Face In The Mirror:

The Face in the Mirror Julian Paul Keenan, Julian Keenan, Gordon G. Gallup, Dean Falk, 2004-07-06 We've all witnessed this moment a dog a cat or another animal reacting to its own reflection in the mirror treating it as another animal to be played with or confronted As human beings we take self recognition for granted but this seemingly simple ability represents one of the most complex mysteries of neuroscience The Face in the Mirror takes readers on a lively tour of the neurological anthropological and psychological roots of self recognition from the intricate network in the brain that enables higher primates to recognize their image to complex self related emotions such as humor embarrassment and jealousy that play a crucial role in our evolution and survival From animals who share our ability for self recognition to case studies of patients who no longer recognize who they are the authors examine some of the latest evidence on a subject that has puzzled philosophers and scientists for millennia how do we know who we are Mirrors and Mirroring from Antiquity to the Early Modern Period Maria Gerolemou, Lilia Diamantopoulou, 2020-01-09 This volume examines mirrors and mirroring through a series of multidisciplinary essays especially focusing on the intersection between technological and cultural dynamics of mirrors The international scholars brought together here explore critical questions around the mirror as artefact and the phenomenon of mirroring Beside the common visual registration of an action or inaction in a two dimensional and reversed form various types of mirrors often possess special abilities which can produce a distorted picture of reality serving in this way illusion and falsehood Part I looks at a selection of theory from ancient writers demonstrating the concern to explore these same questions in antiquity Part II considers the role reflections can play in forming ideas of gender and identity Beyond the everyday we see in Part III how oracular mirrors and magical mirrors reveal the invisible divine prosthetics that allow us to look where the eye cannot reach Finally Part IV considers mirrors roles in displaying the visible and invisible in antiquity and since The Electrical Review ,1894 The Face in the Mirror G.
