Liz B. Johnston,2024-11-26 Gangstalking is a novel persecutory belief system Victims believe they are harassed by a group of unknown stalkers perhaps connected with the mafia CIA or law enforcement Victims describe themselves as targeted individuals TIs People who identify as TIs have perpetrated mass shooting incidents as revenge or to draw attention to the problem Social media has allowed the concept to spread globally and there are millions of posts about gangstalking online However there are only a handful of published academic research studies of gangstalking This book summarizes current academic research about gangstalking with a focus on the ethical dilemmas involved in researching this unique concept Gangstalking research is necessarily intersectional spanning the fields of criminology and law enforcement counselling psychology and social media but does not clearly fit into any one defined field Understanding gangstalking involves exploring ethical issues and paradoxes and can also lead to new theories illuminating the puzzle of paranoia This is a genuinely unique book the first academic book on gangstalking It brings together researchers and experts from many different fields and perspectives Literacy in Early Childhood and Primary Education Claire McLachlan,2013 Provides a comprehensive reader friendly introduction to literacy teaching and learning exploring both theoretical underpinnings and practical strategies Juxtapoz ,2007 Lesson Planning for Skills-Based Elementary Health Education Holly Alperin,Sarah Benes,2021 Over 180 field tested lesson plans learning activities and assessments for implementing a skills based approach in your class This resource is aligned with the National Health Education Standards and comes with a web resource that includes English and Spanish versions of the book s reproducible forms Hidden in Plain Sight Eviatar Zerubavel,2015-03-13 Drawing on fascinating examples from science the art world optical illusions and all walks of life he shows that what we notice or ignore varies across cultures and throughout history and illustrates how our environment and our social lives everything from our lifestyles to our professions to our nationalities play a role in determining how we actually use our senses to access the world A subtle yet powerful examination of one of the central features of our conscious life this book offers a way to think about all that might otherwise remain hidden in plain sight Perspectives on Privacy Dieter Dörr,Russell L. Weaver,2014-04-01 Due to rapid developments in the communication sector the right to privacy faces new challenges The increasing digitization and internationalization of communication processes have raised a number of issues and lead to conflicts wherever national legal systems and moral concepts collide Particularly in the areas of data protection and liability of online service providers universal approaches are required This title presents positions of specialists in Europe Australia the US and Canada which contribute to the international dialogue and thereby offer a starting point for a sustainable policy for the protection of privacy rights What Makes Learning Fun? Deborah L. Perry,2012-05-04 Although much has been written in recent years on what museum visitors actually experience there is little research backed guidance available for developing meaningful exhibits and programs for specific educational purposes Deborah Perry looks at what we know about the experiences of people in museums and other informal learning settings and then shares a set of tested principles and strategies known as the Selinda Model for the design of effective museum exhibits Along the way she showcases examples of both effective and ineffective exhibit designs drawn from two decades of work in the field

Autoethnographic Perspectives on Multilingual Life Stories Hancı-Azizoglu, Eda Başak, Şahinkarakaş, Şehnaz, Tannacito, Dan J., 2022-05-13 Storytelling is an ideal avenue for language learners to share their experiences and journeys and find a sense of identity Everyone who has learned an additional language has a story to tell but there is a unique type of autoethnographic and linguistic story that can be read in scholarly platforms Autoethnographic Perspectives on Multilingual Life Stories presents the life stories of multilingual people and their experiences by using autoethnography as a research method It proposes narrative as an autobiographical research method that provides the technique and opportunity to express how transnationals construct their identities in foreign and new contexts through partial or full life stories Covering topics such as identity life stories and self discovery this reference work is ideal for academicians researchers scholars practitioners instructors and students
