

Fables, Folktales, and Myths

Think about the different stories you have heard. Some of them are real, and many of them are make-believe, meaning they are not true. Stories that are not true include Fables, Folktales, and Myths. Some people think they are the same, but there are a few differences between each type of story.

FABLES

- Includes talking animals
- Usually short in length
- Two or three characters
- Teaches a lesson

Example of a Fable: The Ant and the Grasshopper

On one fine summer's day in a field a Grasshopper was hopping about in a musical mood. An ant passed by bearing along with great toil an ear of corn he was taking to the nest. The grasshopper invited the ant to sit for a chat with him. But the ant refused saying that "I'm storing up food for winter". "Why don't you do the same?" asked the ant to the grasshopper. "Pooh! Why bother about winter?" said the Grasshopper; we have got enough food at present." But the Ant went on its way and continued its toil. Finally, when winter came, the Grasshopper found itself dying of hunger, while it saw the ants distributing corn and grain from their storage. Then the Grasshopper understood that... It is best to prepare for the days of necessity.

Why is it a fable?

- The grasshopper and ant are animals that talk to each other.
- The fable is very short with just two characters.
- The fable teaches the reader a lesson: Be prepared!

Daniela Carpi,Marett Leiboff,2016-10-24 The latest development concerning the metaphorical use of the fairy tale is the legal perspective The law had and has recourse to fairy tales in order to speak of the nomos and its subversion of the politically correct and of the various means that have been used to enforce the law Fairy tales are a fundamental tool to examine legal procedures and structures in their many failings and errors Therefore we have privileged the term fables of the law just to stress the ethical perspective they are moral parables that often speak of justice miscarried and justice sought Law and jurists are creators of fables on the view that law is born out of the facts ex facto ius oritur so that there is a need for narrative coherence both on the level of the case and the level of legislation or turned the other way around what does it mean if no such coherence is found This is especially of interest given the influx of all kinds of new technologies that are fabulous in themselves and hard to incorporate in traditional doctrinal schemes and thus in the construction of a new reality
