

An Address to the Mexican Congress

LAS MUCHASÍ as it is a necessity and an obligation to preserve the Republic in all its integrity, it is undeniable that this necessity and obligation include any of the parts which compose it. Thus, the preservation of the territory of Alta California, so highly favored by nature in geographical situation, fertility, extent, and the wealth it contains and, especially, in the peculiar character of its boundary on the north and northwest, is, in our state of political affairs, a matter of the greatest interest. For this reason it is imperative that attention shall not be withdrawn from this region, and I am convinced that if the revolutions which have perturbed our soil, even after the winning of our independence, had not perverted the fulfillment of the good intentions which animate the supreme legislative and executive powers of the Federation toward the two Californias, the line (page 2) of those unhappy territories would have been quite different. But since now is time to realize such good intentions, and since the political horizon is cleared, those powers may, in the midst of tranquility and calm, turn their attention toward those remote portions of the Republic. For they are only waiting this moment to receive gratefully the vitalizing impulse of a protecting hand and repay effort with interest.

The missions of Alta California, as well as those of Baja California, owe their foundations to the piety of various persons who donated their estates or part of them with the exclusive object of developing those sentiments for the propagation of the Catholic faith and the reduction of the barbarous tribes of that country. The various dates of the donations, the persons who
