Fantastic Invasion Patrick Marnham,1987      Fantastic Invasion Patrick Marnham,1980      Dispatches from Africa Patrick Marnham,1981      Fantastic Invasion Patrick Marnham,1980      The Graves Are Not Yet Full Bill Berkeley,2008-08-05 Since 1983 journalist Bill Berkeley has traveled through Africa s most troubled lands Rwanda Liberia South Africa Sudan Uganda and Zaire seeking out the tyrants and military leaders who orchestrate seemingly intractable wars Shattering the myth that ancient tribal hatred lies at the heart of the continent s troubles Berkeley instead holds accountable the Big Men who came to power during this period describing the very rational methods behind their apparent madness      The Myth of Wild Africa Jonathan S. Adams,Thomas O. McShane,1996 Africa s wildlife heritage is under siege and its worst enemy may be traditional conservation methods The authors tell of new conservation programs that include more Africans in the planning execution and financial benefits of this multi billion dollar business      Towards the sustainable well-being of communities Attie van Niekerk,2024-12-03 This book offers a transdisciplinary exploration of the southern African context examining the dynamic interactions between traditional African beliefs Christianity and the modern global empire all in close relation to the African landscape and ecology Drawing on original research the book delves into the ways these powerful forces have shaped contemporary households and communities emphasizing the importance of community agency and sustainable indigenous solutions for everyday challenges It highlights the intersection of cultural religious and ecological systems offering a holistic approach to building resilient and sustainable communities While centered on Southern Africa the book s insights are valuable to global researchers and those invested in creating a dignified livable and sustainable future for Africa      Domicide Douglas Porteous,Sandra E. Smith,2001-10-17 Their eyes see rubble former exiles see home Globe and Mail 23 June 2000 Douglas Porteous and Sandra Smith begin their analysis by examining just how important home is to human life and community Using a multitude of case studies of displacement they derive a theoretical framework that addresses the methods effects of and motives for domicile Two case studies of resettlement resulting from hydro electric power development in British Columbia are used to test this framework Porteous and Smith assess the implications of loss of home evaluate current efforts at mitigation suggest better policies to alleviate the suffering of the dispossessed and as a last resort urge resistance against unacceptable projects      Trapped in History Nicholas Rankin,2023-11-14 Trapped in History tells how the British colonised Kenya and how African nationalism arose under Jomo Kenyatta It describes the terrifying first attacks by the guerrilla freedom fighters known as Mau Mau Though defeated the Mau Mau hastened the end of British rule in Kenya Trapped in History explores the effect the uprising on the author who grew up as a child in the Kenya colony The book is both a history as well as a memoir of the end of Empire      White on Black Jan Nederveen Pieterse,1992-01-01 White on Black is a compelling visual history of the development of European and American stereotypes of black people over the last two hundred years Its purpose is to show the pervasiveness of prejudice against blacks throughout the western world as expressed in stock in trade racist imagery and caricature Reproducing a wide range of illustrations from engravings and lithographs to advertisements candy wrappings biscuit tins dolls posters and comic strips the book challenges the hidden assumptions of even those who view themselves as unprejudiced Jan Nederveen Pieterse sets Western images of Africa and blacks in a chronological framework including representations from medieval times from the colonial period with its explorers settlers and missionaries from the era of slavery and abolition and from the multicultural societies of the present day Pieterse shows that blacks have been routinely depicted throughout the West as servants entertainers and athletes and that particular countries have developed their own comforting black stereotypes about blacks Sambo and Uncle Tom in the United States Golliwog in Britain Bamboula in France and Black Peter in the Netherlands Looking at conventional portrayals of blacks in the nursery in sexual arenas and in commerce and advertising Pieterse analyzes the conceptual roots of the stereotypes about them The images that he presents have a direct and dramatic impact and they raise questions about the expression of power within popular culture and the force of caricature humor and parody as instruments of oppression

We cannot continue like this Attie S. van Niekerk, Sytse Strijbos, 2022-02-07 The book is based on the view that the present trajectory of modern development cannot continue as it is now because it is ecologically unsustainable it continues to enlarge the gap between rich and poor and the decolonisation movement has drawn our attention again to the specific role of religion culture and value in human affairs and the need for a robust element of indigenisation and contextualisation This book is strongly focused on the context of Africa with two chapters that are written by authors from the Netherlands for the purpose of presenting a North South dialogue The book contains a reflection on approaches followed in building sustainable human communities in general and reflection on specific efforts to solve sustainability issues It seeks to integrate academic reflection and insights gained from practical involvement with sustainability issues in local communities and low income households with contributions from Theology and Natural and Social Sciences

Life as a Hunt Stuart Marks, 2016-09-01 The extensive wilderness of Zambia's central Luangwa Valley is the homeland of the Valley Bisa whose cultural practices have enriched this environment for centuries Beginning with the intrusions of warlords and later British colonials successive generations have experienced the callousness and challenges of colonialism Their homeland a slender corridor surrounded by three national parks and an escarpment is a microcosm of the political economic and cultural battlefields surrounding most African protected areas today The story of the Valley Bisa diverges from the myths that conservationists administrators and philanthropists tell about Africa's environmental and wildlife crises

War in the Shadows Patrick Marnham, 2020-09-17 One of our very best writers on France Antony Beevor After publishing an acclaimed biography of Jean Moulin leader of the French Resistance Patrick Marnham received an anonymous letter from a person who claimed to have worked for British Intelligence during the war The ex spy praised his book but insisted that he had missed the real treasure The letter drew Marnham back to the early 1960s when he had been taught French by a mercurial woman a former Resistance leader whose SOE network was broken on the same day that Moulin was captured and who endured eighteen months in Ravensbrück concentration camp Could these two events have been connected His anonymous correspondent offered a tantalising set of clues that seemed to implicate Churchill and British Intelligence in the catastrophe Drawing on a deep knowledge of France and original research in British and French archives War in the Shadows exposes the ruthless double dealing of the Allied intelligence services and the Gestapo through one of the darkest periods of the Second World War It is a story worthy of Le Carré but with this difference it is not fiction A melange of Le Grand Meaulnes and The Spy Who Came in from the Cold It is unforgettable Ferdinand Mount TLS Books of the Year A masterly analysis impeccably presented Allan Mallinson Spectator Fascinating Marnham has a vast and scholarly knowledge of this often treacherous world Caroline Moorehead Literary Review

Environment and History William Beinart, Peter Coates, 2002-01-08 The influence of human economies and cultures on ecosystems is particularly striking in the new worlds into which Europeans have expanded over the past five hundred years Using a comparative and multidisciplinary approach Beinart and Coates examine this neglected aspect of the history of settler incursion and dominance in two frontier nations the USA and South Africa They also seek to explain change in indigenous ideas and practices towards the environment and discuss the rise of popular environmentalism up to the present day

Birth of a Nation Gerard Loughran, 2010-02-12 Launched in Nairobi in 1960 three years before the birth of independent Kenya the Nation group of newspapers grew up sharing the struggles of an infant nation suffering the pain of its failures and rejoicing in its successes Marking its 50th anniversary in 2010 the Nation looks back on its performance as the standard bearer for journalistic integrity and how far it fell short or supported the loyalty demanded by its founding slogan The Truth shall make you free The Aga Khan was still a student at Harvard University when he decided that an honest and independent newspaper would be a crucial contribution to East Africa's peaceful transition to democracy The Sunday Nation and Daily Nation were launched in 1960 when independence for Kenya was not far over the horizon They quickly established a reputation for honesty and fair mindedness while shocking the colonial and settler establishment by calling for the release of the man who could become the nation's first prime minister Jomo Kenyatta and early negotiations for Uhuru The history of the Nation papers and that of Kenya are closely intertwined in the heat of its printing presses and philosophical struggles that story is told here from committed beginnings to its position today as East Africa's leading newspaper group
