commercial aspects of his career, openly addressing issues of money and success in a way that was considered scandalous by some of his contemporaries. His frank discussion of the business of writing provides a unique perspective on the Victorian literary marketplace. This work is essential reading for fans of classic literature, offering insights into the creation of beloved novels such as The Warden and Barchester Towers. Students of Victorian culture will find a wealth of information about the social and literary landscape of the era. For those interested in the craft of writing, Trollope's autobiography serves as both a historical document and a timeless guide to the writer's life.

Arab Women Writers Raḍwá 'Āshūr, Ferial Jabouri Ghazoul, Hasna Reda-Mekdashi, Mandy McClure, 2008

Arab women's writing in the modern age began with A'isha al Taymuriya Warda al Yaziji Zaynab Fawwaz and other nineteenth-century pioneers in Egypt and the Levant. This unique study, first published in Arabic in 2004, looks at the work of those pioneers and then traces the development of Arab women's literature through the end of the twentieth century and also includes a meticulously researched comprehensive bibliography of writing by Arab women. In the first section, in nine essays that cover the Arab Middle East from Morocco to Iraq and Syria to Yemen, critics and writers from the Arab world examine the origin and evolution of women's writing in each country in the region, addressing fiction, poetry, drama, and autobiographical writing. The second part of the volume contains bibliographical entries for over 1,200 Arab women writers from the last third of the nineteenth century through 1999. Each entry contains a short biography and a bibliography of each author's published works. This section also includes Arab women's writing in French and English, as well as a bibliography of works translated into English With its broad scope and extensive research this book is an indispensable resource for anyone interested in Arabic literature women s studies or comparative literature Contributors Emad Abu Ghazi Radwa Ashour Mohammed Berrada Ferial J Ghazoul Subhi Hadidi Haydar Ibrahim Yumna al Id Su ad al Mani Iman al Qadi Amina Rachid Huda al Sadda Hatim al Sakr
