From Bonaventure to the Reformers George Henry Tavard, 2005 American Book Publishing Record, 2003

Ramism and the Reformation of Method Simon J. G. Burton, 2024 Ramism and the Reformation of Method explores the popular early modern movement of Ramism and its ambitious attempt to transform Church and society. It considers the relation of Ramism to Reformed Christianity and its development as a divine logic attuned to understanding both Scripture and the world. In doing so, it reveals how Ramists rejected the notion of a philosophy or worldview independent of God and sought to encompass everything under an overarching Christian philosophy indebted to Franciscan ideals. The supreme goal of the Ramists was the remaking of the world in the image of the Triune God. Bibliographia Franciscana, 2007

An Introduction to Medieval Philosophy Joseph W. Koterski, 2011-09-09 By exploring the philosophical character of some of the greatest medieval thinkers, An Introduction to Medieval Philosophy provides a rich overview of philosophy in the world of Latin Christianity. Explores the deeply philosophical character of such medieval thinkers as Augustine, Boethius, Eriugena, Anselm, Aquinas, Bonaventure, Scotus, and Ockham. Reviews the central features of the epistemological and metaphysical problem of universals. Shows how medieval authors adapted philosophical ideas from antiquity to apply to their religious commitments. Takes a broad philosophical approach of the medieval era by taking account of classical metaphysics, general culture, and religious themes. Post-Reformation Reformed Dogmatics Richard A. This book spans from Patristic foundations through the elaborated systematic constructions of the Middle Ages to the profound transformation induced by the Protestant Reformation and Roman Catholic responses to it to twentieth-century de and reconstructions. This theological history grounded in and reflective of the spiritual experience and development of real Christians in and from the past contributes to the production and nurturing of a living theology in and for the present. Progress of Medieval Studies in the United States of America, 1930 Nos 6-10 include the report of
