Courville, 2011-10-20 Edward Said's Rhetoric of the Secular provides an important new reading of Edward W Said's work emphasizing not only the distinction but also the fuzzy borders between representations of the religious and the secular found within and throughout his oeuvre and at the core of some of his most customary rhetorical strategies Mathieu Courville begins by examining Said's own reflections on his life before moving on to key debates about Said's work within Religious Studies and Middle Eastern Studies and his relationship to French critical theorists Through close attention to Said's use of the literal and the figurative when dealing with religious national and cultural matters Courville discerns a pattern that illuminates what Said means by secular Said's work shows that the secular is not the utter opposite of religion in the modern globalized world but may exist in a productive tension with it

Migration and Islamic Ethics, 2019-11-11 Migration and Islamic Ethics Issues of Residence Naturalization and Citizenship addresses how Islamic ethical and legal traditions can contribute to current global debates on migration and displacement how Islamic ethics of mu akha iy fa ij ra am n jiw r sutra kaf la among others may provide common ethical grounds for a new paradigm of social and political virtues applicable to all humanity not only Muslims The present volume more broadly defines the Islamic tradition to cover not only theology but also to encompass ethics customs and social norms as well as modern political humanitarian and rights discourses The first section addresses theorizations and conceptualizations using contemporary Islamic examples mainly in the treatment of asylum seekers and refugees the second contains empirical analyses of contemporary case studies the third provides historical accounts of Muslim migratory experiences Contributors are Abbas Barzegar Abdul Jaleel Dina Taha Khalid Abou El Fadl Mettursun Beydulla Radhika Kanchana Ray Jureidini Rebecca Gould Said Fares Hassan Sari Hanafi Tahir Zaman exploring the place of Islam in society and its frequent distortion in world politics to the more radical Islamism Looking at how this becomes an immediate source of tension and conflict between the secular and the religious Tibi rejects the clash of civilizations theory and argues for the revival of Islamic humanism to help bridge the gap Chapters expand on inter civilizational conflict in global politics dialogue between religious and secular East and West western concepts of Islamism euro Islam and the Islamic diaspora in Europe Islamic humanism as a tool for bridging civilizations Shedding new light on the highly topical subject of Islam in politics and society this book is an essential read for scholars and students of international politics Islamic studies and conflict resolution The Somatechnics of Whiteness and Race Dr Elaine Marie Carbonell

Laforteza,2015-06-28 Investigating the emergence of a specific mestiza mestizo whiteness that facilitates relations between the Philippines and Western nations this book examines the ways in which the construction of a particular form of Philippine whiteness serves to deploy positions of exclusion privilege and solidarity The Somatechnics of Whiteness and Race sheds light on the impact of colonial and imperial histories on contemporary international relations and calls for a queering or resignification of whiteness which acknowledges permutations of whiteness fostered within national boundaries as well as through various nation state alliances and fractures As such it will appeal to scholars of cultural studies sociology and politics with interests in whiteness postcolonialism and race The ^AOxford Dictionary of Islam John L. Beaulieu,2012-07-13 Peter D Beaulieu examines the challenge posed by and to modernity and historic Islam as they encounter one another He compares the Western separation of Church and state with the unitary Islamic State and explores the proposed cultural and societal principles of the Second Vatican Council as potentially influencing long term events in both arenas Beaulieu's research is comprehensive and richly documented yet offers an accessible triangular inquiry into the mosque the manger and modernity By restoring a place at the table for Trinitarian Christianity alongside the engulfing monotheism of Islam and the alternative skepticism of Western rationalism this inquiry broadens the pallet of inter religious and intercultural contact points Beyond Secularism and Jihad provides balanced attention to the differences as well as the similarities between Christianity Islam and modernity An emerging theme is natural law which is universal and intrinsic to all mankind and not confined to competing theologies Neglected in the West that it helped create natural law might contribute to the needed grammar for dialogue between the citizens in the West and the followers of Islam The Conflict of the Ages Teacher Edition IV Ice Age Civilizations Michael J. Lumbard, 2009-08-16 Seven years after the horrific attacks of September 11th misunderstanding and distrust between Islam and the West are still as rampant as ever In this new and fully revised edition of his critically acclaimed book Joseph Lumbard collects a series of essays that explain not only the veil of misconceptions which lie at the heart of Western attitudes towards Islam but also the rise of fundamentalism within Islam itself a phenomenon which most Muslims do not consider a true reflection of their religion This new edition includes the addition of an essay on the role of women in Islam an updated chapter containing insight into the concept of Jihad and three fully revised chapters that bring the discussion up to date with the current global situation A completely modified introduction is also featured This book is an invaluable tool for anyone who wants to see beyond the headlines of hatred and anger which are so common today Pub desc Islam, Liberalism, and Ontology Joseph J. Kaminski, 2021-03-31 This book offers comparative ontologies of both Islam and liberalism as discourses more broadly construed The author argues that despite recent efforts to speak of overlapping consensuses and discursive congruence the fundamental categories that constitute Islam and Liberalism remain very different and that these differences should be taken seriously Thus far no recent scholarly works have explicitly or meticulously broken down where these differences lie The author rigorously explores questions related to rights moral epistemologies the role of religion in the public sphere and more general approaches to legal discourse via primary and canonical sources constitutive of both Islam and liberalism He then goes on to articulate why communitarian modes of thought are better suited for engaging with Islam and contemporary socio political modes of organization than liberalism is This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of politics and international relations Islam liberalism and

Islam, Secularism, and Liberal Democracy Nader Hashemi, 2009-04-08 Islam s relationship to liberal democratic politics has emerged as one of the most pressing and contentious issues in international affairs In Islam Secularism and Liberal Democracy Nader Hashemi challenges the widely held belief among social scientists that religious politics and liberal democratic development are structurally incompatible This book argues for a rethinking of democratic theory so that it incorporates the variable of religion in the development of liberal democracy In the process it proves that an indigenous theory of Muslim secularism is not only possible but is a necessary requirement for the advancement of liberal democracy in Muslim societies

Culture and Islamic Adaptation Psychology Malik Badri, Humanology, 2018-03-15 The indiscriminate exportation of Western psychology to Muslim and third world countries can pose serious cultural and ideological dilemmas When the exported commodity from North to South is physical in nature the harm done can easily be identified for example the quick detection of the life threatening birth defects caused by the drug thalidomide when taken during pregnancy or the flaws in the braking system of a Japanese car However when the exported product is ideas and beliefs and ways of life the indirect and sneaky damage is often much more malevolent and long lasting because it attacks the worldview of the recipients and it shakes their cherished beliefs Because of its technological supremacy Islamic and developing countries got used to wholeheartedly accepting any information coming from the West if it is under the tag of science By presenting itself under this prestigious mantra of science students in Muslim countries swallow the kernel of psychology with its nutshell the baby with its filthy water The danger of this approach is greatly augmented by the shortcomings of our educational systems that discourages critical thinking and encourages the submissive acceptance of the words of the teacher and that of printed material

Representing Jihad Jacqueline O'Rourke, 2012-08-09 The jihad has been at the centre of the West's securitization discourse for more than a decade. Theorists constantly use the jihadist as a discursive tool to further their neoliberal military and market agendas, perpetuating massive gaps of understanding between the West, Muslims and jihadists themselves. They are helped by Muslim interlocutors who all too often play the role of good Muslims explaining the motifs of the bad Muslims. This timely book argues that Muslim theory and fiction has been significantly commodified to cater to the needs of western ideology. It skillfully critiques the ideological contradictions of the debate around the jihadist by offering a comprehensive analysis of Muslim and non-Muslim cultural critics. Ranging from Edward Said to Slavoj Žižek, from Don DeLillo to Orhan Pamuk and from Mohammed Siddique Khan to Osama bin Laden, this vastly heterogeneous discourse produces a multi-dimensional Muslim response. O'Rourke examines some of its critical fault lines in postcolonial theory and literary analysis. This groundbreaking book argues that the temptation to appropriate the figure of the jihadist offers a fertile area from which to launch a discussion about the limits of current theory.

Theorizing Justice in Contemporary Arabo-Islamic Philosophy Kaouther Karoui, 2023-12-04 What is justice from the perspective of contemporary Arabo-Islamic philosophy? Kaouther Karoui takes a transcultural approach open to different philosophical traditions and seeks to decenter Western notions of normativity. She focuses on two thinkers: namely the feminist Fatima Mernissi (d. 2015) and Mohammed Arkoun (d. 2010), a well-known critic of hegemony and orthodoxy. She situates their thinking within current debates among Arab thinkers and brings their ideas into dialog with Western political philosophy. This study thus challenges stereotypes about the Arab-Islamic world by discussing postcolonial theories of gender, justice, political freedom and religion.
