The Unitarian Universalist Poets Jennifer Bosveld, 1996

Regular Haunts Gerald Costanzo, 2018-03-01 Gerald Costanzo long known as one of the best contemporary poets of satire focuses specifically on American themes that though presented as parables fables jokes and put ons remain darkly serious in tone His subject is the mythic landscape of America itself the transitory popular consumer culture of late twentieth and early twenty first century life Costanzo evokes a sense of having arrived on the scene too late of having missed the heyday of American innocence and possibility and now in the present is forced to live with diminished experience He mourns a culture where genuine emotion cannot be found but where its semblance can be endlessly marketed Regular Haunts is a retrospective collection of Costanzo's work that also includes nearly thirty new poems

Greatest Hits #272 Dayle Wesley Walls, 2008

On Sacred Ground Nicholas O'Connell, 2011-10-01 On Sacred Ground explores the literature of the Northwest the area that extends from the Pacific Ocean to the Rocky Mountains and from the forty ninth parallel to the Siskiyou Mountains The Northwest exhibits astonishing geographical diversity and yet the entire bioregion shares a similarity of climate flora and fauna For Nicholas O'Connell the effects of nature on everyday Northwest life carry over to the region's literature Although Northwest writers address a number of subjects the relationship between people and place proves the dominant one and that has been true since the first tribes settled the region and began telling stories about it thousands of years ago Indeed it is the common thread linking Chief Seattle to Theodore Roethke Narciissa Whitman to Ursula K Le Guin Joaquin Miller to Ivan Doig Marilynne Robinson to Jack London Betty MacDonald to Gary Snyder Tracing the history of Pacific Northwest literary works from Native American myths to the accounts of explorers and settlers the effusions of the romantics the sharply etched stories of the realists the mystic visions of Northwest poets and the contemporary explosion of Northwest poetry and prose O'Connell shows how the most important contribution of Northwest writers to American literature is their articulation of a more spiritual human relationship with landscape Pacific Northwest writers and storytellers see the Northwest not just as a source of material wealth but as a spiritual homeland a place to lead a rich and fulfilling life within the whole context of creation And just as the relationship between people and place serves as the unifying feature of Northwest literature so also does literature itself possess a perhaps unique ability to transform a landscape into a sacred place

The Oregon Companion Richard H. Engeman, 2009-09-01 What's the connection between Ken Kesey and Nancy's Yogurt How about the difference between a hoedad and a webfoot What became of the Pixie Kitchen and the vanished Lambert Gardens The Oregon Companion is an A-Z handbook of over 1000 people places and things From Abernethy and beaver money to houseboats railroads and the Zigzag River an intrepid public historian separates fact from fiction with his sense of humor intact Entries include towns and cities counties rivers lakes and mountains people who have left a mark on Oregon industries products crops and natural resources Includes more than 160 historical black and white photos This entertaining and delightfully meticulous compendium is an essential reference for anyone curious about Oregon More than Petticoats: Remarkable Oregon Women Gayle Shirley,2010-06-01 More than Petticoats Remarkable Oregon Women 2nd Edition celebrates the women who shaped the Beaver State Short illuminating biographies and archival photographs and paintings tell the stories of women from across the state who served as teachers writers entrepreneurs and artists Department of the Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1995: Justification of the budget estimates: Indian Health United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Department of the Interior and Related Agencies, 1994

Lifesaving Judith Barrington, 2000 Lifesaving is the story of those three years of the people the places and of a young woman struggling to become an adult in the shadow of sudden and staggering loss

BOOK JACKET Wild Song John Daniel, 1998 Here are eighty three poems on the eternal and timely themes of nature written by both eminent poets and emerging talents In various forms of verse they bring to these pages a vigorous diversity of creatures weathers and landscapes from all regions of America They decry ecological injuries celebrate nature s beauties and point to its many mysteries and bear witness to our ever available opportunity to recognize ourselves as rightful members of the evolutionary flow of earthly life Poetry has a distinct and indispensable role to play in our evolving relationship with the natural world that we are at the same time part of and estranged from Along with a scientific understanding of nature we need just as crucially more crucially perhaps a revived imaginal awareness a knowledge based in heart and bodily systems The diverse poems in this collection most of them first published in Wilderness magazine offer visions of the wildness within and around us all the time even in the places we have altered most This exquisite collection contains illustrations by Deborah Randolph Wildman adding spirit and charm to make Wild Song a lovely gift for spring and for every season

The Stories We Tell Suzi Jones, Jarold Ramsey, 1994 Presents the cherished traditional stories and myths of Oregon s literary heritage

Updating the Literary West, 1997 Western writers says Thomas J Lyon in his epilogue to Updating the Literary West have grown up with the frontier myth but now find themselves in the early stages of creating a new western myth The editors of the Literary History of the American West TCU Press 1987 hoped that the first volume would begin not conclude their exploration of the West s literary heritage Out of this hope comes Updating the Literary West a comprehensive reference anthology including essays by over one hundred scholars A selected bibliography is included with each piece In the ten years since publication of LHAW western writing has developed a significantly larger presence in the national literary stream A variety of cultural viewpoints have developed along with new tactics for literary study New authors have risen to prominence and the range of subjects has changed and widened Updating the Literary West looks at topics ranging from western classics to cowboys and Cadillacs and considers children s literature ethnicity environmental writing gender issues and other topics in which change has been rapid since publication of LHAW This volume again affirms the West s literary legitimacy status hard earned by the Western Literary Association and the lasting place of popular western writing as part of the growing and changing literary and American experience An excellent reference for a wide range of readers and an invaluable resource for scholars and libraries Selected list of contributors James Maguire Fred Erisman Susan J Rosowski Gerald Haslam Tom Pilkington A Carl Bredahl Richard Slotkin John G Cawelti Robert F Gish Ann Ronald Mick McAllister
