, The Frescoed Façade in Renaissance Roman Visual Culture Alexis Culotta, 2025-10-01 This book examines Roman faades decorated with fresco and sgraffito between the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries that once enveloped the central rioni of Rome within a web of symbolic social political and familial allegiances that transformed a street side stroll into a visually engaging experience Today many of these faces are lost and our understanding of what they comprised is frighteningly incomplete This book offers a refreshed look at this often forgotten facet of Renaissance visual culture to reignite interest in the tradition before its last remnants disappear In addition to offering a new compilation of these documented fa ades this book also places new emphasis on the making and meaning of these painted faces to provide new insights into the place of the decorated fa ade at the intersections of patron identity and painterly innovation in a city working tirelessly to reinvent itself

Space, Image, and Reform in Early Modern Art Arthur J. DiFuria, Ian Verstegen, 2021-11-08 The essays in Space Image and Reform in Early Modern Art build on Marcia Hall s seminal contributions in several categories crucial for Renaissance studies especially the spatiality of the church interior the altarpiece s facture and affectivity the notion of artistic style and the controversy over images in the era of Counter Reform Accruing the advantage of critical engagement with a single paradigm this volume better assesses its applicability and range The book works cumulatively to provide blocks of theoretical and empirical research on issues spanning the function and role of images in their contexts over two centuries Relating Hall s investigations of Renaissance art to new fields Space Image and Reform expands the ideas at the center of her work further back in time further afield and deeper into familiar topics thus achieving a cohesion not usually seen in edited volumes honoring a single scholar Local antiquities, local identities Kathleen Christian, Bianca de Divitiis, 2018-10-12 This collection investigates the wide array of local antiquarian practices that developed across Europe in the early modern era Breaking new ground it explores local concepts of antiquity in a period that has been defined as a uniform Renaissance Contributors take a novel approach to the revival of the antique in different parts of Italy as well as examining other less widely studied antiquarian traditions in France the Netherlands Spain Portugal Britain and Poland They consider how real or fictive ruins inscriptions and literary works were used to demonstrate a particular idea of local origins to rewrite history or to vaunt civic pride In doing so they tackle such varied subjects as municipal antiquities collections in Southern Italy and France the antiquarian response to the pagan Christian and Islamic past on the Iberian Peninsula and Netherlandish interest in megalithic ruins thought to be traces of a prehistoric race of Giants

Polidoro da Caravaggio David Franklin, 2018-05-08 Polidoro da Caravaggio c 1500 1543 one of Raphael s most influential and distinctive followers has not been well treated by time His significant early frescoes which graced exterior palace facades in Rome have perished almost without exception A rare few are preserved but most are known only in copies Consequently the originality of Polidoro s public work has been little explored despite his once famous reputation and the association of his name with Raphael and Michelangelo His move to Sicily later in life a region with few surviving primary sources further complicates the study of his work Extant pieces by the artist from this period are unusually severe in content and technique and their attribution has often been controversial In this first account in English Polidoro s radical Sicilian paintings are considered through the lens of the religious life of the era and in relation to his early secular work This much needed investigation establishes Polidoro s proper place in the canon of art history

Cultural Mega-Events Zachary M. Jones, 2020-03-05 Mega events have long been used by cities as a strategy to secure global recognition and attract future economic investment However while cultural mega events like the European Capital of Culture have become increasingly popular cities have begun questioning the traditional model of other events such as the Olympic Games with many candidate cities cancelling bids in recent years This approach to planning and developing cities through mega events introduces a broad range of physical effects and nuanced institutional changes for cities particularly for the more sensitive heritage areas of cities This book explores these issues by first examining the dynamics of cities attempts to reduce overall costs and increase the sustainability of these large events by further embedding them within the existing fabric of the city and second by studying in depth the impact on the heritage of host cities This book investigates three World Heritage Cities Genoa Liverpool and Istanbul each of which have hosted the European Capital of Culture and introduced a variety of opportunities and risks for their heritage The book highlights the potential benefits and challenges of integrating event and heritage planning to provide lessons that can help future historic cities and heritage decision makers better prepare for such events
