reconciling their contemporary identity with a heritage from another country From an examination of photographer Andre Kertesz to a visit to a Hungarian American church in Cleveland from a consideration of stereotypical treatment of Hungarians in North American fiction and film to a description of the process of translating Hungarian poetry into English Teleky's interests are wide ranging he concludes with an account of his first visit to Hungary at the end of Soviet rule

Flesh and Stone: The Body and the City in Western Civilization Richard Sennett, 1996-03-17 This vivid history of the city in Western civilization tells the story of urban life through bodily experience Flesh and Stone is the story of the deepest parts of life how women and men moved in public and private spaces what they saw and heard the smells that assailed them where they ate how they dressed the mores of bathing and of making love all in the architecture of stone and space from ancient Athens to modern New York Early in Flesh and Stone Richard Sennett probes the ways in which the ancient Athenians experienced nakedness and the relation of nakedness to the shape of the ancient city its troubled politics and the inequalities between men and women The story then moves to Rome in the time of the Emperor Hadrian exploring Roman beliefs in the geometrical perfection of the body The second part of the book examines how Christian beliefs about the body related to the Christian city the Venetian ghetto cloisters and markets in Paris The final part of Flesh and Stone deals with what happened to urban space as modern scientific understanding of the body cut free from pagan and Christian beliefs Flesh and Stone makes sense of our constantly evolving urban living spaces helping us to build a common home for the increased diversity of bodies that make up the modern city

Novels, Novelists, and Readers Mary F. Rogers, 1991-07-03 Focusing on British and American novels Rogers takes a sociological look at the business of literature the book industry and the experiences of novelists and readers Viewing the novel as a vehicle of cultural meaning the author shows how the literary canon overlooks substantial similarities among novels in favor of restrictive codes based on social as well as literary considerations She emphasizes the kinship between the social sciences and humanities in her analysis by reinvigorating affection for the novel and also establishing its rich cultural significance

Building and Dwelling Richard Sennett, 2018-04-10 A preeminent thinker redefines the meaning of city life and charts a way forward Building and Dwelling is the definitive statement on cities by the renowned public intellectual Richard Sennett In this sweeping work he traces the anguished relation between how cities are built and how people live in them from ancient Athens to twenty first century Shanghai He shows how Paris Barcelona and New York City assumed their modern forms rethinks the reputations of Jane Jacobs Lewis Mumford and others and takes us on a tour of emblematic contemporary locations from the backstreets of Medellin Colombia to the Google headquarters in Manhattan Through it all he laments that the closed city segregated regimented and controlled has spread from the global North to the exploding urban agglomerations of the global South As an alternative he argues for the open city where citizens actively hash out their differences and planners experiment with urban forms that make it easier for residents to cope Rich with arguments that speak directly to our moment a time when more humans live in urban spaces than ever

The Necklace of Princess Fiorimonde and Other Stories Mary de Morgan, 2020-09-28 Once there lived a King whose wife was dead but who had a most beautiful daughter so beautiful that every one thought she must be good as well instead of which the Princess was really very wicked and practised witchcraft and black magic which she had learned from an old witch who lived in a hut on the side of a lonely mountain This old witch was wicked and hideous and no one but the King's daughter knew that she lived there but at night when every one else was asleep the Princess whose name was Fiorimonde used to visit her by stealth to learn sorcery It was only the witch's arts which had made Fiorimonde so beautiful that there was no one like her in the world and in return the Princess helped her with all her tricks and never told any one she was there The time came when the King began to think he should like his daughter to marry so he summoned his council and said We have no son to reign after our death so we had best seek for a suitable prince to marry to our royal daughter and then when we are too old he shall be king in our stead And all the council said he was very wise and it would be well for the Princess to marry So heralds were sent to all the neighbouring kings and princes to say that the King would choose a husband for the Princess who should be king after him But when Fiorimonde heard this she wept with rage for she knew quite well that if she had a husband he would find out how she went to visit the old witch and would stop her practising magic and then she would lose her beauty When night came and every one in the palace was fast asleep the Princess went to her bedroom window and softly opened it Then she took from her pocket a handful of peas and held them out of the window and chirruped low and there flew down from the roof a small brown bird and sat upon her wrist and began to eat the peas No sooner had it swallowed them than it began to grow and grow and grow till it was so big that the Princess could not hold it but let it stand on the window sill and still it grew and grew and grew till it was as large as an ostrich Then the Princess climbed out of the window and seated herself on the bird s back and at once it flew straight away over the tops of the trees till it came to the mountain where the old witch dwelt and stopped in front of the door of her hut
