From Narrative Onward Writing With Focus:

From Narrative Onward Diane Fitton, 2001 From Narrative Onward Fitton, Diane Fitton, 2000-08 This text is based on the assumption that adult learners have a wealth of experience to share but need practice in writing as a communication tool Therefore the focus is on familiar themes freeing students to focus on composition technique History through Narratives of Education in Africa , 2024-04-15 Who were the actors involved in colonial and post independence education in Africa This book on the history of education in Africa gives a special attention to narratives of marginalized voices With this original approach and cases from ten countries involving four colonial powers it constitutes a dynamic and rich contribution to the field The authors have searched for narratives of education from below through oral interviews autobiographies films and undiscovered archival sources Throughout the book educational settings are approached as social spaces where both contact and separation between colonisers and colonised are constructed through social interaction negotiations and struggles Contributors include Ant nia Barreto Lars Folke Berge Clara Carvalho Charlotte Courreye Pierre ric Fageol Fr d ric Garan Esther Ginestet Pedro Goulart Pierre Guidi Lydia Hadj Ahmed Kalpana Hiralal Mamaye Idriss Mihary Jaofeno Rehana Thembeke Odendaal Roland Rakotovao Maria da Luz Ramos Ellen Vea Rosnes Caterina Scalvedi Eva Van de Velde Pieter Verstraete The Making of Resistance Markus Lundström, 2017-05-23 This Briefs advances a theoretical approach that recognizes social movements as contingent enterprises It explores the endurance of social movements over time by developing analytical tools to study how social movement heterogeneities are simultaneously acknowledged and articulated together through collective narration and practices With a unique empirical analysis of one particular narrative the story of Brazil s Landless Movement this Briefs portrays a narrative revisited and revised by movement participants a story revived through enactment This Briefs addresses the increasing academic audience seeking to study and theorize the multi colored phenomena of resistance and social movements Through Feminist Eyes Joan Sangster, 2011 Through Feminist Eyes gathers in one volume the most incisive and insightful essays written to date by the distinguished Canadian historian Joan Sangster To the original essays Sangster has added extensive introductory discussions that situate her earlier work in the context of developing theory and debate Sangster has also supplied an introduction to the collection in which she reflects on the themes and theoretical orientations that have shaped the writing of women s history over the past thirty years Approaching her subject matter from an array of interpretive frameworks that engage questions of gender class colonialism politics and labour Sangster explores the lived experience of women in a variety of specific historical settings In so doing she sheds new light on issues that have sparked much debate among feminist historians and offers a thoughtful overview of the evolution of women s history in Canada Writing the Empire Carol Bolton, 2015-09-30 Examines a range of Robert Southey s writing to explore the relationship between Romantic literature and colonial politics during the expansion of Britain s second empire This study draws upon a range of interdisciplinary materials to consider the impact of his work upon nineteenth century views of empire Empire's Wake: Postcolonial Irish Writing and the Politics of Modern Literary Form Mark Quigley, 2013 Traces development of Irish literary modernism from the 1920s to the 1990s through the writings of James Joyce John Millington Synge Samuel Beckett Sean O Faolain Frank McCourt and the Blasket Island autobiographers Tomas O Crohan and Maurice O Sullivan Considers Irish literature in relation to Irish nationalism and aftermath of British empire The Case of Literature Arne Höcker, 2020-06-15 In The Case of Literature Arne Höcker offers a radical reassessment of the modern European literary canon His reinterpretations of Goethe Schiller Büchner Döblin Musil and Kafka show how literary and scientific narratives have determined each other over the past three centuries and he argues that modern literature not only contributed to the development of the human sciences but also established itself as the privileged medium for a modern style of case based reasoning The Case of Literature deftly traces the role of narrative fiction in relation to the scientific knowledge of the individual from eighteenth century psychology and pedagogy to nineteenth century sexology and criminology to twentieth century psychoanalysis Höcker demonstrates how modern authors consciously engaged casuistic forms of writing to arrive at new understandings of literary discourse that correspond to major historical transformations in the function of fiction He argues for the centrality of literature to changes in the conceptions of psychological knowledge production around 1800 legal responsibility and institutionalized forms of decision making throughout the nineteenth century and literature's own realist demands in the early twentieth century Writing for Social Change in Temperance Periodicals Annemarie McAllister, 2022-11-25 This book suggests alternative ways of looking at what made a writer what people gained from writing and explores the alternative world of temperance periodicals of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries It introduces some of the now forgotten writers who in their thousands kept the Victorian periodical presses rolling and the public entertained Locating their writing in the context of their personal commitment the study takes seven prolific writers who were outside what we now think of as the circuits of conventional publication and authorship and looks at how they found ways to make their voices heard Their absorption in a cause led them to forge impressive writing careers in a variety of genres and media focusing around high circulation temperance periodicals Examining their cultural contributions as well as their professional lives confirms the importance of the temperance movement in the second half of the nineteenth century and raises questions about distribution practices and values and distinctions between life and work In Search of the Treasure Within Rudi Schollaert, 2002 Reassessing Murder, She Wrote Eva Burke, Jennifer Schnabel, 2025-03-18 This book provides a critical overview of the cultural impact of the Murder She Wrote TV series and its paratextual elements including board and video games podcasts fan conventions collectible figures and ghostwritten novels It also explores the series position within the crime genre particularly its engagement with earlier iterations of the lady detective Bringing together a broad range of experts the book includes contributions from both academics and crime fiction novelists to offer a wide ranging view of this popular series and its afterlives Suitable for scholars and students working on popular culture crime fiction TV studies or fan studies this collection provides an interdisciplinary analysis of one of the most successful and enduring female fronted detective series in history

Paper Time Machines Maurice W. Suckling, 2024-08-14 James Dunnigan's memorable phrase serves as the first part of a title for this book where it seeks to be applicable not just to analog wargames but also to board games exploring non expressly military history that is to political diplomatic social economic or other forms of history Don't board games about history made predominantly out of layered paper permit a kind of time travel powered by our imagination Paper Time Machines Critical Game Design and Historical Board Games is for those who consider this a largely rhetorical question primarily for designers of historical board games directed in its more practice focused sections Parts Two Three and Four toward those just commencing their journeys through time and space and engaged in learning how to deconstruct and to construct paper time machines More experienced designers may find something here for them too perhaps to refresh themselves or as an aid to instruction to mentees in whatever capacity But it is also intended for practitioners of all levels of experience to find value in the surrounding historical contexts and theoretical debates pertinent to the creation of and the thinking around the making of historical board games Parts One and Five In addition it is intended that the book might redirect some of the attention of the field of game studies so preoccupied with digital games toward this hitherto generally much neglected area of research

Key Features Guides new designers through the process of historical board game design Encapsulates the observations and insights of numerous notable designers Deeply researched chapters on the history and current trajectory of the hobby Chapters on selected critical perspectives on the hobby

Writing the

City in British Asian Diasporas Sean McLoughlin, William Gould, Ananya Jahanara Kabir, Emma Tomalin, 2014-07-11 In 1962 the Commonwealth Immigrants Act hastened the process of South Asian migration to postcolonial Britain Half a decade later now is an opportune moment to revisit the accumulated writing about the diasporas formed through subsequent settlement and to probe the ways in which the South Asian diaspora can be re conceptualised Writing the City in British Asian Diasporas takes a fresh look at such matters and will have multi disciplinary resonance worldwide The meaning and importance of local multi local and trans local dynamics is explored through a devolved and regionally accented comparison of five British Asian cities Bradford the East End of London Manchester Leicester and Birmingham Analysing the writing of these differently configured cities since the 1960s its main focus is the significant discrepancies in representation between differently positioned texts reflecting both dominant institutional discourses and everyday lived experiences of a locality Part I offers a comprehensive yet still highly contested reading of each city s archives Part II examines how the arts and humanities fields of History Religion Gender and Literary Cultural Studies have all written British Asian diasporas and how their perspectives might complement the better established agendas of the social sciences Providing an innovative analysis of South Asian communities and their multi local identities in Britain today this interdisciplinary book will be of interest to scholars of South Asian Studies Migration Ethnic and Diaspora Studies as well as Sociology Anthropology and Geography
