new regime Hearts and minds had to be won over and one of the ways the Nazis did that was to create an ideal of German nationhood in which everyone could feel proud This was especially the case with art which came to be used as a powerful tool of propaganda both to disseminate the myth amongst the population and indicate to the Nazi administrators the sort of cultural environment they should create It was not an easy thing to do While the nation was being re created as a dynamic modern and powerful industrial giant all the signals coming from Hitler indicated that his own idyllic view of the German nation was of a traditional rural people deep rooted in a romantic mystical aesthetic Hitler s own experience as an artist in Vienna before the First World War had shown that while technically proficient his work was detached and impersonal Despite being rejected by the Vienna Academy of Fine Arts he continued to see himself as artistically gifted especially in the field of architecture This book looks at how the artistic side of Hitler s personality dominated Nazi aesthetics and the ways in which the Third Reich manipulated public opinion and advanced its political agenda using the power of art Despite his early setbacks Hitler always thought of himself first and foremost an artist He would frequently break off discussions with diplomats and soldiers to veer off on a lecture about his ideas on art and architecture which had been formed during his time in Vienna Nazi Propaganda Through Art and Architecture explores how Hitler s artistic and architectural vision for Germany led to the monumental structures which we now associate with the Third Reich alongside the rural idyl he sought to espouse and how they came to symbolise the re emergent power of a German nation which would dominate Europe

of Fritz Lang Tom Gunning, 2019-07-25 In this volume Tom Gunning examines the films of Fritz Lang not only as a stylistically coherent body of work but as an attempt to portray the modern world through cinema The world of modernity in which systems replace individuals is conveyed by Lang's mastery of cinematic set design composition and editing Lang presents not only a decades long vision of cinematic narrative which can be compared to that of Alfred Hitchcock or Jean Renoir but a view of modernity that relates strongly to the ideas of Adorno Brecht Benjamin and Kracauer From the sweeping allegorical films of the 20s to the chilly and abstract thrillers of the 50s Lang's films Gunning claims are among the most precious records of the twentieth century The Films of Fritz Lang immeasurably enriches our understanding of a great artist and in so doing reimagines what a film artist is an author who fades away even in being recognised and interpreted an enigmatic figure at the junction of aesthetics history biography and theory A Modernist Cinema Scott W. Klein, Michael Valdez Moses, 2021 In A Modernist Cinema sixteen distinguished scholars in the field of the New Modernist Studies explore the interrelationships among modernism cinema and modernity Focusing on several culturally influential films from Europe America and Asia produced between 1914 and 1941 this collection of essays contends that cinema was always a modernist enterprise Examining the dialectical relationship between a modernist cinema and modernity itself these essays reveal how the movies represented and altered our notions and practices of modern life as well as how the so called crises of modernity shaped the evolution of filmmaking Attending to the technical achievements and formal qualities of the works of several prominent directors Giovanni Pastrone D W Griffith Sergei Eisenstein Fritz Lang Alfred Hitchcock F W Murnau Carl Theodore Dreyer Dziga Vertov Luis Buñuel Yasujiro Ozu John Ford Jean Renoir Charlie Chaplin Leni Riefenstahl and Orson Welles these essays investigate several interrelated topics how a modernist cinema represented and intervened in the political and social struggles of the era the ambivalent relationship between cinema and the other modernist arts the controversial interconnection between modern technology and the new art of filmmaking the significance of representing the mobile human body in a new medium the gendered history of modernity and the transformative effects of cinema on modern conceptions of temporality spatial relations and political geography Alfred Hitchcock Patrick McGilligan, 2004-09-14 In a career that spanned six decades and more than sixty films Alfred Hitchcock became the most widely recognized director who ever lived His films including The 39 Steps Notorious Rear Window Vertigo Psycho and The Birds set new standards for cinematic invention and storytelling Ian Since his death Hitchcock has become crystallized in the public imagination as the macabre Englishman the sexual obsessive the Master of Suspense But this remarkable biography draws on prodigious new research to restore Hitchcock the man the ingenious craftsman the avid collaborator the constant trickster provocateur and romantic Like Hitchcock's best films Patrick McGilligan's Life of Hitchcock is a drama full of revelation graced by a central love story dark humor and cliff hanging suspense a definitive portrait of the most creative and least understood figure in film history And the Loser is: A History of Oscar Oversights [2nd Edition] Aubrey Malone, 2020-10-06 This is the first book of its kind Aubrey Malone has gone back to the start of the Oscar ceremonies and discovered that mistakes have been made every year in the choice of what has been deemed best in the categories of acting directing producing and the subsidiary awards He has identified all the great stars Garbo Montgomery Clift Peter O Toole Barbara Stanwyck etc who never held Oscars in their hands and also iconic directors like Stanley Kubrick who were never thus honored Why were some people over rewarded by the Academy and why did others fall below the radar The author outlines all of the extraneous factors leading to voting choices and how Oscar pariahs have often been subsequently or even posthumously awarded for the wrong films to make up for omissions in a given year With both wit and wisdom he has written an alternative history of the Oscars that will be required reading for both academics and film buffs alike It tells the story behind the story If there were Oscars for research Aubrey Malone would be right up there with the best of them Film Ireland
