Fritz Eschen Photographien Berlin 1945-1950:

Urban Memory and Visual Culture in Berlin Simon Ward, 2025-10-01 As sites of continual change and transformation cities are fundamentally forgetful places Yet at the same time urban areas are also homes to museums and archives that collect and exhibit the past a key cultural political and economic activity This book looks at that paradox through the example of Berlin to see how the city has responded to challenges to memory created by rapid changes in politics economics society and the built environment ultimately arguing that the recovery of the experience of time is central to the practices of an emergent memory culture in the contemporary city Archive and Memory in German Literature and Visual Culture

Dora Osborne, 2015 Explores the changing relationship between memory and the archive in German language literature and culture since 1945 The Ethics of Seeing Jennifer Evans, Paul Betts, Stefan-Ludwig Hoffmann, 2018-01-09 Throughout

Germany's tumultuous twentieth century photography was an indispensable form of documentation Whether acting as artists witnesses or reformers both professional and amateur photographers chronicled social worlds through successive periods of radical upheaval The Ethics of Seeing brings together an international group of scholars to explore the complex relationship between the visual and the historic in German history Emphasizing the transformation of the visual arena and the ways in which ordinary people made sense of world events these revealing case studies illustrate photography's multilayered role as a new form of representation a means to subjective experience and a fresh mode of narrating the past Fritz Eschen
