From Advent To Pentecost Carthusian Novice Conferences:

From Advent to Pentecost Carthusian, 1999 The author writes with warmth with learning with passion and with humor The reader can enter into something of the accumulated wisdom of an Order whose members have carried out the same little series of exercises since the eleventh century Each season has its special appeal for Carthusians as the Conferences on Mary and on John the Baptist in the Advent and Christmas seasons show The great Sunday Gospels of Lent the Transfiguration the Samaritan woman at the well the raising of Lazarus are expounded the Passion of Christ is the subject of meditations that are profoundly and sometimes startlingly direct in their candour Yet perhaps the most remarkable part of this unusual book the author's capacity to speak at length and to the point about the Resurrection and the coming of the Spirit Here where Christian teachers and preachers have so often been either hesitant or dogmatically remote we have someone who clearly participates in the mysteries of which he speaks It is a priceless gift to us all

Report from Calabria A Priest, 2017-09-19 Devoted to silence prayer and austere simplicity the Carthusian monks guard their solitude jealously and rarely allow visitors to live with them The author of this book however was privileged to spend four months with the Carthusian community in Calabria Italy the resting place of the founder of their order Saint Bruno The American priest followed the daily regimen of the monks and wrote to family and friends in order to share his experiences and insights His engaging and informative letters are presented in this book along with professional four color photographs provided by the monastery Report from Calabria describes and illustrates the distinctive features of the Carthusian way of life as they were encountered by the author Historical background and excerpts from the writings of Saint Bruno round out the priest's experiences The contemplative vocation bracing and yet deeply human comes alive in this vivid account of very little happening yet a lot going on

A Sociology of Seeking Kieran

Flanagan,2023-01-30 A response to the depletion of the rhetoric of sociology and the spiritual capital of theology this volume explores the remains of Christianity that still lurk as portents in a progressively de Christianised society seeking replacements for belief With the sociologist set in the role of an oracle seeking traces of Christianity in a discipline in which the intrusion of theological understandings has become harder to resist it offers a narrative of belief following the direction of an exemplary portent the finger Through the exploration of broad trends in culture and modern history this study informed by interactionist thought examines both the place of sociology in Christian theology and the failure of theology to connect to its surrounding culture asking how the two disciplines might meld profitably together As such it will appeal to social theorists and theologians as well as sociologists with interests in religion culture and secularisation      Monasticon Cartusiense

Gerhard Schlegel,James Hogg,2005      Seen and Unseen K. Flanagan,2004-09-21 This lively and highly original study explores the link between visual culture and religion in terms of tales memory and character It draws out the sociological implications of handling the virtual and virtue in ways of seeing Using Simmel s approach to religiosity in his third study of sociology in theology Flanagan explores how spectacle is to be understood in ways that yield trust The study will be invaluable for undergraduate and postgraduate courses on visual culture sociology of religion and theology      Sociological Noir Kieran Flanagan,2016-10-04 Contrary to secular claims regarding the expulsion of religion modernity does in fact produce unprecedented forms whose understanding re casts the relationships between sociology and theology This book explores irruptions which disturb modernity from without fragments or deposits of history that have spectral or noir properties whether ruins collective memories or the dark Gothic or the Satanic as manifested in culture The study investigates what irrupts from these depths to unsettle our understanding of modernity so as to reveal its theological roots A ground breaking and extensive work Sociological Noir explores literature history and theology to re cast the sociological imagination in ways that inspire reflection on new configurations in modernity As such it will have wide spread appeal to sociologists and social theorists with interests in religion theology and debates on postsecularism and culture      Mystics Quarterly ,2000      The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2000      Heythrop Journal ,2000 A select book list appears quarterly      Analecta Cartusiana ,1970      Sermons for Advent and the Christmas Season Saint Bernard (of Clairvaux),2007 The twelfth century abbot and contemplative known to history as The Mellifluous Teacher wrote sermons for the entire Christmas liturgical cycle from the first Sunday of Advent four weeks before Christmas to the Feast of the Purification of the Virgin Mary Presentation of Christ in the Temple 2 February As he reflects on the wonder of the Incarnation he reminds Christians still today that Christmas celebrates the awesome condescension of God with us not a commercial carnival      The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2000      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1971      Cassian and the Fathers Thomas Merton,2005 Cassian and the Fathers is the initial volume in the series of Novitiate Conferences of Thomas Merton the classes he presented to young men beginning their monastic life at the Abbey of

Gethsemani in Kentucky They contain Merton's insights on important Patristic and monastic figures preceding the time of St Benedict above all John Cassian the most significant bridge between the early desert fathers and the development of monastic life in the West and they reveal the continuing relevance of their teachings for contemporary monastics and other Christians Much of the value and interest of Cassian and the Fathers as of the novitiate conferences in general lies in the light it casts on Merton himself as teacher novice master and monk These notes provide a privileged standpoint for observing Merton functioning as an integral and important member of his monastic community The public Merton has long been visible in his works written for publication and has more recently been complemented by the interpersonal Merton disclosed in his correspondence and the intimate Merton revealed in his complete journals While the novitiate conferences may not equal in significance these other sources they do allow access to yet another stratum of Merton's wide ranging and immensely productive engagement with his world from the distinctive standpoint he had chosen within a tradition dating back more than sixteen centuries While these lectures need to be used critically and carefully in evaluating Merton's own perspectives and commitments nevertheless they do need to be used The dialectical relationship between Merton's private and more public statements including those made to his novice classes makes possible a more complex and thus a richer picture of his monastic identity and so of his personal identity In learning about Cassian and the Fathers from Merton one learns as well about Merton as monk as heir to the great monastic teachers and as teacher of a new generation of monks an easily overlooked and undervalued yet integral even central component of his vocation for more than half his monastic life Thus the publication of the novitiate conferences will fill a significant lacuna in Merton studies and contribute to a balanced holistic comprehension and appreciation of Thomas Merton's life and work This edition includes an extensive introduction situating these conferences and Merton's years as novice master in the context of his broader life as monk and writer an extensively annotated edition of the text of the conferences based on Merton's own typescript and helpful appendices indicating changes Merton made to his text correlating the written text with taped versions of the actual classes and providing suggestions for further reading both in Merton's other works and in more recent studies of the figures he discusses here

Ss. Vincenzo E Anastasio at Tre Fontane Near Rome Joan Barclay Lloyd, 2006 The long and fascinating history of the abbey of SS Vincenzo e Anastasio at Tre Fontane Near Rome reached back into roman antiquity An ancient martyrion marked the spot where the apostle Paul was believed to have been beheaded and three fountains said to have sprung up as his head hit the ground were places of pilgrimage and monastic habitation Around 1140 Pope Innocent II invited Bernard of Clairvaux to establish a Cistercian monastery on the site Its first abbot later became pope as Eugene III for whom Bernard wrote his Five Books on Consideration advising him how a pope much involved in business could and must maintain a contemplative life Today following nineteenth century suppression and refoundation it is once again a Cistercian abbey Working with architectural archaeological epigraphic and documentary evidence Joan Barclay Lloyd traces the vicissitudes of this historic monastery As she untangles pious tradition from historical fact she also decodes the architectural influences of Rome and Burgundy and traces the alterations wrought over centuries of habitation Saint Mary of Egypt Ronald E. Pepin, 2005 A prostitute become hermit Mary of Egypt has been held up especially to monks as the quintessential example of compunction and conversion First written down around AD 600 her story was translated first into Latin by Paul the Deacon in the ninth century and then into vernacular languages Three metrical versions of her Life are translated here that of Flodoard of Reims in the tenth century Hildebert of Lavardin in the twelfth century and an anonymous Spanish poet of the thirteenth century Although these vernacular versions seem to have been directed in part at monks they also envisaged a larger audience For most of her life Mary of Egypt was a pilgrim her story has travelled from Palestine to Europe from Greek to Latin to French to Spanish and from the monastery to the secular world BOOK JACKET Stewards of the Poor, 2006 Three remarkable fifth century Christians of the Syrian city of Edessa are profiled here one a pauper by choice and two bishops of opposing theological opinions The Man of God born to rank and privilege identified completely with the poor spending his days fasting and praying constantly His quiet holiness deeply influenced Rabbula convert monk and bishop who championed the poor and battled injustice but dealt harshly with those who held what he considered unorthodox beliefs During the christological controversies surrounding Nestorius he supported Cyril of Alexandria and exiled Hiba a supporter of the school of Antioch and an advocate of Theodore of Mopsuestia and Nestorius He regarded Rabbula as a tyrant yet in the turbulent theological climate of the day succeeded him as bishop of Edessa only to reap the fury of the cyrillican party Two undercurrents of fifth century Christianity ebb and flow in these documents The Life of Hiba reflects the intensity of the Nestorian Cyrillian controversy while The Life of the Man of God and The Life of Rabbula emphasize as the chief christian duty of the clergy the care of the poor Whatever the Church has it hold only as a steward for the poor The Way of Silent Love Carthusian, 1993 A carthusian novice master reminds his charges and his readers that the call to live wholly and radically in Christ is the vocation of all Christians and all humanity The Christian is not a separate species of human being but what each person is called to be And the monk is not a separate species of Christian He tries to be what each Christian ought to be Conformity to Christ in faith hope and love this is holiness and each person is called to this holiness
