The War of Our Childhood Wolfgang W. E. Samuel, 2002 One survivor tells of the fire bombing of Dresden Another recounts the pervasive fear of marauding Russian and Czech bandits raping and killing Children recall fathers who were only photographs and mothers who were saviors and heroes These are typical in the stories collected in The War of Our Childhood Memories of World War II For this book Wolfgang W E Samuel a childhood refugee himself after the fall of Nazi Germany interviewed twenty seven men and women who as children by chance and sheer resilience survived Allied bombs invading armies hunger and chaos Our eyes carried no hate only recognition of what was Samuel writes of his childhood Peace was an abstraction The world we Kinder knew nearly always had the word war appended to it Samuel s heartfelt narratives from these innocent survivors are invariably riveting and often terrifying Each engrossing story has perilous and tragic moments school children in Leuna who are sent home during an air raid but are strafed as moving targets fathers who exist only as distant figures returning to their families long after the war or not at all mothers who are raped and tortured families who are forced into a seemingly endless relocation that replicates the terrors of war itself In capturing such experiences from nearly every region of Germany and involving people of every socio economic class this is a collection of unique memories but each account contributes to a cumulative understanding of the war that is more personal than strategic surveys and histories For Samuel and the survivors he interviewed agony and fright were part of everyday life just as were play wondrous experience and above all perseverance My focus Samuel writes is on the astounding ability of a generation of German children to emerge from debilitating circumstances as sane and productive human beings Wolfgang W E Samuel a retired colonel in the U S Air Force is the author of German Boy A Refugee s Story and I Always Wanted to Fly America s Cold War Airmen both published by University Press of Mississippi He lives in Fairfax Va The Smart Set George Jean Nathan, Henry Louis Mencken, 1903 All the Year Round , 1884 The Churchman , 1891 The Western Christian Advocate , 1897 St. Nicholas , 1897 The Youth's Companion , 1911 Includes songs for solo voice with piano accompaniment Helena's Hunger Monika Arendt, 2012-09 Helena is fourteen years old when she experienced the nationally organized forceful deportation of her family from their native Bohemia into West Germany For more than four years she and her family along with thousands of others were transported via cattle cars into various refugee camps where they survived under most deplorable living conditions Deprived of most basic amenities they suffered extreme heat and cold but foremost starvation and disease This journey into the depth of despair is not without hope It is an account of survival that glitters and sparks with love and truth *Selected Stories of George W.
