Kallenbach,2025-06-04 EXECUTORS OF CRUDEN v NEALE Superior Court of North Carolina May 1 1796 When a change of government takes place from a monarchical to a republican government the old form is dissolved Those who lived under it and did not choose to become members of the new had a right to refuse their allegiance to it and to retire elsewhere By being a part of the society subject to the old government they had not entered into any engagement to become subject to any new form the majority might think proper to adopt That the majority shall prevail is a rule posterior to the formation of government and results from it It is not a rule binding upon mankind in their natural state There every man is independent of all laws except those prescribed by nature Violence and the Genesis of the Anatomical Image Rose Marie San Juan,2022-11-28 Nothing excited early modern anatomists more than touching a beating heart In his 1543 treatise Andreas Vesalius boasts that he was able to feel life itself through the membranes of a heart belonging to a man who had just been executed a comment that appears near the woodcut of a person being dissected while still hanging from the gallows In this highly original book Rose Marie San Juan confronts the question of violence in the making of the early modern anatomical image Engaging the ways in which power operated in early modern anatomical images in Europe and to a lesser extent its colonies San Juan examines literal violence upon bodies in a range of civic religious pedagogical and exploratory contexts She then works through the question of how bodies were thought to be constituted systemic or piecemeal singular or collective and how gender determines this question of constitution In confronting the issue of violence in the making of the anatomical image San Juan explores not only how violence transformed the body into a powerful and troubling double but also how this kind of body permeated attempts to produce knowledge about the world at large Provocative and challenging this book will be of significant interest to scholars across fields in early modern studies including art history and visual culture science and medicine The Creation of Eve and Renaissance Naturalism Jack M. Greenstein,2016-08-23 Depicting the Creation of Woman presented a special problem for Renaissance artists The medieval iconography of Eve rising half formed from Adam s side was hardly compatible with their commitment to the naturalistic representation of the human figure At the same time the story of God constructing the first woman from a rib did not offer the kind of dignified affective pictorial narrative that artists patrons and the public prized Jack M Greenstein takes this artistic problem as the point of departure for an iconographic study of this central theme of Christian culture His book shows how the meaning changed along with the form when Lorenzo Ghiberti Andrea Pisano and other Italian sculptors of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries revised the traditional composition to accommodate a naturalistically depicted Eve At stake Greenstein argues is the role of the artist and the power of image making in reshaping Renaissance culture and religious thought From Eve to Esther Leila Leah Bronner,1994-01-01 This is the first book length attempt to focus on female biblical figures in the ancient rabbinic writings of midrash and Talmud Primary rabbinic sources employed by the author bring new life and insight into the stories of Eve Deborah Hannah Serah bat Asher and others As women and men today attempt to reevaluate past historical models it serves us well to understand the values and inner workings of rabbinic thinking The examination of what the sources actually say and not what others would like them to have said enable reinterpretation of women s role to proceed on an honest and authentic basis Biblical women reclaimed with contemporary midrash can become paradigms for our modern lives From Eve to Evolution Kimberly A. Hamlin,2014-05-08 From Eve to Evolution provides the first full length study of American women s responses to evolutionary theory and illuminates the role science played in the nineteenth century women s rights movement Kimberly A Hamlin reveals how a number of nineteenth century women raised on the idea that Eve s sin forever fixed women s subordinate status embraced Darwinian evolution especially sexual selection theory as explained in The Descent of Man as an alternative to the creation story in Genesis Hamlin chronicles the lives and writings of the women who combined their enthusiasm for evolutionary science with their commitment to women s rights including Antoinette Brown Blackwell Eliza Burt Gamble Helen Hamilton Gardener Charlotte Perkins Gilman and Elizabeth Cady Stanton These Darwinian feminists believed evolutionary science proved that women were not inferior to men that it was natural for mothers to work outside the home and that women should control reproduction The practical applications of this evolutionary feminism came to fruition Hamlin shows in the early thinking and writing of the American birth control pioneer Margaret Sanger Much scholarship has been dedicated to analyzing what Darwin and other male evolutionists had to say about women but very little has been written regarding what women themselves had to say about evolution From Eve to Evolution adds much needed female voices to the vast literature on Darwin in America Eve's Second Husband Corra Harris,1911 IGBO Is the Humankind Race NNE NTETE,2020-01-17 In Genesis 1 27 So God created Humankind in his image in the image of God He created them Male and Female Igbo is the short form of IGBODOANYA IGBOSHIKWO IGBOCHIDONKECHINYEREG AND IGBOKWABA These four letter words IGBO were are still the channel whereby humankind replicated s the Lord God s creation from generation to generation after He created Adam the first human The words IGBODOANYA to persevere IGBOSHIKWO to prevent IGBOCHIDONKECHINYEREG to protect what god gave you and IGBOKWABA to preserve are the primary builders as well as facilitators of the gametessex cells when fertilization happens in the fallopian tubes during the formation of humankind The word Igbo is the representation of an indelible precepts of God s constitution as it relates to the creation of humankind The four letter words Igbo is the seal legacy and continuity of the actions of the spoken words that originated from Chinekeng r Chinekeng r means the God that
