Catalog of Copyright Entries, Fourth Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1978      Has God Said? John Douglas Morrison,2006-03-01 Has God said Has God actually spoken declared himself and his purposes to us Historically the Christian faith has affirmed God s redemptive revelatory speaking as historical contentful redemptive centrally in Jesus Christ and under Christ and by the Spirit in the text of Holy Scripture But in the past three centuries developments in Western culture have created a crisis in relation to historical divine authority The modern reintroduction of destructive dualisms cosmological and epistemological via Descartes Newton Spinoza and Kant have injured not only the physical sciences e g positivism but Christian theology as well The resulting eclipse of God has permeated Western culture In terms of the Christian understanding of revelation it has meant the separation of God from historical action the rejection of God s actual self declaration and especially in textual form Holy Scripture After critical analysis of these dualistic developments this book presents the problematic effects in both Protestant Schleiermacher Bultmann Tillich and Roman Catholic Rahner Dulles theology The thought and influence of Karl Barth on the nature of Scripture is examined and distinguished from most Barthian approaches The effects of dualistic Barthian thought on contemporary evangelical views of Scripture Pinnock Fackre Bloesch are also critically analyzed and responses made Helm Wolterstorff Packer The final chapter is a christocentric multileveled reformulation of the classical Scripture Principle via Einstein Torrance and Calvin that reaffirms the church s historical identity thesis that Holy Scripture is the written Word of God a crucial aspect of God s larger redemptive revelatory purpose in Christ      John Wesley's Scriptural Christianity Thomas C. The Resurrection Fantasy Gerald Sigal, 2012-05-31 Examine the evidence presented in the New Testament It shows that the Christian belief in the resurrection of Jesus is not based on historic evidence The New Testament evidence is contradictory in fundamental issues and events Its most salient promise that of a return by Jesus within the lifetime of his contemporaries never occurred Christian apologists have spent the last 2000 years devising many different and often contradictory explanations of what they allege the New Testament really means when it promises a quick return by Jesus They cannot all be right but they can all be wrong When all the Christian theological myths are seen for the fantasies they are it comes down to this Jesus was never God s son did not shed his blood on the cross was not a substitute who took upon himself the punishment for the sins of others did not die to save sinners and was not resurrected And he is never coming back
