Historic Streets and Squares Melanie

Backe-Hansen,2013-11-01 In this picturesque exploration of Britain's constructed landscape an array of medieval lanes Georgian crescents and Victorian squares make an appearance together with the people famous infamous and unfamiliar who designed built and lived in them From Bedford Square and Portobello Road in London through to Grey Street in Newcastle and Charlotte Square in Edinburgh Historic Streets and Squares takes you over the doorstep of some of the country's most familiar addresses Melanie Backe Hansen takes us beyond the facades delving into the evolution of ancient streets the aspirations of builders and architects and the extraordinary lives of past residents She also reveals the fascinating stories of how some of our oldest and most valued crescents lanes and avenues have survived into the twenty first century and the twists and turns of their journey along the way Taken together these fifty examples tell us much about Britain's urban development over the centuries while also highlighting more recent attempts to preserve our architectural heritage The history of our streets avenues lanes and squares reveals more than just changes to architectural style but offers a doorway into the heritage of our nation

British Spas from 1815 to the Present Phyllis May Hembry,1997 Phyllis Hembry author of The English Spa 1560 to 1815 wrote about the origins and development of the spas and their flowering in the eighteenth century Her book deals not only with their healing and recreational aspects but also with their status as political religious social and economic gathering places Hembry had intended to produce a second volume taking the story further but died before being able to do so She had gathered a considerable amount of material and written several draft chapters for this volume Dr and Mrs Cowie have made use of this revising and supplementing Hembry's text to create a study that continues to the present time and is extended to include Welsh Scottish and Irish spas as well

Life in Brighton Clifford

Musgrave,2011-04-04 Brilliantly researched and written this is the definitive history of the city of Brighton Divided into five sections Fishermen and Farmers Princes and Palaces Late Georgian Victorian Marvels and Mysteries Battle Scene and Transformation it shows how Brighton grew from a small fishing village For almost thirty years Clifford Musgrave was the director of the Royal Pavilion the Brighton Library Art Gallery and Museum In 1962 Faber and Faber commissioned him to write a comprehensive history of the town It was published in 1970 to much acclaim This new edition published forty years after the original publication includes a double introduction by the late Clifford Musgrave's son Stephen Musgrave and the editor of Victoria County History for Brighton and author of Georgian Brighton Sue Berry Two letters from Graham Greene to the author are also featured sea swimmers hands of death and mysterious sea forces the stories complete with historical footnotes will ensure that you never look at Brighton in the same way again As Bryan Talbot 2013 Costa Biography Award winner says e This is an original anthology of entertaining and intriguing tales at times funny chilling and poignant a mixture of fact and fantasy told in a wide and refreshing gamut of illustrative styles but all firmly rooted in the history and culture of Brighton e Brighton Pubs David Muggleton,2016-03-15 Brighton Pubs gives a unique and fascinating insight into some of Brighton s famous and infamous pubs taverns and inns East Brighton & Ovingdean Through Time Douglas d'Enno,2010-09-15 This fascinating selection of more than 180 photographs traces some of the many ways in which East Brighton Ovingdean have changed and developed over the last century Art Collecting and Middle Class Culture from London to Brighton, 1840-1914 David Adelman,2024-06-28 This study explores the interplay between money status politics and art collecting in the public and private lives of members of the wealthy trading classes in Brighton during the period 1840 1914 Chapters focus on the collecting practices of five rich and upwardly mobile Victorians William Coningham 1815 84 Henry Hill 1813 82 Henry Willett 1823 1905 and Harriet Trist 1816 96 and her husband John Hamilton Trist 1812 91 The book examines the relationship between the wealth of these would be members of the Brighton bourgeoisie and the social and political meanings of their art collections paid for out of fortunes made from sugar tailoring beer and wine It explores their luxury lifestyles and civic activities including the making of Brighton museum and art gallery which reflected a paradoxical mix of patrician and liberal views of aristocratic aspiration and radical rhetoric It also highlights the centrality of the London art world to their collecting facilitated by the opening of the London to Brighton railway line in 1841 The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history museum studies and British history Sir Arthur Newsholme and State Medicine, 1885-1935 John M. Eyler,2002-08-15 The half century between 1885 and 1935 witnessed an unprecedented expansion of preventive and therapeutic services offered by the state through its local authorities Behind the expansion in public services were also profound changes in attitudes toward poverty and dependency and toward the political and cultural significance of health changes in social policy and administration and changes in the understanding of the causes of disease This book examines this time of change through the ideas and experiences of one prominent participant Sir Arthur Newsholme Professor Eyler draws particular attention to Newsholme s role in constructing a highly successful local health programme his tenure as the Medical Officer of the Local Government Board in Whitehall where he launched some of its boldest programmes including national health insurance his post retirement studies of international health systems and his statistical and epidemiological studies and their connection to his policy recommendations Designing the Seaside Fred Gray,2006 In Designing the Seaside Fred Gray provides a history of seaside architecture from the 18th century to the present day investigating leisure entertainment taste fashion and gender and shows how the seaside even became a hotbed for moral and sexual issues from the early use of bathing machines to twentieth century beauty pageants and naturist groups He relates the evolution of resort architecture to sweeping changes in how seaside nature was experienced and used by holidaymakers The book also traces the history of the coastal resort with examples ranging from Regency Sidmouth to Victorian Scarborough and early 20th century Morecambe as well as assessing seaside developments in the USA and Continental Europe from Coney Island and Santa Barbara to Nice and Trouville Featuring many colourful informative and often entertaining photographs drawings guidebook illustrations postcards and publicity posters from resorts around the world Designing the Seaside is a thoroughly readable as well as a visually fascinating account of changing attitudes to holidaymaking and its setting BOOK JACKET

Places on the Margin Rob Shields, 2013-12-16 The debate on modernity and postmodernity has awakened interest in the importance of the spatial for cultural formations But what of those spaces that exist as much in the imagination as in physical reality This book attempts to develop an alternative geography and sociology of space by examining places on the margin

The Making of Our Urban Landscape Geoffrey Tyack, 2022 The fruit of a lifetime s study Geoffrey Tyack s new book offers an expert survey of Britain s urban history from the Romans to the present day A brilliant example of learning worn lightly it takes the reader on a fascinating tour of towns across the country The Making of Our Urban Landscape is entertaining and enlightening in equal measure It s important too as we confront difficult decisions about our urban future Book jacket

The Gentleman's Daughter Amanda Vickery, 2003-08-11 Based on a study of the letters diaries and account books of over 100 women from commercial professional and gentry families mainly in provincial England this book provides an account of the lives of genteel women in Georgian times

Sin, Organized Charity and the Poor Law in Victorian England R. Humphreys, 1995-07-17 Politicians social administrators economists biographers and historians have shared the belief that the Charity Organisation Society effectively rationalised relief to the Victorian poor and illustrated the advantages of caring voluntarism over impersonal state handouts It is now clear that in provincial England these impressions were illusory The alleged sinful profligacy of other charitable bodies was persistently condemned by the Charity Organisation Society for fostering latent sin amongst the poor By exposing how they failed in practice to satisfy their own prescriptions for appropriate poor relief this volume asks whether the Charity Organisation Society were themselves morally equipped to castigate others about sin
