world Sociologists have not yet remarked and classified us The Washington Square romancers who bold sentimental revel at the foot of Fifth Avenue reck nothing of their sister park many blocks to the east But we are patient of our obscurity Close knit keeping our own counsel jealous of our own concerns and not without our own pride of place we live our quiet lives a community sufficient unto itself So far as may be for mortals under the sway of death and love and fate we maintain ourselves with little change amid the kaleidoscopic shiftings of the surrounding metropolis Few come into Our Square except of necessity Few go out but under the same stem impulsion Some of us are held by tradition some by poverty some by affection and some through loyalty to what once was and is no more Here we live and here hope to die the kind hearts the true hearts that loved the place of old And of all there is no truer heart or kinder than that of the gentle shrewd and neighborly old dominie through whose lips I tell these tales the real historian of the folk whom I too have known and loved in Our Square
