

Patty the milk maid was carrying her milk, in a pail, on her head to go to the market.

On her way she was thinking of what she would do with the money she would get for her milk. She would buy a new frock and hat, so all the young men would talk to her.

She knew this would make Polly Shaw jealous. She didn't care and tossed her head, as she did this, the pail fell off and her milk spilt everywhere.

Expectations for Educating English Learners María V. Balderrama,Lynne T. Díaz-Rico,2006 Teacher Performance Expectations for Educating English Learners addresses the needs of elementary and secondary teachers in multilingual classrooms including second language learning across multiple academic subjects Renowned authors Mar a V Balderrama and Lynne D az Rico provide in a single volume the techniques necessary to prepare teachers and other professionals to teach speakers of other languages and cultural backgrounds This timely text is designed to be a comprehensive source of teaching techniques and effective educational practices particularly those that meet California's standardized Teacher Performance Assessment that prospective teachers must take. This book specifically addresses those standards by presenting explicit expectations that challenge teachers in multilingual multiethnic classrooms. Subscribing to a teaching approach that respects and builds second language skills upon a foundation of native language proficiency, Teacher Performance Expectations for Educating English Learners contains the most up to date techniques currently available for promoting linguistic proficiency and features multiple effective teaching methods for the educator of English learners. The main tenet of the book is that successful English language learning results from a combination of rich interesting content instruction and a fast moving engaging curriculum.

A Story of Stories Cristina Devereaux Ramirez, 2024-08-20. One afternoon in fall 2015 Cristina Devereaux Ramirez's mother called and with a tone of urgency in her voice asked her to come to the house and take a look at something she had discovered when she was sorting through boxes in the attic. When Ramirez arrived she found her family sifting through papers in an old vegetable box reading some of the more than 750 pages of Spanish language poems short stories fables and dichos. Ramirez's maternal grandmother Ramona Gonzalez had written some pieces were works in progress complete with word and phrase strikethroughs and handwritten notes in the margins while others were neatly typed prose or what might have been final drafts. None of Gonzalez's writings had seen the outside of that box for decades at least since 1995 when the family matriarch passed away. Gonzalez or Doña Ramona as she was often called was born in 1906 in the El Paso border barrio of Chihuahuita sometimes referred to as the Ellis Island of the Southwest. Her writing celebrates the rich Mexican American culture of Chihuahuita a neighborhood the National Trust for Historic Preservation identified in 2016 as one of America's most endangered historic places. A mother corner grocery store owner published writer and community activist Gonzalez was one of the few Tejanas profiled in Worthy Mothers of Texas 1776-1976. A Story of Stories from a Texas Border Barrio Ramirez chronicles the life of her abuela with the care of a granddaughter and with the eye of a scholar analyzes selections from Gonzalez's work and its significance to El Paso history Chicano literature border barrio folklore and cross border civic movements in the mid twentieth century.
